DIAMOND CUT DIAMOND!

A VERY MUCH TWISTED HUNGARIAN TALE.

WRONGED WIFE'S BRAVE TRIP

After Traveling Thousands of Miles With Five Small Children She Locates Her Erring Husband.

HERE is a peculiar case in one of the Hungarian settlements near Mahanoy Plane which is so badly mixed up that it is difficult to write the facts and keep them properly connected so that the real story may be appreciated. It appears that two years ago a Hungarian named John Milovich arrived in this country and located in this town. After a brief stay here he moved to Mahanoy City and was joined there by a woman he represented as his wife. The couple were hard working and, to all appearances, very respectable and intelligent people, and within a few months they succeeded in establishing a very comfortable home. About eight months ago another woman arrived in this town. She had with her five children, three of her own, she said, and two were orphans, left by her sister and sister's husband, who left their native land many months before for America and were never heard of after. The woman with the children said her name was Mary Marowicz. She said that she had come here to join her husband, who left her in the old country over a year previous and had promised to send for her and the children within a few months. After waiting for over a year Mary, the woman No. 2, decided to come to this country with her natural and adopted children and hunt up her negligent spouse. The funds for the journey were furnished by her father, who owns a small farm. Through some unknown means Mary succeeded in learning that her husband was the man living near Mahanoy Plane as John Milovich. With children and packs Mary plodded over the mountains and found her husband and her sister, the mother of the two supposed orphans she had brought across the water, were living together. There was a warm scene at first, but the matter was settled by the husband and sister explaining that their relations had been perfectly proper and that they were living in the same house to save expense with a view to laying away sufficient money to send for the wife, Mary, and the children. The sister also explained that her meeting with Mary's husband was purely accidental. That when she (the sister) and her husband came to this country they located in Coal Dale, near Tamaqua. Subsequently they moved to this town and the husband was killed in the mines. While in the midst of her trouble the sister met Mary's husband here and when he started housekeeping at Mahanoy Plane she became his housekeeper. Mary, the wife, seemed satisfied with this explanation and her faith in the story was strengthened by the fact that she was at once installed as mistress of the household and her sister with her two children was assigned to a separate part of the house. Matters went along smoothly for about six months when Mary had her suspicions aroused. By careful watch she learned that her husband and sister were preparing to leave for the West. The husband had been secretly saving money for the move. But just here another remarkable feature developed. The sister's husband appeared in Mahanoy Plane, alive, well and mad as a March hare. He had traced his wife and arrived on the eve of the proposed elopement. He said his wife deserted him at Freehold and he discovered her whereabouts by the merest accident. Of course the husband's appearance re-kindled the fire and there was another hot time. There was no escape for Mary's husband and her sister Maggie. The crying couple broke down and confessed, but matters were again settled by a division of the money that had been saved for the elopement and other arrangements by which Mary's husband gave her sister's husband a good job with him in the mines and last week the Freehold man moved into a house of his own. Both families are now living as neighbors as if nothing to mar the happiness of either had occurred.

To Attend the Reception.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Kelly left town at noon to-day to reach Philadelphia in time to attend the Harry reception at the Philadelphia Academy of Music in that city to-night. Governor Pattison and staff will be in attendance at the reception. Mr. Kelly is always an honored guest at all the big Democratic receptions and assemblages held in Philadelphia, which attests the prominence he has won in the party. He is certainly deserving of the distinction for there is no one in this section more alert, active and persistent to work for the party and more willing to place his purse at its disposal than Mr. John A. Kelly, and the party knows it.

THE SPRING ELECTION.

The Citizens' Party Should Prepare For It Now.

The date of the spring election is less than twelve weeks off and it is essential that the election officers and those who intend to take an interest in their work should be on the move and preparing for the campaign. It will be none too soon to begin work now. It will be the first spring election under the Baker ballot law and there are a number of points with which all should acquaint themselves before the date draws too near.

The Citizens' party should be on the alert by all means. If it is not in good, legal trim for the battle it will not get a smell at the borough offices. The first thing to be done is to get the standing committee together at once and map out a campaign.

To be successful this year the Citizens' party must place upon its ticket the best men who can be picked, men of respectability, backbone and business qualifications, and men who are willing to take public office to serve the people and not self-interest. The party must push the moss-backs to the rear and look to the progressive men for success.

This will be one of the most important matters that will come up for discussion before the Standing Committee and that body should meet as early as possible to give the matter ample consideration.

Another reason why an early start should be made is the fact that the next spring election will be conducted in an altogether different manner to the last. The Baker ballot law should be examined carefully and every precaution should be taken against any possible shortcoming in carrying out the provisions of the law.

It will be well for all to remember that certificates of nomination and nomination papers for candidates for township and borough offices and election officers and school directors shall be filed with the trustees of the respective townships and boroughs at least ten and seven days respectively before the day of election and every certificate of nomination shall be signed by the presiding officer, and the secretary or secretaries of the primary meeting, who shall add thereto their places of residence, and shall be sworn or affirmed to by them before an officer, qualified to administer oaths, to be true to the best of their knowledge and belief, and a certificate of the oath shall be annexed to the certificate of nomination.

In addition to this the law requires that the certificates of nomination and nomination papers before so filed shall be deemed valid unless objections thereto are duly made in writing within three days after the last day for the filing of such certificates and papers. The objections shall be filed with the auditors and shall be decided by a majority of them. The borough auditors also have the power to print the tickets for the borough election, the cost of which will be sustained by the county.

KILLED IN A MINE SLOPE

A BROKEN COUPLING CAUSES AN ACCIDENT.

EDWARD JENNINGS THE VICTIM

He Was at the Bottom of the Slope and Unable to Get to a Place of Safety—He Was Very Popular.

An accident in the slope of Ellengowan colliery at about 9 o'clock this morning resulted in the death of Edward Jennings who was employed at the bottom of the slope.

The accident was caused by the breaking of a coupling. Two loaded cars were hoisted up the slope and when they were about midway between the top and bottom the coupling between the cars parted.

The roar car dashed down the slope at a terrific pace, but held the rails all the time. Jennings was standing near the rails at the bottom, but the descent was so sudden he was unable to get out of danger. The car struck him as it passed and was rendered a heap of splinters at the bottom.

The unfortunate young man was terribly injured, but retained consciousness and suffered terribly agony. He was removed from the mines on a stretcher and taken to the home of his parents at Ellengowan.

Rev. H. F. O'Reilly, of town, was summoned to administer the last rites of the church and Jennings expired at about half past ten o'clock.

Jennings was about 23 years of age and one of the most popular young men in this section.

A "FLIM-FLAM" GAME.

Two Clever Swindlers at Work in the County.

A number of citizens in the Mahanoy Valley have been victimized lately by the old "flim-flam" game by two clever, well-dressed swindlers.

Yesterday, at Gilberton, a woman who stood behind the counter in the rear of her saloon, was approached by one of the men and asked if she could give him a five dollar note for five one-dollar bills.

The accommodating woman handed him the five dollar bill, which he apparently placed in an envelope and sealed. He then took four dollars from his pocket and remarked that he thought he had five. He said he would go out and secure the other one.

He handed the envelope to the woman, telling her to keep it until he returned. He then left the saloon and as he failed to return she opened the envelope only to find it empty.

The victim immediately reported the case to a citizen who, upon investigation, discovered that another young man had worked the same game at another place.

At last accounts they have not been arrested.

Keep your eye on these sharpers and look with suspicion upon strangers who ask for change.

PERSONAL.

OBES'S OBSERVATIONS.

What He Sees and Hears During His Travels.

My attention has been called to a confusion of dates and names of plays to be produced here in the near future. A committee of Henry Horneastle Camp, No. 46, Sons of Veterans, will produce "The Confederate Spy" at Ferguson's theatre for the benefit of the soldiers' monument fund on December 26 and 27. Washington Camp, No. 296, P. O. S. of A., has arranged for the production of "The Drummer Boy of Shiloh" on December 16 and 17 for its own benefit. People wishing to help the monument fund along have purchased tickets for the other play by mistake. There is only one remedy for this and that is for every one who wishes to help the fund to carefully read the ticket he purchases. The entertainments will be entirely distinct. They will be under different managements and the plays and casts will be different.

The resignation of Director Williams will strengthen the Democratic majority on the School Board. As the board stands now the Democrats number eight and the Republicans seven, and when the time arrives to fill Mr. Williams' place the Democrats will have the power to name the successor by a vote of eight to six, which will leave the political complexion of the board nine to six in favor of the Democrats.

It is announced that ten thousand Italians of the Dagoes class have recently returned or are returning to their native land, taking with them $2,000,000 earned in this country. Before these people came here they earned in their native land ten cents a day and on that amount were able to keep themselves and families supplied with food and clothing. During the past summer they earned from $1.10 to $1.35 per day each and with savings averaging $300 each they go back to Italy comparative millionaires.

A large number of our town people attended the funeral of the late "Tom" Griffith at St. Clair yesterday. The funeral was a very large one and among those in attendance were some of the oldest and most respected citizens of the county who wished to pay a last tribute of respect to a man who was without a peer in this region for generosity and geniality.

I had a conversation with one of the water company officials yesterday and asked him the condition of the dams. He stated that there is about the same amount of water now as there was when the company commenced to turn off the supply the last time. The plan of economy in use will have to be followed again until the dams are replenished by good rainfalls. Some people labor under the impression that a fall of snow such as we have just had relieves the strain, but that is not so. A heavy thaw must come first and that can hardly be depended upon now.

Some of our borough officials were discussing the police arrangements last night and obsolete prisoners were touched upon. They all agreed that it would be a good idea if the Borough Council would have a vehicle made for hauling stubborn ones to the lockup. The case in the First ward, Saturday night, clearly showed the necessity of such a thing. A hand cart, or something of that style, could be secured for a small sum and would pay for itself within a short time in the wear and tear it would save the uniforms of the police. Besides this, less time would be consumed in taking such prisoners to the lockup. It is true that there are plenty wagons and carts in the alleys for such emergencies but the work and assistance required for such vehicles make it more convenient to drag or carry the prisoner.
