THE THEATRE.

Plays Booked for Production at Ferguson's Theatre.

John R. Franz Cumpson, who appeared for the first time before a St. Paul audience at the Metropolitan last night certainly has talent. He has a sweet sympathetic voice. The play, "The Merry Cobbler" is on the Emmett order. The children won't the audience completely.—St. Paul News. "The Merry Cobbler" will appear at Ferguson's theatre this evening.

"HELD IN SLAVERY."
An attraction of unusual merit is booked for Ferguson's theatre for two nights, commencing to-morrow evening, November 30th. Martin Hayden's nautical melodrama, "Held in Slavery," which has been pronounced by press and public equally as strong as the White Slave and Octoroon, will be produced by a company of unusual excellence under the management of Walter N. Lawrence. The scenery is elaborate, painted by Clare at Niblo's garden, New York. There are incidental novelties introduced including the serpentine dance and pickaninny grotesque dances.

In Olden Times

People overlooked the importance of permanent beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action, but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

Electric Railway Bulletin.

Hereafter the electric railway cars will leave the corner of Cherry and Main streets at 5:30 a. m. daily and every 20 minutes thereafter until midnight, at which hour the last car will leave for Girardville. On Monday, November 7th, 1892, the fare for any length of ride between Shenandoah and Girardville will be reduced to five (5) cents.

Coming Events.

- Dec. 4—Grand supper under the auspices of the Y. P. A. in Robbins' opera house.
- Dec. 10 and 17—Drummer Boys, or Sig of Shiloh, in Ferguson's theatre, under the auspices of W. Camp No. 398, P. O. S. of A.
- Dec. 22—Grand fair, Columbia Hose & team Fire Engine Co.; Ferguson's front hall.
- Dec. 26 and 27—"The Confederated Spy; or The Blue and Gray," under the auspices of Henry Horncastle Camp, No. 49, Sons of Veterans, in Ferguson's theatre, for the benefit of Soldiers' Monument fund.

Piles or Hemorrhoids

Permanently cured without knife or ligature. No danger or suffering. No delay from business while under treatment. Patients who are responsible need not pay until well. A perfect cure guaranteed. Send for circular. R. REED, M. D., 129 South 13th St., Philadelphia. Refers, by permission, to the editor of the EVENING HERALD.

Fire Alarm Boxes.

The following list shows the location of the alarm boxes of the Shenandoah Fire Department:

LOCATION.

- 18—Coal and Bowers streets.
 - 16—Bowers and Centre streets.
 - 24—Bridge and Centre streets.
 - 35—Main and Centre streets.
 - 34—Main and Poplar streets.
 - 42—Gilbert and Centre streets.
 - 41—Gilbert and Cherry streets.
 - 42—Chestnut and Coal streets.
- To send an alarm open the box, pull down the hook once and let go. When an alarm is sent in the fire bell will sound the number of the box and repeat the alarm four times.

HOW TO LOCATE ALARMS.

If the alarm is sounded from box 15 the fire bell will strike one, then pause and strike five which will indicate that the fire is in the vicinity of No. 15 box. Every alarm is repeated four times.

ASHLAND.

Miss Lillian Potts, one of Pottsville's charming and attractive young ladies, is the guest of Miss Mame McBrearty.

Misses Maggie Connor and Mame Kinney spent Tuesday in Shenandoah.

Miss Margaret Murphy, of Centralia, is visiting friends in town.

Miss Sullivan, of Gordon, is the guest of Miss Katie Marrow.

The Juniata Club, composed of a number of our most popular school teachers, entertained their friends at the home of Miss Martha Edwards on Friday evening. A befitting programme was arranged for the evening which was participated in by the members of the club. The recitation by Miss Martha Edwards was especially received. Miss Edwards is a fine elocutionist and deserves much praise. The solo entitled "Krin on the Rhine," by Miss Mame Kinney, was greatly appreciated. The recitation by Miss Maggie Corcoran, "The Low Back Car," was received with much applause. "Brother Ira," by Miss Ella Payne, was received with favor. The duet, "Hear me Norma," by Misses Mame Kinney and Mame Devitt, was delightfully rendered. The remaining members of the club, among whom were Agnes Maurer, Winnie Durkin, Mary Holkyard, B. O'Donnell and L. Mombberger, did justice to the evening by rendering some of their fine selections. The guests present being Misses M. Dyer, M. Samuels, Laura Payne, Annie Mallis, Mame Devitt, Maria Connelly, L. Dyer, Emilie Payne, Ida Thomas, B. Coyne, Margaret Mauley and Mrs. Smith. Messrs. J. Noecker, J. Wetzel, H. Bishop, F. Williams, John Bevan, T. Kinney, H. Bear, J. Cannon, J. Nevin and Charles Wagner, of town; Messrs. Johnson and Gable, of Girardville; Tom Colihan and J. McDonnell, Centralia, and Tom Pepper, Pottsville. Nov. 25, 1892.

CENTRALIA.

Mrs. Carrie Black was at Mt. Carmel on Saturday.

Miss Mary A. Walsh and sister, Bridget, visited Shenandoah on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kress are spending a few days with their daughter, Mrs. John Williams, at Nanticoke.

Miss Mary Bakes, one of our pleasant young ladies, left for Minersville on Saturday where she will spend a few days at the home of her brother, James Bakes.

James Thomas, who was visiting town friends, left for Reading on Friday.

A small colliery is being built south of town for the purpose of supplying Ashland and vicinity with coal. It is owned by a few of Ashland's most energetic business men and will soon be completed. It will afford employment to about fifty men and boys.

The School Board met Saturday evening and appointed R. J. Curran teacher of night school. There are now two night school teachers here. We are glad the working boys are taking so much interest in this school. Continue, boys. You will never be sorry for it. Nov. 25, 1892.

For a short time only we will sell large bottles of KO-DA for 25c.

GIRARDVILLE.

Chas. Biltz and Edward O'Donnell spent Sunday evening in Centralia.

J. F. Barnard, I. B. Abrams and Howard Swayer spent Sunday evening with their lady friends at Shenandoah.

"Held in Slavery" had one of the best houses of the season Saturday evening. By 5 o'clock standing room only could be bought. They played to a $450 house.

Ocean Keiffer, of Philadelphia, transacted business in town on Saturday.

The P. & R. C. & L. Co. has completed the new dam at the lower end of town, which will supply water for the "jigs" in their new breaker.

The attraction at the Palace theatre to-morrow evening is the "Merry Cobbler," a musical comedy filled with specialties. The star, Mr. Franz Cumpson, is said to be the sweetest of all singers, and as a German dialect comedian is far above the average. He is assisted by a company of comedians who can sing, dance, and act with ease and gracefulness. So says the press wherever the company has appeared.

Do not fail to witness the production of "Honest Rube," by the J. L. Tempest company, Thursday evening next. Remember it is for the benefit of Aqua Lodge, No. 737, I. O. O. F., and is well worth the price of admission.

FRACKVILLE.

S. W. Shoemaker, son of Squire Shoemaker, of Shenandoah, was in town Sunday as the guest of O. Miller.

Jacob Arty is spending a few days in town. He was formerly of this place but moved to Johnston after the flood.

O. Miller has placed a handsome porch in front of his home.

Quite a number of our people went to Pottsville yesterday to attend the funeral of Rev. Father Duffy, of that place.

J. K. Burke was home over Sunday.

Wm. Klefer, of Mt. Carmel, was in town Sunday, the guest of I. E. Haupt.

W. C. Haupt returned home from Reading Saturday after a few days visit.

George Burdill has moved to Balliet street, formerly occupied by John Smith.

Rev. C. H. Rowig has gone to Minneapolis to preach. He will be gone for two weeks.

Geo. Summers, a life-long resident of our town, but now of Landingville, was here on Sunday.

The "Merry Cobbler" was presented at the Park theatre last week and drew a large audience, but not so large as it should have had, as it was the finest play that we have had for many months. Mr. Cumpson is one of the finest German comedians in the country and deserves the great reputation he has achieved.

She Cured Him.
"Is your husband ever absent-minded?" asked one married lady, addressing another.
"My husband used to be," was the reply.
"What form did his absent-mindedness take?"

Great Science.
"How is the boy's bump of veneration, professor?" asked Jimmie's father.
"Conspicuous," returned the phrenologist.
"That's strange," said the other. "He has no veneration for anything."
"Ahem!" stammered the professor, anxious to be right. "You did not let me finish; I was about to say conspicuous by its absence."—Truth.

THE ANCIENTS' DEITIES.

Human Aspirations Towards the Mysterious and Unseen Powers.

It seems strange to some of us that the ancients should cry aloud to Jupiter in their hour of affliction and praise and believe in a succor that never came, writes Walter Blackburn Harte in the New England Magazine. But it was not very strange. Every dawn and every sunset thrills one with awe; the duldest, coldest cloud feels that this great globe of fire in the heavens is the beacon of eternity; while for him there is no to-morrow. The world saw its god climb in the east every day; his light, warm and kindly, bringing hope and cheer, or adding to the irony of misery in the hearts of those who saw it, crept into every house; it glorified the towers and domes of the city, and added to the horrors of the holocaust or battlefield. The Egyptians, Babylonians, Greeks and Romans had their gods above them, the sun by day, the moon and stars by night, for those with eyes to see; and the worshippers of these silent, indifferent and inscrutable deities wailed and wept in vain, sacrificed and bled before their idols in vain. We, too, cry to our unseen God from wrecks, floods, battlefields, sickness, famine, oppression, and fear, but these things and death seem eternal, and resignation and the final mystery is the only cure for the ills of each generation. We know nothing; we hope for all things and we die.

LOSS OF SLEEP!

I have suffered from loss of sleep, tired feeling, had no appetite, a choking sensation; forming of a hard substance like a ball, in the stomach, weak and nervous during the night, causing loss of sleep until about morning, when palpitation of the heart ensued. I have spent many dollars with numerous doctors, to no avail. Since using Mexican Blood Tonic I have been greatly relieved, and can cheerfully recommend this remedy to others.
