POTTSVILLE LETTER.

A Very Interesting Letter From Our Live. ly Correspondent

POTTSVILLE, Nov. 30,-In my but com munication I mentioned the fact of the untimely death of a much respected man of the clergy, who had died after an illness which was as brief as it was painless. It is the opinion of the physicians, and there were four of them, that Father Duffy suffered little, if any, from the time of his midden illness on Monday night of last week untihis final collapse on the following Wednesday night at 9:15 o'clock. For this the com munity have sent up the one common prayer "God be praised." You have had your regular report of the obsequies and of the soleme coromonies pertaining thereto which took place last Monday, in which his Grace, Archrishop Ryan, took place, and I will therefore only mention incidentally a few things which may not appear in a report of that

If anything was lacking to prove how deep the universal love for Father Duffy has taken root in the bearts of the people, thr strations of Sanday and Monday supplied it. It is estimated that nearly ter thousand people passed by the entafalqua on which his remains rested on Sunday evening has for six bonns, and many of those were present who belonged not to his congrega tion or his faith, but like your corres pondent, they were people who has learned to love him for his merits, had come to honor him for his great worth as a man and a citizen, whilst respecting his memory for the honesty and faithfulnes he displayed in his religion and his every walk of life. Father Duffy's work on earth is done, and when you and I come to review it, you must decide that it was well done. Apropos of the latter remark let me mention that the new temple, which will always be known as Father Duffy's church, was perhaps his greatest achievement. The building is up and under roof and much of the interior completed and what is more creditable is the fact that through his energy and indomitable will power. Rev. Duffy had paid for everything connected with the structure up to date, barring perhaps a few insignificent items. And what is more to his credit, he leaves to the church fund for the completion of the edifice a life insurance of tenthousand dollars. Go into any Catholic discessin America that you please where will you find a superior to the man who was buried in the vanit under one of the altars of his ready-prepared monument on Monday? Surely life memory will remain green in the hearts of the people living in this parish as long as life shall last. Regularcat is puce.

THE CHIMINAL POURT. The last regular term of the Quarter Sessions and Oyer and Terminer, more commenty called the Criminal court; ended host esturday and there remains but one other opportunity for the District Attormay to work off the many untried This will be afforded at a special term which has been fixed for December 13th, a time especially appointed for the trial of the County Count Architect Beels, Contractor Taylor and the others indicted for various crimes, and misdemeanors growing out of the erection of the new court house. The same date has been also fixed for the trial of Coustable Zingler, who killed the young mon. Kepley on a Saturday. might about two months ago. It is not ac certain that the cases against the Commission. ers and their friends will come to trial during the two weeks of court beginning with the 19th prox., but that Zeleler will be tried next month is at sure as that the day will dawn His case was set down for last Wednesday, but it was Impossible to try two homicide cases at one time, no matter if two courts were in session, the wise man of the Chronich to the contrary potwithstanding. The Distriet Attorney has regulated his business to suit the courts, the people, in the interest of justice and for the purpose of securing expedition in the trial of cases. Mr. Koch will retire from his office on the first day of and honesty with which his conduct of the PERGUSON'S THEATRE. affairs of the Commonwealth have been marked. He has been energetic, able, courteous and courageous during the whole of his administration, as every one with whom THURSDAY, DECEMBER 8 he has had any official connection whatever will testify.

THE COUNTY TREASURY LOOTED,

Speaking of the criminal court reminds me of the multiplicity of cases which are sent there term after term for the single purpose of getting costs. Shenandouh and vicinity sends a little more than its share of such cases. The charge which is most common is that of larceny, which being a felony the jury has no power over the costs. Most of these cases are based on trivial testimony and the defendants being acquitted the county is muleted for the costs, the larger, part of which goes to the prosecutor and constable. That is simply a method of looting the county treasury, directly and indirectly stealing from the taxpayers. It is refreshing to learn that the attention of the court, the District Attorney and other county officials is being directed to this growing evil and that when the Legislature meets an effort will be made to alter the law in this regard so that the county treasury and the taxpayer will have protection in the broadest sense of Judge Pershing is said to be improving, but e is a very sick man for all that.

District Attorney Ryan's deputies will be M. P. McLaughlin and Edgar W. Bechtel. The fact that Mr. McLaughlin leaves a P. & R. C. & I. Ministers Besieged by the Out. | husband, cast Women.

TURNED OUT INTO THE STREETS

The Mayor, When Besought by the Unfortunates, Expresses His Sympathy-He Refers Them to the Churches-Good Advice All They Can Get.

Pirrasuna, Dec. 2,-Never before in the history of Pittsburg has there been such a sensation created as the present one, resulting from the order of the Mayor to the police officials to close all disorderly houses. More than one hundred women were in the City Hall yesterday afternoon endeavoring to get to the Mayor's office. They gave as the purpose of their visit a desire to learn from him what they shall do. He addressed them, saying:

"I am very serry for you women. I sympathize with you from the bottom of my heart. I did not close you up for 32 months of my term for the reason that I did not think it would help this evil When the ministers of the city, wives, mothers, sisters and brothers came to me to insist on the law being enforced, I had to laste the order.

"I take all the responsibility and I do not know what you can do. I have notuing to offer you. I think that Mr. Brown's order was too hasty. I do not believe in hurrying you out into the streets like dogs. Some consideration should be given and ten days would not be too long a time."

GOOD ADVICE ALL THEY CAN GET. Good advice, the women claim, is all they can get. There are more than thirteen hundred of them thrown on the

Of all the charitable institutions in Allegheny county, with its half million inhabitants, only two could be found with their doors open to the outcasts of society. These are the House of the Good Shepherd, a Catholic Magdalene Protec-tory and the Bethesda Home for Fallen Women. The latter has accommodations for less than a dozen persons.

The women who have money enough to get away from tows are losing no time in deing so. Scores are going East to Al-toona, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, Wash-ington, Baltimore and New York. Dozens are pennilses and council get away.

Many of the latter applied to the police Department to be sent to prison if necessary in order to get a shelter. The police reluse to take them.

STORMING THE MINISTERS. They were sent to the ministers who responsible for the new condition of affairs

They stormed the house of Rev. Mo-Crary, the leader of the movement. They begged, pleaded, fumed, and swore to the minister to do something toward finding them a place to lay their heads. He ordered them away, and applied to the police for protection against the ap-plications of the women. The crowd of crestfallen women retraced their steps down town, and put in their time wandering about the principal business thoroughfares, gazing wistully at the goods displayed in the shop

The time given to close up their houses and be out of them expires at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Nine-tenths of the pro-prietors have already moved out. They turned out their girls to shift for them-
