References to Ferguson Theatre Coming Attractions.

There is a scene in Katie Emmett's play, "The Waifs of New York," showing two trains crossing the Harlem railroad bridge in opposite directions, while the two Waifs are shown hanging from the trestle work of the bridge underneath. It is one of the most thrilling and realistic scenes ever witnessed upon any stage. "The Waifs of New York" will be produced in Ferguson's theatre on Wednesday evening, December 7th.

MODEL MINSTRELS.

The street parade of the Sweeney, Alvido, Gorman & Goetze's Model Minstrels yesterday was by far the finest exhibition of the kind that has been seen on our streets in recent years. The band is an excellent one, and its concerts attracts large crowds. The performance last evening was first class, and the large audience present was delighted from the raising of the curtain to the end.

The Models are gentlemen, and deserve well at the hands of the public.—Greenburg, Ind., Leader. The Model Minstrels will appear at Ferguson's theatre on Thursday evening, December 8th.

From Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher, "40 ORANGE ST., BROOKLYN, N. Y., Feb. 11, 1890,"

"I have used Alcock's Porous Plasters for some years for myself and family, and, as far as I am able, for the many sufferers who come to us for assistance, and have found them a genuine relief for most of the aches and pains which flesh is heir to. I have used Alcock's Porous Plasters for all kinds of lameness and acute pain, and, by frequent experiments, find that they can control many cases not noticed in your circulars.

"The above is the only testimonial I have ever given in favor of any plaster, and if my name has been used to recommend any other it is without my authority or sanction."

LOSS OF SLEEP!

I have suffered from loss of sleep, tired feeling, had no appetite, a choking sensation; forming of a hard substance like a ball in the stomach, wakeful and nervous during the night; causing loss of sleep until about morning, when palpitation of the heart ensued. I have spent many dollars with numerous doctors, to no avail. Since using Mexican Blood Tonic I have been greatly relieved, and can cheerfully recommend this remedy to others.
