Conference in New York Over the Situation,

SENATORIAL CONTESTS DISCUSSED.

Mesars. Brice, Carlisle, Gorman and Whitney Will Meet Again To-day President Elect Cleveland at the Conference-He Is Believed to be Opposed to an Extra Session of Congress.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10 .- Senator J. G. Carlisle of Kentucky, Senator A. F. Gor-man of Maryland and Senator Calvin S. Brice of Ohio, the Committee of the Demo eratic Caucus in Washington who have been in conference with Democratic leaders here, will meet again to-day,

The Senators did not call on Mr. Cleve land, but it is understood that the Pres ident-elect called at Mr. Whitney's house and saw them there.

Ex-Secretary Whitney last night com-municated the fact that the only question considered related to the Senatorial contests in Nebraska, Kansas, Montana, Wyoming and California.

The extra session, tariff, sliver question and Speakership were deferred. Mr. Whitney said a vigorous effort will be made to prevent the Republicans from "stealing" the Senatorships, as he expressed it. Senator Gorman made a sim-

While the Senators were conferring with Mr. Whitney, Congressman Brecken-He said to a reporter last evening that he is opposed to an extra session and his views are believed to be in accord with those of the President-elect.

Mr. Breckeuridge thinks that the initiative in legislation should come from the President, whose suggestions and recommendations should be adopted, and, from what he said, the inference was drawn that Mr. Cleveland does not believe in an extra session.

The Kentuckian said no fight would be made against Crisp, but he believed a Speaker should be elected whose views are in complete accord with those of the President

THE ALLEGATIONS DENIED.

Bay State Paupers Not Being Dumped Into New York City.

Bosrov, Mass., Dec. 10.-Superintendent of Indoor Poor Wrightington was seen at his office in the State House last evening and made acquainted with the substance of the allegations from New York that Massachusetts was dumping her paupers into that State and city. reporter shewed Mr. Wrightington the despatch from New York alleging that that city was getting more than her share of the pauper population of the Old Bay State, and also alleging that the officials of this State were aiding and abetting these paupers to take up their residence in New York.

"I do not care to talk to any extent," said Mr. Wrightington, "unless there have been special charges made, but I never knew of any paupers being sent to New York or anywhere else from this State that did not belong where they were sent. There is certainly no system-atic dumping of the poor of this State onto the city of New York."

MARSHAL HILLIARD INDIGNANT. He Speaks His Mind Concerning the Trickey-McHenry Affair.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Dec. 10.-When City Marshal Hilliard was spoken to in relation to the alleged McHenry proceedings in the grand jury room, he was in an adignant frame of mind.

He sald he cared nothing about Detective McHenry's private affairs nor about the detailed statements that passed be tween the reporter and detective. He did want to report, however, that as far as McHenry's relations with the government case against Miss Borden were concerned they were perfectly honorable and satis-factory to the authorities. The attempts made to throw discredit on the govern-ment because of its connection with the Trickey-McHenry affair would certainly fail.

"The story as published does not begin to represent the evidence presented to the Grand Jury and the root of the trouble lies far deeper than even hinted at in the published reports."

The Marshal went further and said attempts were made to bribe the officers in this city during the early stages of their investigation and he based his attacements.

investigation, and he based his statements on those made to his men. How to prevent such attempts is a serious problem. He could only place the words of his men against those who approach them.

When he was asked if the whole of the Trickey McHenry case before the jury would ever come out, he said:

"The story is known to two or three men besides myself, and I am quite sure I shall say nothing until the Borden cases bare been settled. If I were McHenry I world certainly give to the public all that know of the transactions after the main cases are tried.

"You can take my word for it that when he does speak neither the Govern-ment nor McHenry will be the sufferers."

HALL AND FITZSIMMONS. Articles Satisfactory to all Concerned, and the Fight Now Certain. Naw Onleans, Dec. 10. - Hall's articles to fight Fitzsimmons differ but little from those originally forwarded to him: He agrees to make a satisfactory deposit with the club, guaranteeing his appearance, and also provides that the club shall deposit $5,000 to be divided between the puglillats in case anything happens to prevent the match.

He also fixes the weight at 160 pounds. There is nothing now in the articles to which either the club or Fitzsimmons will object, so that the match is now regarded as certain.

The club has given its word to heed the request of the Carnival societies, and will arrange the sport to either take place two weeks before or the same period after the Mardi Gras.

WANDERED AWAY AGAIN

Second Disappearance of Julia Hall from New Canaan.

NEIGHBORS SCOURING THE COUNTRY

Since Her Return the Young Woman Has Been Acting Strangely Yesterday She Slipped Away from Home-Thought That She Is Insane.

Nonwark, Conn., Dec. 10.—Miss Julia Hall, daughter of A. I. Hall, president of New Canaan National Bank, has gain disappeared, and the whole town, headed by Rev. Mr. Rower of the Methodist Church and the girl's father, has organized and is searching the woods and adjoining towns.

On Thursday evening Nov. 24, Miss Hall, with a shawl thrown loosely over her head, stepped quietly out of the back door of her home and was not found until the following Sunday afternoon, when her friends traced her to the Neptune House on the Gien Island Ferry road in New Rochelle, where she had wandered during what was said to be temperary aberration Since she returned to her parents, Miss Hall has acted strangely. Yesterday afternoon a friend of hors, a Bridgeport young lady who has been visiting the family for several days, left for home. She had been gone scarcely an hour when it was discovered that Miss Hall was not in the house and, as a close watch had lately been kept over her movements, her absence created great alarm.

Her whereabouts not being learned by members of the family, the neighbors were again appealed to and are now scouring the country for miles around.

Last spring, owing to ill health, she was obliged to give up a position which she had long held in the borough postcolice, and also that of librarian of the Free Reading room.

She is a hely of culture and education

a prominent and active member of the Methodist Church and Epworth League and a leader in the society of her native For several weeks she has had occasional attacks of some trouble which seemed to affect her brain, and it is feared that
