CABIN RATES TO BE INCREASED.

The Columbian Exposition Likely to be Affected by the Action-No More Special Exencions Brought About on Accounof American Regulations Regarding Immigration Canadians Pleased.

LONDON, Dec. 13.-Mr. Peters, secre tary of the North Atlantic Steamship Association, states that in view of American regulations in regard to immigrants, the association decides to carry or its vessels only saloon and second class passengers from January 1 next. It is also decided to materially reduce the number of sailings during 1893 and to raise the saloon and second cabin rates in order to make up the loss incurred through abandoning the steerage traffic.

All special excursion rates for the Chicago Columbian Exhibition have been withdrawn by the association, and there is no doubt that this action will result in a large falling off in the number of foreign visitors to the World's Fair.

The only persons pleased by the steps are Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian High commissioner, and Archie Baker, the European agent of the Canadian Pacific Railroad company. Mr. Baker said last night: "The United States closing down or greatly curtailing the steerage traffic cannot but assist the development of the

The representative of the Hamburg-American line said that the United States Senate proposals would simply ruin the Hamburg shipping trade with New York as far as regarded passengers. He also predicted a certain amount of failure for the Chloago Exhibition if intending visit-ors were subjected to the same rules as these which are intended to apply to im-possis to restrict immigration wanted sys-tematizing.

"It is a question of citizenship more than anything else," was the observation made. "Of course, if immigration is re-stricted it will change the character of the steamship business, and arrange-ments must be made by the different lines to carry a better class of passengers at better prices and more freight.

It was admitted that the restriction of immigration would injuriously affect immigration would injuriously affect every transatiantic liner.

CORRIGAN

Bishop Wigger Was Willing to Let Mgr. Satolli Preside.

BUT THE HOBOKEN PRIEST REFUSED

Nubody Knows When the Next Session of the Court Will be Held, as a Committee Is Now Considering the Claim That Vicar General O'Connor Is Biased.

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 18 .- The trial of Father Corrigan began at 2:20 yesterday afternoon braind closed doors in the large oom of the Episcopal residence. Among the churchmen present were Rev. Dr. Lale Birtsell of Bondout, Chancellor Mc-Cartie, paster of St. Michael's Church Rev. Dr. Sebastian S. Smith, pastor of Si Joseph's Church, Paterson, and many others.

It was just before 2 o'clock when Father

Corrigan arrived with his counsel, Father Burtsell, at Bishop Wigger's Episcopal residence, 35 Blescker street.

As soon as the court was seated Dr. Burtsell arose, and for his client, objected to Vicar-General O'Connor sixting as judge on the ground that he is biased. Father O'Court is O'Connor is a member of the Bishop's household. Dr. Smith asked that the reasons for the objections should be made known. Dr. Burtsell answered that he known. Dr. Burtsell answered that he had the reasons written out and then in his possession, but he refused to read them in the presence of Vicar-General O'Connor.

Dr. Smith then stated that in accordance with the law governing such cases Dr. Burtsell should select one priest and he himself another, the two to choose a third, if necessary, to hear the reasons in support of the claim of bias, and the wilnesses who would prove them, and re-port their finding to the Bishop.

Dr. Burtsell, at the suggestion of his client, chose Rev. Dr. Patrick F. Mc-Sweeney of St. Brigid's Church, New York, a priest outside of the dioceso, and Dr. Smith chose Mgr. Doane of New-ark. Dr. Smith greatly desired that they should meet to morrow and report to the Bishop one hour after the meeting, but it was at length agreed that they should meet at St. Patrick's rectory in Newark on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock and report to the flishop on Monday next. Father Corrigan will bring four or five witnesses before them. Nobody now knows when the next session of the court will be and. The dishop will fix the day after to be a decided whether the claim of The next matter which transpired at the best insteer which transports the session of the court was a surprise to the defense. Dr. Smith arose and said: "I may here state that the Blahop is now willing that the case should go before Mgr. Satolii at once for adjuditation."

"This is irrelevant," responded Dr. Burtsell; "we have not brought up Mgr. Satolil's name here. Father Corrigan then said: "When I wrote to the Bishop suggesting the name of Mgr. Satolli and those of Father Hen-nessy and Dean McNulty as judges in this trial, he refused to entertain the idea, and I now do the same." At this point Dr. Smith suggested that Father Corrigan should be sworn to se-creey, and after a long discussion by the unsel the court rose. Father Corrigan has made public the Father Corrigan has made public the letter in which he replied on Nov. 21 to Bishop Wigger's demand that he reignor the statements published by him in the "Freeman's Journal" on Oct. 9 and Nov. 12, and to apologies to Archbishop Corrigan and others for them.

Father Corrigan says he had made no false statements. He had a right as an American priest to express his views on important national, as well as religious, questions, "and to resent the insult ofquestions, "and to resent the insult of-fered to American prelates by scalesiastics who assembled in a purely English-speaking diocese, and as a professedly for-cign element."

Father Corrigan says he meant no of-fense to the Bishop as Bishop of the diocese.
