THEATRICAL NOTES.

References to Ferguson Theatre Coming Attractions.

Little Goldie, in "The Rocky Mountain Waif," attracted two large audiences to Harris's theatre yesterday afternoon and last evening. The play deals liberally with Western scenes and incidents, but it is none the less interesting and entertaining, the scenery was much better than the usual cheap stuff seen with productions of this character. —Pittsburg Leader. "The Rocky Mountain Waif" will be produced at Ferguson's theatre this evening.

DRUMMER BOY.

Again the great war drama, "The Drummer Boy," has been presented by this Post to overflowing houses during six nights and two matinees, the receipts exceeding all records of past years. Therefore the committee desires to express to you, A. F. Nail, their hearty appreciation as a manager and an actor. The enthusiasm with which the play was received convinces us that it is a better card each time it is produced, and we heartily recommend it as a standard war play. —W. W. Scott, Jays Post, G. A. R., Pittsburg. "The Drummer Boy," which will be presented in Ferguson's theatre on the 18th and 17th, is a miniature of the Great Rebellion. It stirs the blood, arouses again the terrible memories, and in it the old soldier fights his battles over again. Every one will be better and happier in having felt the awakening inspiration of the thrilling scenes in "The Drummer Boy."

A Child Enjoys

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effect of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be constipated or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use; so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

The reason why Arnica and Oil Liniment is so popular with the ladies is because it not only is very healing and soothing but its odor is not at all offensive. 1m

J. N. Knevels, with A. J. Shoener, says:

For the past three years I have been a sufferer with tetter on the hands. I have been compelled to leave several positions on account of it and have used dozens of so-called cures but until I used Mexican Herb Ointment I got no relief. I have used one box and my hands are now almost entirely well. I am glad to be able to recommend it to all sufferers from the same complaint.
