TO SUSPEND IMMIGRATION.

House and Senate Committees in Favor of Such a Plan.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 .- At the joint resolution of the immigration committees of the Senate and House it was shown that there was a general feeling in favor of suspending all immigration to this country for periods varying from one to five years.

Senator Quay said that it was the unanimous opinion of the committee which had taken testimony in New York and elsewhere on the subject that immigration should be entirely suspended, and Hale added that he feared the shortness of the present session would make it impossible to pass any bill save one suspending immigration for only a year.

Senator Hill sent to the joint committee a request that no final action be taken. until the New York representatives of the various steamship companies could be keard.

Representative Geissenhalner of New Jersey created a mild sensation by an-nouncing his unalterable objection to any and all propositions looking to restriction of immigration. He is strongly in favor of the present influx of Russian Jews.

THE RAHWAY MYSTERY

James Frouatt Rearrested for the Murder.

EVIDENCE AGAINST HIM THIS TIME.

He was Suspected Six Years Ago, but Was Not Held His Brother-In-Law Sald to bs Implicated - Developments of a Startling Nature Promised.

RAHWAY, N. J., Dec. 15.-James Fronatt as arrested here last night for the murfor of a comely young woman whose body was found on the morning of Saturday, March 26, 1887, in a road leading to the village of Milton, two miles west Rahway. The body was never identified, although viewed by thousands from all parts of New Jersey and New York. The murder is commonly known as the "Rah way mystery."

This is not Froustt's first connection with the murder. He was one of the first arrested on suspicion, and, although there was then evidence that would have war ranted holding him, he was allowed to go. He has been under surveillance ever since, however. Just what evidence the au-thorities have against him Chief Tooker, who made the arrest, refused to tell. At first he denied making the arrest.

It is said that Fronatt's 12-year-old daughter has made a confession as to the actions of her father on the night of March 25, when there was a party at Frouatt's house.

The Frouatt girl tells of a strange and

The product girl tens of a strange and pretty young woman who was at the party, and her description tallies with that of the nurdered girl. The authorities will neither deny nor affurn the story, but say that the arrest was made upon evidence already in their possession, and that which they gained within the tory for the arrest within a few hours previous to Fromati's arrest.

arrest, The murder has been one of the fore-most of New Jersey's "inysteries," and the confession of Frount's daughter, to-gether with the evidence gained at the coroner's inquest at the time, would fus-ten a strong chain of circumstantial evidence about the prisoner. Fronatt is a tall, powerful, and fairly good looking man of 35, but is very illitcente and bental.

It is said that his brutality to his daughter leave her to confess what she knew of the light. The party was held at the how only a short distance from where the body was found. Fromate, his wife, and four children lived on Jufferson avenue, in the village of fillton, during the early part of March, 1889.

With him was his brother-in-law, William Keech, a wood chopper. One of Fronatt's daughters gave a party on the night of March 25, at which were gath-ered only the relatives of Fronatt's fam-ily, to the number of 20 or 25, mostly

The body of the murdered girl was ex-posed to public view at the morgue for 10 days. It is recalled that none of the days. It is recalled that none of the Fromatts nor any of the persons who at-tended the party visited the morgue. From what can be learned of the little girl's confession, Keech, the brother-in-iaw, was very attentive to the dead girl on the night of the party, and they drank beer togenher, at which Fround became heading and newsmaller the schuber or out calous, and, persuading the girl to go out and walk with him, murdered her.

After Fronatt was lodged in jail Chief of Police Tooker sent out his detectives to errest Keech and others who were at the party on the night of the murde It is now certain that within the next 24 hours there will be developments of a startling nature. HARRISON ON THE ELECTION.
