

MISTAKEN INDENTITY!

THREE YOUNG MEN GET INTO TROUBLE.

THEY GRABBED THE WRONG MAN

An Unknown Fellow Insulted a Lady and the Trio Attempted to Run Down the Offender. The Result.

OLICE duty is to some people the simplest of the modern means of seeking a livelihood. All that is necessary, in the opinion of many people, is to grab a transgressor of the law and run him into a lock-up. Muscle, sagacity and judgment form no element in a policeman's makeup in the opinion of the ordinary mortal. It was, perhaps, this mistaken idea that led three of our young townsmen into trouble.

Tuesday evening an unknown man who claimed to be looking for a well-known man of town called at the residence of Deputy Coroner Brennan on South Jardin street. His conduct was offensive to Mrs. Brennan and when she told him so he addressed her in abusive language.

This incident reached the attention of young Mr. Joseph Peters, who is very intimate with Mr. Brennan. With the co-operation of Harvey Waters and John Prosser, "Joe" determined to bring the offensive stranger to justice if he could trace him. At about 12 o'clock Tuesday night "Joe" and his friends met a Jew peddler who was on his way home with his pack from the Lehigh Valley depot. They concluded he was the man they were looking for and grabbed him. The peddler, naturally believing that the three young men were attempting to rob him, offered a determined resistance. "Joe" yelled, "He's the man. He offers resistance." He then blew his whistle and two police officers arrived. "Joe" explained the case and the peddler wanted to lodge a complaint of attempted highway robbery. Upon an agreement of mistaken identity all parties departed for their homes.

While thinking over the matter on Wednesday the peddler changed his mind and concluded that he had grounds for at least of assault and battery against Peters, Waters and Prosser. In the evening he had warrants issued and the young men were arrested. The hearing was postponed until yesterday morning and subsequently postponed until last evening at 8 o'clock.

The three young men appeared before Squire Williams at the hour above named and after waiving a hearing entered bail for trial.

The moral is that one of the elements in the make up of a good policeman is a power of discernment that enables him to first find his man and then jump upon him.

WORLD'S FAIR RAILROAD RATES.
No Further Reduction—Providing Facilities for Increased Traffic.

New York, Dec. 16.—George H. Daniels, of the New York Central, says that about 600,000 passengers will be carried to Chicago and back by Eastern trunk lines during the 240 days covering the time of the World's Fair and the transportation and removal of the exhibits.

When asked for an estimate D. I. Roberts, of the Erie, said that there would probably be an increase of their through traffic from local points, exclusive of the city of New York, of about 100,000 passengers, and says that he bases his estimate upon a careful computation proportioned to the population as given by the census of 1890.

In addition to this comes a very authoritative statement that no reduction in rates on regular trains will be made beyond that recently adopted by the presidents of the Eastern trunk lines. The reason given is that such an overwhelming amount of traffic would result that travel would be blocked.

As it is now, the sleeping car companies have been working double time for months past turning out new cars, for almost all the through passengers will want sleeping accommodations.

DEATH OF LEOPOLD MORSE.
The Ex-Congressman Stricken With an Epileptic Shock.

BOSTON, Dec. 16.—Ex-Congressman Leopold Morse called at the Hotel Vendome shortly before 9 o'clock to see Representative Hitt, who was attending the reception of the Boston Merchants' association.

While waiting in one of the outer rooms of the hotel, he had an epileptic shock.

His physician was called and just as the guests of the Merchants' association were filing into the dining hall he was removed to his house, nearly opposite, where he died within an hour.

Deceased was born in Bavaria 58 years ago and came to this country when 17 years old. He was the only Hebrew ever elected to Congress from New England and served as a Democratic representative in that body in 1868-72, 1876-78, 1880-82, 1884-86. At one time he was president of the Boston Post Publishing company.
