PERSONAL.

L. A. Hamberger is now "doing" Connecticut. James J. Franey left for Norfolk, Va., this morning.

Ceroneer Guldin, of Minersville, was in town yesterday. D. M. Graham, of Mahanoy City, was in town last evening on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Phillips visited friends in Girardville last evening. Miss Kate Shortall, of Jenkintown, a very amiable young lady, is visiting her parents on West Coal street.

Mrs. R. A. Church, formerly of town, will graduate from the Women's Hospital, Philadelphia, as a trained nurse. The annual commencement exercises take place to-morrow.

Hon. D. D. Phillips, of Gordon; Hon. J. J. Coyle, Mahanoy City; Postmaster Eberle and Peter Griffith, Girardville, and Lawyer MacWilliams, of Ashland, were in town last evening.

A Child Enjoys

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effect of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be constipated or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use; so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

Blood Seared Them.

Miss Sallie Herring, an operator in Robbins & Housenick's hat and cap factory on North Bowers street, thoughtlessly attempted to replace a belt which connects the line shaft of the sewing machines with the engine, resulting in a bruise to one of her fingers that caused the blood to flow. The sight of blood sickened the girl and she fainted. Two or three girls hastened to her assistance but they, too, fainted upon seeing the bleeding finger. Mr. Housenick succeeded in assuring the operatives that the injury was not a serious one and within a few minutes the machines were again turning out many caps at a 2:40 gait on the 5,000 order the firm recently secured from the government.

The reason why Arnica and Oil Liniment is so popular with the ladies is because it not only is very healing and soothing but its odor is not at all offensive.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

References to Ferguson Theatre Coming Attractions.

The cast for the presentation of the "Drummer Boy, or Spy of Shiloh," by Camp 206, is the finest home talent that has yet appeared in our theatres. Mr. A. F. Nail, the manager, expressed himself to a HERALD reporter as being highly pleased with the cast, and that the rehearsal last evening showed all the leading characters to be ably handled. Phil. J. Connell, as Frank Rutledge, and E. J. Cotter, of town, as Mart Howard, are second to none in the delineation of these two characters. In fact, every part as represented at the rehearsal, shows the wise selection of those having in charge the presentation of the drama. There are over one hundred people in the cast. The play will be produced in Ferguson's theatre this and to-morrow evenings.

MINNIE LESTER.

Minnie Lester and company band and orchestra will open a week's engagement at Ferguson's theatre, on Monday, December 16th. Miss Lester will present a new play entitled, "The Silver Ledge," a story of the mines. An exchange in speaking of this attraction says: Miss Lester has well earned the name of being an excellent actress and is as good a singer and dancer as ever visited Watkins, and will always receive a hearty welcome here.—Watkins, N. Y.
