MGR. SATOLLI'S MISSION

He Comes to America to Found a Canonical Court.

HIS POWER PRACTICALLY ABSOLUTE

What the Archbishop Says Must be Accepted as the Order of the Pope—Bishop's Powers to be Curtailed—Dr. McGlynn's Case Again.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Much controversy has existed since the arrival of Archbishop Satolli in this country as to his mission and the exact relation he holds between the Pope and the Roman Catholic Church in the United States.

On the authority of an eminent priest in this city it can now be told just why he came here, the circumstances which necessitated his coming, the immediate object, and the ultimate design of his mission.

"I am surprised," said this reverend gentleman, "that so few should be aware of the significance of Mgr. Satolli's mission here."

"Stated as briefly as possible, he is the delegate of the Pope, with absolute authority to act in any case which may be brought before him, and which otherwise would have to go to Rome."

"The reason for his coming is this: The United States, as well as every other English speaking country, together with Japan, India, and China, are mission fields. As such they are governed from Rome by the Propaganda Fide, which, however, always submits its decision to the Pope."

"In the United States there is no enforcement of the canonical law, for the reason that here there is no canonical court. In Germany, France, Poland, Spain, Italy and other countries these courts are established."

"They stand between the clergy and Rome. In other words, instead of applying direct to Rome, as we do in this country, the clergy who have grievances appeal to these courts."

"From them they may appeal to the Pope, but only after a decision has been rendered."

"If the Catholic Church in the United States should govern itself, Rome being only the court of final appeal in cases of law, the work of the Propaganda Fide would be materially lessened. And not only that, but there would be greater satisfaction to Roman Catholics in this country."

"The Pope has given evidence since his election in 1878 of the greatest breadth of judgment in all matters of national importance."

"He is willing that the Catholics in any mission field should govern themselves as soon as they indicate an ability to do so."

"He thinks that the United States has that ability now, and the ultimate design in sending Mgr. Satolli here is to found a canonical court."

"The court will consist of a prelate, who will be the judge, and several expert canonists. It will have the effect of curtailing the power of the bishops over the clergy. As it is now, the bishop has almost absolute power over his priests."

"He may suspend a priest, as Bishop Wigger suspended Father Corrigan a few years ago, without a trial. Under the canonical law, which is not in force now, but which will be in force when the court is established, this cannot be done. The United States will then have ceased to be a mission field."

"At present Mgr. Satolli, while not the Pope of America, as he has been called, is absolute in his power. What he says on any great question must be accepted as final and as the dictum of the Pope. Father Corrigan's case, as well as any others which may be agitating Catholic circles, cannot go to Rome while Mgr. Satolli is in the country."

CASE OF DR. M'GLYNN.

Reports from Rome say the Deposed Priest is to be Reinstated.

Rome, Dec. 17.—The statement by Archbishop Corrigan, published in a New York paper in September last, in regard to a settlement of the differences between the Church and Rev. Father McGlynn, has received full confirmation at the Vatican.

The news of the reconciliation has produced the happiest impression at the Vatican, where Father McGlynn had always been a favorite prior to the difference with his religious superiors. It can be stated on the highest authority that the Pope has given special power to Monsignor Satolli, his Holiness's Delegate in America, to settle the case.

THE SOUVENIR COINS.

First Sixty Thousand Shipped from the Philadelphia Mint.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 17.—The first sixty thousand of the new Columbia souvenir half-dollars were shipped yesterday from the United States mint in this city.

The first delivery of ten thousand coins left on the 9:30 express for New York city in possession of John F. Shriver, representing Colonel Elliot F. Shepard. The remaining fifty thousand, including the "10,000 beauties" and three other valuable pieces, were placed in the hands of the United States Express Company consigned to the sub-treasury at Chicago and left on the Columbian express over the Pennsylvania railroad at 4:25 p. m.

Colonel Shepard's coins were not delivered until after an order from the Secretary of the Treasury, through whom the transfer was made by the World's Fair Commission, had been received.

The 50,000 destined for Chicago occupied five kegs in sealed bags marked $5,000 each. On the head of each keg was nailed a label marked "Columbian Coins, 10,000 half dollars. Assistant Treasurer of U. S., Chicago, Ill."

Each keg was sealed in such a manner that the seal must be broken in removing the head.

Particular attention was devoted by Mint Superintendent Boshnell and his assistants to the packing of one keg which was distinguished from the others by the word "Special" marked in blue pencil on the head.

There were five bags of coins placed in this keg as in the others, but one of them was marked "34,998 instead of $5,000." This indicated the omission from its contents of four dollars, one of which is the most valuable piece of its denomination ever produced.

These four were the first, or "10,000 beauties," the 400th, 1,492d and 1,824th coins of the new issue. These pieces, on account of their extraordinary value, which is estimated at not less than $15,000, were placed in a separate package.

The general agent of the United States Express Company declares that no special precaution will be taken to guard the consignment to Chicago against loss by robbery or otherwise.

One of the special coins, it is reported has already been sold for $10,000.

MAUNA LOA IN ERUPTION.

Hawaii's Volcano Threatening Destruction to Property and Life.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 17.—Mauna Loa, the great volcano of Hawaii, is in eruption again and threatens the destruction of the villages of Hilo and Waialua at its eastern base, and extensive plantations of coconuts and cane.

L. A. Thurston, a member of the Hawaiian Legislature and late Minister of the Interior, who has arrived here by steamer Australia, brings news of the overflow. It was contained in a letter to him from Hilo, and was brought to Honolulu by steamer and landed to him just before the Australia sailed.

For five days previous illuminations had been on a grand scale, and the whole country was shaken by a prodigious earthquake. Even in the neighboring district of Kaa Iwa there were heavy earthquakes and Mauna Loa for a distance each way of more than 60 miles, threw a weird light over the ocean and country round about.

The earthquakes commenced on Friday morning Dec. 2, and increased until evening in force, and increased in noise from that time on. It was feared the entire village of Hilo and the neighboring town of Waialua would be destroyed and that the plantations surrounding them will be covered with lava.

Members of the French Chamber May be Prosecuted.

DELESSEPS ET AL. PLEAD INNOCENT

Charges Against the Accused Directors—Premier Ribot Congratulated for the Stand the Government Has Taken—Paris in the Greatest Excitement.

PARIS, Dec. 17.—The police are making a wholesale descent in search of documents and other evidence for use in the prosecution of the Panama canal directors and others accused of complicity in the frauds.

Armed with warrants of search, the police visited the premises of the Panama Canal company, and also the premises of M. Thierse, of the firm of Thierse & Company.

Besides searching Thierse's premises they searched those of his partner, M. Propser, who had joined with M. Thierse in refusing to enter into any particulars about the 28 checks to bearer, which the company had given to Baron Reinach in return for a check for 8,390,474 francs, drawn by the Panama Canal company.

These 26 checks were believed to be the key to the mystery of corruption and fraud.

The police also searched the residence of M. Herz, who is alleged to be deeply implicated in the Panama schemes of Reinach, and who was with Reinach shortly before his death.

As yet no warrant has been issued for the arrest of M. Ferdinand de Lesseps. It was decided to make the arrest at a meeting at which M. Ribot, the Prime Minister; M. Bourgeois, Minister of Justice; the Procurer General and the head of the Criminal Department were present.

The prosecution of MM. Charles de Lesseps, Fontane and San Leroy, who were arrested yesterday, will be entirely distinct from the others.

The papers assert that four more important arrests are imminent.

It is reported that the government will ask the Chamber of Deputies to authorize the prosecution of a number of its members.

The Presidents of the four Republican groups waited upon M. Ribot yesterday and congratulated him upon the decision of the government, the firmness of which is generally approved in the lobbies and the Chamber itself. Its firmness has secured for it a decided majority in the Chamber. Only the members of the Right and some of the Radicals disapprove of the government.

The arrested Panama Canal directors, when arraigned before Magistrate Franquello, protested their innocence. They were committed to the Mazas Prison.

Julius Picard, president of the Suez Canal company, has written a letter to the president of the Paris Agents de Change saying that the shareholders in the Suez Canal need not be alarmed over the arrest of Charles de Lesseps, as the Suez Canal company is absolutely certain to progress satisfactorily.

The charges against the officers of the company, on which summonses were previously served, and on which they now have been arrested, are that they have jointly made use of fraudulent imaginary credits; that they have dissipated capital entrusted to them for a specific purpose, and that they have employed others out of part, or all, of the means of living on their fortunes.

These offenses come within the reach of seven articles of the penal code.

The penalties to which the heads of the Panama Company have made themselves liable, should the theory of the prosecution be established, are one year's imprisonment at least and five years at most, and a fine from two pounds to one hundred and twenty pounds. The convict may also be deprived of civil rights for the day on which he leaves the prison for five years at least, and ten years at most, and be moreover, forbidden to vote at legislative, municipal or other elections, to carry arms, or to act as guardian.

The accomplice is liable to the same penalties.

It is noteworthy that the accused parties in this case are not to be tried for infractions of the laws regulating financial and industrial companies, but under articles of the common law. The theory, therefore, of the prosecution is that the Panama affair was a swindle from the beginning. The original commissionaires are punished by prescription.

Paris is in the greatest excitement over the arrests, and nothing else is heard on the streets or in public places.

"Green Goods" Men Arrested.

YALE STUDENTS CONVICTED.

McCrea and Wyrehouse Fined $100 Each, the Extreme Penalty.

NEW HAVEN, Dec. 17.—A fine of $100, the extreme penalty of the law, was inflicted by Judge Rufus S. Pickett at the City Court at noon upon James A. McCrea of Pittsburg, Pa., and F. W. Wyrehouse of St. Paul, Minn., the Yale students who were charged with breach of the peace on December 8, during a celebration of the successful football season by the Freshman class.

Manager Smith, of the Opera House, where the disorder occurred; Conlan, the scene shifter; Ryan, the stage carpenter, and Lawton, the officer present, all testified to the identity of both prisoners, and Ryan and Conlan asserted that they saw Wyrehouse throw the torpedo which caused a large part of the audience to leave the theatre, terrified the actors, and inflicted a painful injury upon the eye of one of the musicians in the orchestra.

Attorney Goodhart tried to establish the uncertainty of the identity of the prisoners charged, especially that of McCrea.

Judge Pickett in making his decision stated that the disturbance had all the elements of a panic in effect, and that only the small number of persons arrested deterred him from treating the affair as a riot.

Both cases were appealed.

Wyrehouse is a prominent member of the Yale Y. M. C. A., and McCrea is the giant who played left guard on the Yale champion Varsity football eleven.
