Leave Czars to Russia.

Every conservative citizen of the town co incides in the belief that to make charge against one, refuse to furnish a copy of the charges, and arbitrarily condemn the accused is wholly un-American, despotic and cowardly. Czarism has marked the progress of "De Ats" ever since they have been in power in the Borough Council, A. B. Lamb, one of leaders and the recognized dictator of the despostic body, is a candidate for appointment to a position at Harrisburg and expects Representative-elect Coyle to help him to net there. If Mr. Coyle lends his assistance in placing this miniature Czar at Harrisburg in any position be will stultify himself and the Republican party. We want men at Harrisburg who ad ere to as well as advocate the principles of American government. No Czars need apply:
