THE INJUNCTION CASE!

STEPS TO QUASH THE WATER COMPANY PETITION.

SEVERAL TECHNICAL OBJECTIONS

The Borough's Counsel Claim the Papers Were Defective and That the Court has no Jurisdiction in the Matter.

An important step was taken by counsel for the borough in the injunction suit instituted by the Shenandoah Water and Gas Company to stop progress on the proposed public water works until the court could pass upon the legality of the special election held on the 14th of last June to authorize the increase of the borough debt for the purpose.

In the matter of the special election held June 14, 1892, by the citizens of the Borough of Shenandoah, authorizing the Borough Council to increase the debt of said Borough, in re petition filed July 11, 1892, by certain citizens of said borough, purporting to said election.

And now, Dec. 19, 1892, the Chief Burgess and the Borough Council of said Borough of Shenandoah came into court and respectfully suggest to the court that there is no law and no provision in any law that requires or authorizes the court to pass upon the validity of said election, and that this court has no jurisdiction in the premises.

That the laws relating election contests refer exclusively to public officers, and the only election of contests for contested elections known to the law, or authorized by law, are such as concern the election of public officers, the legality of whose election may be inquired to the manner directed by law; but no law authorized an election of this character to be instituted or contested in this court.

It is not charged or pretended by the contestants that this election was illegally held or conducted, or that illegal votes were received, or legal votes rejected by the election officers, or that the election officers were guilty of any error or misconduct whatever, or that the return of said election was in any respect untrue or incorrect, and that nothing in said petition contained that in any way impeaches the honesty and integrity of said election, or the return thereof.

The said petition does not (as required by law in contested election cases) show wherein it is claimed to be untrue or illegal. The law regarding election contests requires the officials to the petition to swear not only that the election contested was undue or illegal, but also "that the return thereof is not correct."

The affidavit in the present case is "that the return thereof being illegal is incorrect." It is not shown by the affidavit, and in this assertion being vague and inferential, and in not in compliance with the law, and the affidavit itself fatally defective in this respect.

Connell Boycotted the "Herald" Because it refused to wear the collar offered by A. R. Lamb and co-operate with him and his friends in the public water works movement.

Because it declared that the Borough Council had no right to establish public water works under the special election of over eleven years ago.

Because it advocated a special election on the question, which was ultimately held.

Because it protested against advocates of the water works making misleading statements to secure votes at the special election.

Because the HERALD maintained that the water works could not be built and completed on the estimates made by certain Councilmen.

Because the HERALD criticized the Councilmen for changing and modifying the customary oath taken by members of the Borough Council when that body was formed last spring.

Because the HERALD criticized certain acts of Council which it deemed were unreasonable obstructions to the progress of the electric railway, which has since proved of invaluable benefit to the whole valley.

Because the HERALD criticized the Borough Council and joint committee on public water works for proceeding for months without keeping the public informed as to what they were doing and what was being done with the money that was being taken out of the borough treasury "for public water works" before the special election was held.

Because the HERALD criticized certain members of the Borough Council for granting an order for several hundred dollars to the joint committee when only "De Ate" members of the body were present and the other members had retired.

VERY BRIGHT PROSPECTS.

THE RESULT OF ANOTHER TRIP TO VIRGINIA.

PREDICTIONS OF SUCCESS BY ALL

The Southern People Bid Welcome to the Shenandoah Hustlers, and Give Them Every Encouragement.

J. FRANEY has just returned from another trip to Norfolk, Va. He was found seated in the comfortable office in his store at the corner of Main and Oak streets last evening, in conversation with Messrs. P. J. Ferguson and J. F. Finney, picturing to them the events of his trip and the prospects of the Ocean View Railway and Willoughby Spit Hotel and Cottage Companies, as foreshadowed by careful inquiry and investigation, and the opinions of prominent men well acquainted with Norfolk and the surrounding country and business interests there.

In answer to a query of the HERALD reporter Mr. Franey said, "I have little to give for publication concerning our projects, save what is given by the Norfolk News and Courier of Saturday last, the day I left Norfolk. While I was there I met Mr. Christ, formerly of Williamsport. He and others started the City National Bank in Norfolk eight months ago with a capital of $200,000. The deposits already amount to $400,000. Mr. Christ says that the Ocean View Railway which we have secured is worth twice the amount we bought it for. Every man I met, and men there have their enemies as men here, but I found no man, whether friend or enemy of the men who owned the properties we have purchased, who would say that we didn't have a good investment."

Col. Taylor, president of the Marine Bank of Norfolk, also said that we have acquired very valuable interests. The man who previously controlled them, he said, were old fogies who would not put out any money, as they already had plenty and did not care to speculate.

"Our deal is permanently closed and the advance money has been paid on it. As soon as the title to the property is established it will be transferred to us.

"We are already making arrangements to make contracts for building the electric road, building and making all other arrangements for the transportation of half a million people for three months from the 1st of April, next, and two months after that we will have a summer traffic which cannot be estimated at this time. It was 80,000 last year, but the traveling facilities were very crude.

"A number of competent mechanics are being secured for putting up pavilions, bath-houses and other buildings. The plans and specifications were ordered on Saturday.

"Steamboat facilities will be arranged for frequent trips between Willoughby Spit and Old Point Comfort, a distance of two miles. The Iron Steamboat Company, of New York, will furnish the craft."

The information given by the Norfolk News and Courier, referred to by Mr. Franey, is as follows: "Ocean View has always been a popular seaside resort for Norfolk and Portsmouth people and also for Richmond's outing parties and summer tourists. Situated as it is, commanding a view of Chesapeake Bay, the ocean between Capes Henry and Charles, Hampton Roads and the entrance to the Elizabeth, Nansemond and James rivers, with Willoughby Spit as a continuation of itself, holding the waters of Back Bay in its arm; with a fine view of Newport News, Hampton, Old Point, the Rip Raps and the numerous sights around its shores, it is the ideal summer resort and unequalled in its situation among the watering places of the Atlantic coast.

be computed in either dollars or population entirely, though each will be drawn here through its resultant action.

Already houses are going up on the extension of Ocean View and plans are made for others to be started immediately. The impetus to building at Lambert's Point will receive fresh blood and the idea of close and rapid connection with Norfolk will send hundreds to this desirable locality. Willoughby Spit, with its government reservation and fortifications, will be even more popularly settled than ever Old Point has been, as with its position as a water front the view is finer by far than at any other point on the Virginia coast.

JUST IN TIME.
An Attempt to Sell a Hired Horse at Mt. Carmel.
Yesterday morning a resident of town named Archie McDonald hired a horse and buggy at M. O'Hara's livery stable, saying he wanted to drive to Girardville and Ashland. Mr. O'Hara learned that McDonald had driven to Mt. Carmel and sent his son, Michael, to that place. Michael located the horse and buggy and learned that McDonald had been offering them for sale, asking $250. McDonald caught a glimpse of O'Hara and disappeared through the rear door of a store. O'Hara turned the horse and buggy over to W. J. Evans, who happened to be transacting business in Mt. Carmel, and the latter brought the property to this town. With the aid of a constable O'Hara succeeded in having McDonald arrested at the former place last night.

Evie's Daughters.
Marion Harland, on page 103 and 445 of her popular work, "Evie's Daughters; or, Common Sense for Maid, Wife and Mother," says: "For the aching back—should it be slow in recovering its normal strength—an Allecock's Porous Plaster is an excellent comforter, combining the sensation of the sustained pressure of a strong warm hand with certain tonic qualities developed in the wearing. It should be kept over the seat of uneasiness for several days—in obstinate cases, for perhaps a fortnight."

"For pain in the back wear an Allecock's Porous Plaster constantly, removing as it wears off. This is an invaluable support when the weight on the small of the back becomes heavy and the aching incessant."

Go to Holderman's Jewelry store to select your Christmas presents. By making a small deposit goods will be laid away until called for. Corner Main and Lloyd streets. 12-19-92.

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.
Opening of the Annual Session at Pottsville Yesterday.
The Thirtieth Annual Institute of the teachers of Shenandoah county convened in the Academy of Music at Pottsville yesterday. Superintendent B. F. Patterson opened the afternoon session with prayer and Major Levi Huber made the address of welcome.

The instructors of the day were Miss Wilhelmina Seigmiller, Allegheny, "The Use of Type Solids;" Dr. A. E. Winship, of Boston, "History;" and Dr. A. E. Hornoy, of Allentown, made an address.
