"Tim" Grim, of Mahanoy City, spent yesterday in town. Ex-Poor Director Nelfort, of Barnesville, was seen in town yesterday. L. A. Bamberger came home yesterday and will remain with his parents over the holidays. George Holvey and Edward Kester, of Shenandoah, were Mt. Carmel visitors yesterday.—Mt. Carmel News. Messrs. J. J. Coyle, of Mahanoy City, and D. D. Phillips, of Gordon, were among the visitors to town yesterday. C. T. Strough, Deputy State Councillor for District No. 146, Junior Order United American Mechanics, has received a beautiful insignia of the office. A. E. L. Leckie, who left town on Saturday to take a position in the postal department at Washington, writes to the HERALD that he is pleasantly located in that city and expects to enter the Georgetown Law School on January 3rd. Mr. Leckie has enrolled his name as a regular subscriber to the HERALD.

A CHILD ENJOYS

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effect of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be constipated or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

Popular Bazaar for Gentlemen.

The popular hatter and gents' furnishing goods dealer in Pottsville is R. J. Mills, and his place of business is No. 2 North Centre street. His specialties are the Dunlap silk hat, gloves, shirts, collars, cuffs, umbrellas, etc., at popular prices. Money is saved by buying from Mills. Look in his windows for bargains. 12-17-14

It Wears the Collar.

The Sunday News thinks the Borough Council's objection resolution was "eminently proper." We expected this decision from the Council's organ No. 1 and only wish to say: It may yet, And it may "howler!" But it can't be the bottom dollar That we're an independent paper, And don't wear the Council collar.

The reason why Arnica and Oil Liniment is so popular with the ladies is because it not only is very healing and soothing but its odor is not at all offensive. 1m

TIMELY TOPICS.

A String of Thoughts and Fancies of the Editor.

Colett had a very fine, fat possum on exhibition last week. It found a purchaser in a short time. We received a basket of fine Jersey persimmons last week. They were so good that they did not last long.

It is expected that the new house letter boxes will be ready next month. They will be quite handy and all who want to see the mail service improved should secure a box.

Santa Claus is getting ready to make his rounds and the young folks are anxiously awaiting his appearance.

There is much sickness in town from what appears to be the "Grip." One cannot be too careful of his or herself just now. Keep your head cool and feet dry.

The money order and register business at the local post office has been very great the past two weeks. This week will make the employees hustle to keep ahead.

Read the HERALD daily. There is always something of importance in its columns.

Go and hear the wonderful phonograph in the P. M. church Thursday evening. It will be a treat to all.

The letter carriers are not having a picnic this week. They make their rounds loaded down with Christmas gifts for their patrons.

Over 700 persons enjoyed the phonograph concert at Hazleton last Friday night. Don't forget it next Thursday in the P. M. church.

COURT NOTES.

Head of a "Herald" Reporter's Observation at Court.

John R. Coyle, Esq., entered his rule of reference to arbitrate the slander suit of his cousin Hon. J. J. Coyle, of Mahanoy City, and Frank Whitney, a law student, County Auditor James J. Moran, and M. M. Burke, Esq., were chosen arbitrators. They will sit at Pottsville on Jan. 4, next, to hear testimony. Through his attorney, M. M. Burke, Esq., Augustus Delcamp presented his petition praying for discharge from prison under the Insolvent Act and Jan. 2 was fixed by court for hearing.

The surety case of Margaret Devers vs. Hugh Devers was not pressed, and over forty-five others.

In the case of Medlar vs. Wadlinger and Smith, argument was made for judgment, the court took the papers. Ulrich for plaintiff, Burke for defendant.

Argument was made on the petition in the case of Hoffman, a school director of Balm township, praying that a writ of quo warrantu issue. Bechtel and son for petitioner. Ulrich contra.

The case of Gaughan vs. McHale has been continued to January term.

For suitable Christmas presents call at Fricke's carpet store and look at his rugs, ottomans, hassocks and carpets. 12-15-14

The Lester Company.

The Minnie Lester company opened a week engagement at Ferguson's theatre last evening before a packed house, producing an interesting drama of Western mining life, entitled "Silver Ledge." The production was replete with stage and scenic effects and the company sustained all the roles with excellent success. Miss Lester, as Bessie Carlson, was very acceptable and merited the hearty applause that was frequently awarded. Miss Lester's specialties were among the features of the entertainment and her Irish and Scotch reels, sailor's hornpipes, buck dance and American dances were especially clever. This evening the "Croole Spy" will be produced.

Neckties, mufflers and silk handkerchiefs in all the latest and most approved styles and at exceedingly low prices at the Peoples' store. 12-15-14

Grand Time at Jumbo's.

The largest man in the business, John Trout, (Jumbo) who sells the best of everything that is good to drink, will spread the finest lunch in Pottsville at his saloon, 308 W. Market street, on Christmas Monday, Dec. 20th, next.

Fresh Morris River Cove Oysters received daily at Colett's. 9-22-14
