MR. BLAINE NO WORSE

The Patient Conscious and Said to Be Cheerful.

SLIGHT TEMPORARY IMPROVEMENT.

Belief as to the Real Nature of His Malady—President Harrison and Other Prominent Officials Call at the Ex-Secretary's Mansion—Bottelle Relates an Anecdote of Blaine.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—There has been some improvement in Mr. Blaine's condition since Sunday. The reports given out to-day from the Red House, where the patient lies, were more cheerful.

The malady is organic, however, and in the nature of things must grow worse with time. No one sees Mr. Blaine but his wife, the nurses and the physicians.

When a correspondent called at the Blaine residence last night several members of the family were in the sitting room apparently in a more hopeful and cheerful mood than they have been during the past few days.

Dr. Johnson is not so sanguine as the members of the family, but declines to indulge in speculation as to when the end may come. He does not anticipate any immediate collapse, though he admits that Mr. Blaine may be attacked by heart failure any moment.

There is still a mystery surrounding the disease from which Mr. Blaine is suffering, and none of the doctors interested in the case can be induced to disclose the secret.

It was thought possible that, even with the extreme precautions that are taken to protect the invalid, these bad atmospheric conditions might be reflected in Mr. Blaine's condition.

It was thought possible that, even with the extreme precautions that are taken to protect the invalid, these bad atmospheric conditions might be reflected in Mr. Blaine's condition.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Congressman Bottelle of Maine is quoted as making the following statement: "Mr. Blaine's versatility is wonderful."

"I remember in the administration of Gov. Garcelon, when the Democrats were trying to get the State from us, and when Maine was in fever heat and civil war seemed impending, Mr. Blaine was the chairman of the State Committee and had charge of the Republican fight."

"We had been endeavoring to get the Governor to submit the questions at issue to the Supreme Court, but had not succeeded."

"Mr. Blaine led the fighting. Presently there appeared a letter to the Governor signed by Lot M. Morrill, who was known otherwise as a peace-loving, conservative Republican, asking the Governor to lay before the Supreme Court the questions at issue."

"The letter was mild in tone, frank and fair in its expressions, and adroitly put upon the Democrats the onus of refusing to submit the dispute to arbitration."

"Public sentiment at once changed. The Governor was obliged to submit the matter and the decision was in favor of the Republicans."

"For years Mr. Morrill received the praise of hundreds of men not only in Maine, but throughout the United States, for his wisdom and tact."

"Mr. Blaine wrote that letter. Mr. Morrill simply copied it and signed his name."

WHERE IS REV. WATKINS

No Trace of Trinity Church's Former Rector.

MISSING SINCE LAST SATURDAY.

He Drew All His Money and Told Friends in Philadelphia He Was Going Abroad Never to Return—His Disappearance Attributed to Melancholia.

NORWALK, Conn., Dec. 21.—Rev. Wilbur F. Watkins, of Philadelphia, formerly rector of Holy Trinity Church, New York city, and father of Rev. S. H. Watkins, rector of Grace Church here, has mysteriously disappeared.

Last week he was the guest of his son at the rectory, and on Saturday left for New York, presumably to return to Philadelphia.

From that time all trace of him is lost. His son received word from his mother that his father had not reached home and went on to Philadelphia.

After a thorough investigation he learned that his father had drawn all his money, leaving word with friends that he was going abroad never to return.

Efforts are being made to find out whether he sailed on any outgoing steamer. Mr. Watkins is 50 years old. His disappearance is attributed to melancholia, caused by trouble in the Church of the Association in Philadelphia of which until recently he was the pastor.

He resigned the pastorate under charges of a most revolting character, and a committee was appointed to investigate the matter. His son is still in Philadelphia and will remain there until he closes up his father's affairs.
