MINERSVILLE

A coal train was wrecked near the horse shoe curve, Glen Carbon, early Thursday morning. The wreck crew was early at the scene and began clearing the track. Traffic was delayed several hours in consequence. No one was hurt.

Joseph Bixler, of Tremont, who formerly lived here, but who is now employed at the Tremont iron works, arrived here this morning to put up some machinery at the Oak Hill colliery.

The Lehigh Valley train leaving here from the Peoples' Railway depot for Orwigsburg in the evening, was held until after the entertainments and lectures were over during the past week at the County Institute. They take the Minersville passengers to the Mine Hill crossing from which place it is but a short distance to Minersville. This is an accommodation greatly appreciated by those who attend the Institute and would no doubt increase the number who remain over to hear the evening entertainment if it had been made known.

James M. Welser has received a new horse from Cincinnati. A new means of transportation other than by railroad must soon be adopted. To take twelve days for goods to reach here from Cincinnati is entirely too slow traveling for the present age. That the shipment was a horse was no reason why so much time should have been consumed on its way to make it as "slow as a funeral."

Electrocuting in Georgia.

"Well, you got the office?"

"Yes."

"What did it cost you?"

"That's a hard question. You see, I broke my leg running for it, and that cost considerable; then my brother-in-law was killed making a speech for me, and I had to bury him; then I barbed all my cattle, killed three mules riding around the country, mortgaged the farm, and got a divorce from the family; so, you see, it kinder foots up."

—Atlanta Constitution.

More Than He Could Stand.

Justice—Why did you assault this man, who did not give you the slightest provocation?

Prisoner—I had plenty of provocation, may I please your honor.

"What was it?"

"He exasperated me by going around with a happy expression on his face, while I have to scratch gravel to get money enough to pay my house rent."

—Texas Siftings.
