RECAPTURED AT LAST!

MATALAVAGE CAME HOME FOR CHRISTMAS.

A PRISONER ON AN OLD CHARGE

Two Years Ago Matalavage, With the Assistance of His Father, Robbed a Deaf and Dumb Girl.

CONSTABLE TOOMEY and special officer Anthony Alexis succeeded yesterday, after a desperate struggle, in effecting the arrest of a man for whom a bench warrant issued by the court at Pottsville has been in existence for about two years.

The man arrested is William Matalavage, a Hungarian, who was charged, with his father, with one of the worst crimes on the local criminal annals. At the time the act was committed the Matalavages were residents of the First ward. A deaf and dumb young woman named Lizzie Neary, who was also a resident of that ward, became an admirer of William Matalavage and frequently visited his father's house.

On the second of November, 1890, Lizzie paid a visit and was in the company of the father and son. In some manner William learned that the young woman had money concealed in the bosom of her dress. While the father held the door of the room closed the son attacked the helpless mute and took the money from her. The stolen sum amounted to $150 and represented earnings for work done by the day in families.

The Matalavages were arrested and held for trial. The son jumped his bail, but the father stood trial and received a sentence of eighteen months.

Nothing was again heard of William Matalavage until Christmas night, when 'Squire Monaghan learned he was at the house of his sister in the First ward. Toomey and Alexis tried to make an arrest, but the man evaded them. Yesterday they surprised him. Matalavage fought like a tiger and was only subdued after a liberal use of the officers' "billyes."

When taken before 'Squire Monaghan Matalavage claimed that he could not be arrested again on the charges, that he was protected by the statute of limitations as more than two years had elapsed since they were committed; but the justice failed to agree with him and he was committed without bail. Matalavage says that when he ran away he went to New York City and held a position as bartender there up to the time of his return here. 'Squire Monaghan thinks the man is good for a sentence of at least seven years.

Prof. Barrett, of St. Lawrence county, N. Y., speaking of pulmonary diseases, says: not one death occurs now where twenty died before Downs' Elixir was known. Over fifty years of constant success places Downs' Elixir at the head of the long list of cough remedies.

OFFICIAL VISIT.

State Officers of the P. O. S. of A. Visit Camp 112. There was a large attendance at the meeting of Washington Camp No. 112, P. O. S. of A., last night, the incentive for the attendance being an election of officers and an official visit by the state officers.

The election resulted as follows: Past President, Colfax Brown; President, J. H. Kehler; Vice President, William E. Davis; Master of Forms, George L. Hafner; Secretary, F. C. Reese; Treasurer, H. E. Dengler; Conductor, John Cale; Inspector, David Hemmet; Outside Guard, B. J. Yost.

The state executive committee was welcomed by members of the Order from Girardville, Ashland, Wm. Penn, St. Clair, Delano, Mahanoy City, Gilberton and other places. The visiting staff comprised of State President, John B. Mast, State Vice President, E. A. Blosser, State Master of Forms, John Domsfield, State Treasurer, J. S. Smith, State Secretary, William Wendt, and State Organizer, C. A. Hochlander. Complimentary addresses were made by the state officials and many of the home and visiting members. The State Organizer also contributed a song and was heartily applauded. A most enjoyable evening was spent and the camp was highly complimented by the visiting staff upon its appearance.

USE DAN'S SARRAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES."

HE GOT THERE, But He Failed to Fully Realize His Hopes and Still Kicks.

There is a bun named Snyder who has been frequenting the saloons of town during the day time and bothering the police for lodgings in the loupak at night. The police have been trying their best to get rid of him, but the more they threatened to punish the man the more he seemed to take delight in troubling them. A threat to lock him in the cell had no fears for him. Christmas night Snyder asked to be allowed to lodge in the loupak. The police ignored the request. He followed them about on their beats, and hurled the most abusive language at them, but they stood it all to give him a good taste of the biting cold weather the night afforded.

Finally Snyder was told that Policeman Holvey was fixing the fires at the borough building and he could go and see him. Snyder went. Holvey knew him and declined to furnish lodgings. "I'll make you loupak me," shouted Snyder as he pitched into Holvey. There was a struggle and Snyder was the under dog. The thrashing he got was a sound one and then he was clapped into a cell with a five day sentence written after his name. One would think that this would be sufficient for an ordinary man, but it was not for Snyder. Notwithstanding the whipping and the five-day sentence he is still kicking. He says he wants to get into the county jail for the winter. The police want to get him in for a longer term.

VENO!

The Wonder Worker, at Robbins' Opera House To-night.

A representative of this journal waited upon Veno, at his private room at the Pennsylvania Hall hotel, to gain some information concerning the miraculous cures achieved by him during his stay in Pottsville. In a few selected words Veno explained the nature of his business and means of cure, stating that he was a partner in the Veno Drug Company, of London, a firm of considerable importance in that city, and of world-wide reputation for the miraculous cures achieved by Veno's Curative Syrup and Veno's Electric Fluid, the recipes of which had been secured at an enormous expense from Dr. Dundig, an eminent English physician. Veno's mission to America is to introduce these medicines and the great success which has attended his efforts in Pottsville gives evidence of the marvelous curative value of these remedies. Veno has lectured each evening to large audiences and has cured publicly some of the worst and most stubborn cases of rheumatism, sciatica, etc. We might mention Charles Sholly, of Harrison street, Pottsville. This man has suffered from rheumatism in its worst form for three years, during that time he has been unable to work or walk without the aid of a cane, but after the first public treatment from Veno's platform, he was able to walk free from pain, and without his cane, which he had not done for three years, and yesterday Veno received a letter from him signed by Mr. Kirk, Prothonotary, Pottsville, saying that he felt like a new man and thanking him for the wonderful change he has brought upon him when some eight or ten doctors and over one hundred different remedies had failed. Another case is Mr. Mullen, of Young's Landing, Pottsville, who has been completely cured of rheumatism, which he suffered from for thirteen months. After the first application of Veno's remedies, he was able to eat and sleep better and is now able to walk quite easily without his cane. He also has sent Mr. Veno an elegant testimonial, which was shown our representative. Several others have been successfully treated and many persons who have purchased Veno's medicines, speak in great praise of them. Veno's visit to Pottsville has been remarkably successful both financially and otherwise. We cannot do better than recommend Veno as the greatest healing wonder worker of the present day, judging from what he has done in Pottsville.--Extract from the Misen's Journal, Pottsville, Thursday, June 23d.

THE COURT CALENDAR!

MAKING PREPARATIONS FOR THE NEXT TERM.

FIXING UP THE REMONSTRANCES

There Will be a Large Number of Them This Year--List of Cases Ready for the Early Part of January.

Special HERALD Correspondence.

POTTSVILLE, Dec. 27, 1892.

THE court house, the scene of so many stirring trials, was to day unusually quiet. Yesterday, the usual day for motion court, being a holiday, there was no court and the judges will not sit before Monday next. Reasons for a new trial in the Zeigler case were to have been filed to day, but had not been up to noon.

An appeal was taken by the defendant from the award of the arbitrators in the case of Mulligan vs. Lloyd.

John F. Whalen, Esq., has succeeded the late John A. Nash, Esq., as attorney for the defendant in the case of Coakley vs. The Knights of Annunciation of Shenandoah. The arbitration will be continued at the office of M. M. Burke, Esq., at 10 a. m. on Wednesday.

An attorney was busied to-day at the Clerk of the Courts' office in getting ready a batch of remonstrances. There will be a large number of them this year.

District Attorney Koch and Deputy Snyder, and District Attorney-elect Ryan and Deputy McLoughlin were very busy at the District Attorney's office this morning. Mr. Ryan will soon be ready to give his list of cases for trial in the second week of January next.

The following is a calendar of cases fixed for trial by District Attorney Koch for the first part of January:

Joseph Fadden, assault and battery. Robert Rogers, assault and battery. Robert Rogers, assault and battery. Thomas McHale, assault and battery. TUESDAY, JAN. 3. Anabel Ross, assault and battery. Otto Kulbe, assault and battery. Richard and Sarah Brown, assault and battery. OTTO KULBE, assault and battery. Sarah Brown, assault and battery. WEDNESDAY, JAN. 4. Peter Close, assault and battery. E. A. Heckman, extortion. Leo Long, larceny as bailee. Jennie Gibbon, assault and battery. THURSDAY, JAN. 5. James O'Brien, assault and battery. William Strub, false pretenses. No calendar for Friday. SATURDAY, JAN. 7. Anthony Grush, surety. Peter Bailey, surety. John Fitzgerald, surety. Charles Brown, surety. John Bowers, surety. William and Sarah Reid, surety. George Yodkois, surety. Joseph Close, surety. Anthony Dolinski, surety. Mrs. Ann Moran, surety. George Herring, surety. John Aungerbrindt, surety. Henry Facer, surety. John Bowers, surety. Alex. Cady, surety. Henry Sheridan, surety. MONDAY, JAN. 9. M. E. Beebe and R. E. Taylor, conspiracy. Elias E. Reed, illegal sales. R. B. Taylor, forgery. Samuel G. DeTurk, illegal sales. S. G. DeTurk, J. J. Bowers and E. E. Reed, misdemeanor in office. TUESDAY, JAN. 10. A. Dolinski, assault and battery. John Snyder, assault and battery. George Roszewski and Adam Goblowski, malicious mischief.

For all Rheumatic diseases use Dr. Richter's imported "Anchor" Pain Expeller. It quickly allays all pain, at 25 and 50 cents a bottle. Sold by C. H. Hagenbuch, P. P. D. Kirlin, J. M. Hillan, and other druggists. 3c

A Home for Court Attendants. For those who are obliged to attend the sessions of court at Pottsville, the N. E. Hotel offers unsurpassed accommodations. Good rooms, clean beds, a well-supplied table and bar from which is dispensed choice liquors. All will be welcomed by host Wm. Brennan and his assistants and every effort will be made to please. 12-26-92.

Great Sacrifice Sale. All fancy holiday goods, candies, etc., left over from Christmas will be sold at sacrifice prices as I don't wish to carry over any of the stock. No reasonable price refused. 12-27-92. MAX REBER.

The reason why Arnica and Oil Liniment is so popular with the ladies is because it not only is very healing and soothing but its odor is not at all offensive. 1m

R. A. Lindsay, late of No. 3 Engine Company, Baltimore City Fire Department, says, that the members of his company have used Arnica Oil in cases of sprains and soreness with most gratifying results. It is the best. Only 25 cts.

AND STILL THEY COME.

More Criticism of Council by Other Newspapers.

Editor Boyer of the EVENING HERALD, Shenandoah, Pa., is having a bout with the borough council. It appears that certain members took exception to the criticism of the editorial pen on certain phases of their councilmanic work whereupon the offended dignitaries passed a resolution barring the council chamber against the reporter of the HERALD. Gentlemen so sensitive to public criticism, as these councilmen appear to be, should resign to give place to men who are willing to be held responsible for their public acts. At the last report the editor appeared to be at the head of the heap and to be making it very warm as well as interesting for the sensitive nerves of the borough eds. --Meadvi le Tribune-Republican.

AN EXCLUSIVE SET.

The borough of Shenandoah is one of the liveliest towns in Schuylkill county. The people are progressive and public affairs are looked after by the most knowing men in the community. The Borough Council seems to have more than a share of the wisecracks and they are disposed to run the people's business after the methods of close corporations. The men who evidently think they own the town object to having the council proceedings made public and they have recently entered a vigorous protest against one of the newspaper reporters who in the performance of his regular duties writes up for publication the discussions that take place in the council chamber. The scribe has evidently been doing his duty by the people and the local statement object to having their utterances set up in cold type. Eloquence in the council chamber is all right, but the glamour and poetry cuts as figure in the plain black on white in newspaper columns. This is supposed to be the fault of the reporter, but that is not true. The fault is with the speech maker. If he wants his remarks to look well in print he should have them prepared and set up before hand. At the last meeting of the Shenandoah Council the representative of the EVENING HERALD was hauled over the coals and after a good deal of pointing on the part of the autocrats of the body they declared that the HERALD reporter was forever barred from the meetings of the town lawmakers. They did not propose to be criticized by the newspapers and to prevent this in future the scribe was ruled out. Shenandoah's councilmen are an exclusive set and they want to be let alone, but the HERALD people are after them in good shape and are doing just what the people expect of the local newspaper. When the school boy lawmakers get over their little ruff and "learn to do well," the exclusive act will be hastily repealed and the newspaper fraternity will be invited to banquet at the expense of the featherweights. --Carbonate's Leader.

Deaths and Funerals.

John W. Mannion, who recently retired from the hotel business in Port Clinton, died on Tuesday in that place, aged 56 years. Mr. Mannion formerly resided in Schuylkill Haven and was a prominent Democratic politician at one time and a candidate for the Legislature.

The remains of Dr. Foster R. Quail, son of Dr. Charles E. Quail, who died in West Virginia last week, were interred in the Independent cemetery, Auburn, yesterday. The funeral was largely attended, representatives being present from all parts of the county. The bereaved parents have the profound sympathy of the editor of the HERALD in their irreparable loss.

Veno at Shenandoah.

Veno, the wonder worker, will commence a few lectures to-night, Wednesday, in Robbins' opera house, admission free, reserved seats 5 cents each. He brings with him a medicine made from the Llandrindred water obtained only in South Wales. It is for the cure of dyspepsia, liver complaint, impure blood, kidney disease, nervousness and general debility and in connection with his electric fluid is guaranteed to cure quickly and permanently rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, acute or chronic, recent long standing. The newspapers of this country have spoken in the highest terms of Veno as a healer. He has with him a number of first class comedians to entertain the people and will remain here for three days only.

Facts must and will stand. Dr. Coze prepares the surest and safest Cough and Croup Syrup in the known world. Price 25 and 50 cents.
