PROTECTION FOR GLADSTONE.

The English Authorities Believe in a For midable Dynamite Conspiracy.

LONDON, Dec. 30.—The authorities appear to be so strongly convinced that the Dublin explosion, by which Detective Synnott lost his life, was part of the work of a band of conspirators, that they have sent a detective to Biarritz to keep guard over Mr. Gladstone, and protect him from outrage.

Mr. Gladstone has not been made aware of the precaution taken, as it is known that he would resent any protection of the kind, should he be aware of it.

Home Secretary Asquith is also protected when he goes out in public, by a detective in civilian attire, who keeps near enough to interfere in the event of an attack upon the Secretary.

In view of all the precautions taken, the opinion prevails that the authorities are in possession of definite information as to the existence of a formidable dynamite conspiracy.

DUNLAP IN NEW YORK.

For the Present His Stopping Place Will Be Kept Secret.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Jim Dunlap, the Northampton bank robber, accompanied by Mrs. Rowland, arrived in this city from Boston last night. There were several persons at the Grand Central Depot awaiting the arrival of Dunlap, but Mrs. Rowland circumvented them all, and smuggled Dunlap up town to the residence of a friend, where he will remain for a few days.

Mrs. Rowland said that for the present Dunlap's stopping place would be kept a secret. "The man has nothing to say," she said, "and won't have for some time. He is dazed and acts like a man in a dream. It will take a few weeks to accustom him to his new life. He talked but little on the trip here, but seemed to be thinking much."

THE TUBE ENTERED HIS EYE.

Peculiar Accident to a Boy While on a Shooting Expedition.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Dec. 30.—Andrew Black, a youth of 13, a son of A. L. Black, went out yesterday to shoot birds. He had an improvised gun made of a brass tube ten inches in length and a quarter of an inch in diameter.

He overloaded the tube and when he fired the recoil was so great that the tube entered his eye, penetrating to a considerable depth. Black withdrew it himself, walked about a hundred yards and fell unconscious and has remained in that condition ever since.

Four surgeons have been called in and pronounce the case almost hopeless.
