Next year this Board will contain Messre, Ebling, Bergan and Derr, three fairly good representation of the solid yeomanry of our county. They are just now preparing to select their subalterns and hy down new rules and regulations. Steward Emerick is to be retained-so is the present stewardens; and with the exception of a change in the physicians, all the former incumbents are to hold over. W. F. Shep herd, Esq., is to be chosen solicitor again although George J. Wadlinger, Esq., is giving him a lively tussle for the place. For on part we don't care who gets it. The publi will be still safe and it wont benefit the pauper one bit the more, whoever wins. Mr. Shepherd has been a good solicitor and as good a one, no matter if he is over-ambitions.
