Electric servants are doing.
The Borough Council is a public body. Every citizen of the borough has a right to be present. To exclude any citizen who behaves himself and does not disturb the meeting in any way is an outrage that cannot be brooked.
The reporter of the Herald was expelled because he has dared to tell the truth in reporting the proceedings of the Borough Council, and Messrs. Gable, Lamb, Van Dusen and the rest of their clique know that he has given the public too much good for their welfare.
It is all right Messrs. Gable, Lamb, Van Dusen and company; your time will soon come, and then you will see how small you look in the eyes of the people, who, like Councilman Cookley, one of your heretofore colleagues, are "tired of being humbugged." Carism cannot live long on this hemisphere, and those who are trying to uphold it had better stand from under without delay.
Messrs. Scheidly, Holman and Cookley stand alone as Councilmen in the fight against Carism. They are only three in number, but "great oaks from little acorns grow." Mr. Cookley was man enough last night to repudiate what he found was a gross injustice and a big piece of nonsense.

R. H. Paton, 613 Walton Ave., N. Y. City, writes:—"I have used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for years and find it the most efficacious remedy for coughs, colds and laryngitis I have ever tried."

PERSONAL.

Edward Earley is visiting friends in New York City.
Benjamin Richards is in Philadelphia transacting business.
Will Fox, of Tamaqua, spent a few hours of last evening in town.
Mrs. Henry Becker, who was the guest of relatives at Led Creek over the holidays, has returned to her home in Parth Anby.
Mrs. Ferguson, who formerly managed the coffee house, today moved her family to Williamsport, where they will make their future home.

MRS. WOOD MAKES ANSWER.

Mrs. Wood, of Boston, Jan. 6.—Mrs. Wood, the wife of Hamilton Wood, who recently escaped from the Worcester Insane Asylum, says of her husband's published charges:
"It is simply the same old story which he has reported so many times. Since he has been in the various asylums he has written very much, interesting in his half many prominent men, but it was only three weeks ago that I was told by Dr. Quimby of the Worcester Asylum, that my husband was in no fit condition to be discharged.
"Every doctor who has ever seen my husband has pronounced him insane; and this is the strangest part of it, why prominent persons will try and get him out of the asylum when all the doctors pronounce him as unfit to come out."
"I think he was aided in his escape from Worcester."
"My son and I have denied ourselves many things to pay his board. We have sent him presents and bought him clothes. When his business was settled there was about $300 left, and this was in small amounts and some of it hard to get."
"Of course, people will read these stories and think I am a wretchedable and am having him falsely confined."
"I have done all that I could for him and am willing to do more."
"I certainly have no motive for having him confined other than I do not consider him a proper person of sound mind."
"I know nothing about his escape and presume the friends whom he is with are liars."

SOMERBY AND OTHERS ARRAIGNED.

The Attempt to Take Them to Indiana Will Be Resisted.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 6.—Freeman D. Somerby, late Supreme President of the Order of the Iron Hall; Dr. Charles H. Baker, late Supreme Medical Examiner; Joseph Gladding, late Supreme Organizer; and James H. McKersley, late Chairman of the Supreme Finance Committee, were arraigned yesterday before Magistrate Pole on the charge of using $200,000 of the Order's funds to sustain the Mutual Banking and Trust company, of this city.
District Attorney Graham, who is the receiver of the local branch of the Order, stated that he would offer no objection to the accused officials waiving a hearing if they desired to do so.
Counsel for the defendants then made a motion to waive a hearing and the magistrate bound them over in $5,000 bail for court.
After the hearing, District Attorney Graham said he would resist the attempt of the Indianapolis authorities to take the defendants there for trial, as they are now bound over for court here on the same charges on which they were indicted in Indiana.
Mr. Graham said that he would present the facts to Gov. Pattison and he believed the Governor would refuse the regulation from the Indiana courts.

Lamp-chimneys cost so little that we let them go on breaking. We go on buying and grabbing.
What should we do?
Get Macbeth's "Pearl-top" and "Pearl-glass;" they are made of tough glass, tough against heat; they do not break in use; they do from accident.
They are fine, well made, exact; they fit the lamps they are made for; stand upright; the shade is right; they make a right draught for light; they are uniform. Both bear a label for your protection. Look for it. Be willing to pay a nickel more and stop this constant expense and annoyance.
