THE ANDREWS CASE.

The seating of ex-State Chairman William H. Andrews in the Legislature has raised a howl all along the Democratic line. After stealing whole Legislatures and defying the courts. the Democrats have but little room for somplaint, Andrews had the certificate of the court declaring him elected and on the strength of that he was scated. 1: was not a case of necessity; the Republicans did not need his vote, as they have ample votes to control both branches; it is a case of principle and Mr. Andrews has been thus far very properly sustained.

A few Mugwump Republicans have joined in the cry, but that has no weight.

Andrews' opponent has his remedy If he can prove title to the west the Republicans will make Andrews walk. The Republican party is not made of Tammany stuff. If it was there would not be a Democratic state in the Union taday and no one opposed to it would have any hope for Andrews is all right. He will make good representative. He sticks to his friends and ealls a spade a spade His constituents used not fear that their interests will not be well cared wrong to anyone .- Ecening Chronicle.

A WORTHY APPOINTMENT.

It gives us pleasure to note the appointment by President Harrison of a former townsman, Judge George W. Bartch, as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Utah, a position be will fill with dignity.

During Judge Bartch's residence in Shenandoah he proved an able educator and when he turned the schools over to his successor they were the best in the state.

When Mr. Bartch became a resident of Utah he made a study of law and eventually became a circuit judge in that territory. He is a man of sound and impartial judgment and if tent has occurred. his advice is followed the territory of Utah will enter the Union as one of the best and most reliable Republican states. He has made that territory a study and knows what it requires and just what is bolding it back. Some time ago we predicted that Mr. Burtch would be the first Governor of the proposed State of Utah and we still think so. To Judge Bartch's many friends in this town and the editor of the HERALD send hearty congratulations and we hope he will soon realize his hopes for Utah's great-Dean.

CONTRACTOR TAYLOR'S CASE. Let Sound Judgment Prevail in Consider. ing the Matter.

"It is said, and by one of the County Auditors, that representatives of Contractor Taylor have offered the County Auditors $20,000 to settle the cases pending again thim and others. Can the County Auditors be bribed into violating their caths by such a liberal sum? The County has been defrauded and the record of the record of the record. ed, and the people demand that the County Treasury be reimbursed the amount which it Hlegally paid as extras or otherwise. The Auditors are right, let them stick to it.— Miners' Journal.

Our esteemed contemporary is of a very revengeful spirit, but we very much doubt if the publication of any such article as the above will be of any advantage to the taxpayers or to the county. The newspapers, no more than the Auditors or Commissioners, should lend themselves to false sentiment or building of the new court house?

Beebe, a man who had had large exper ience as an architect on buildings of the character of the new court house, came here from Buffale and got the contract for the design of the structure.

Taylor, a man from Butler, bid $13,000 less than any other bidder and got the confract the musical comedy-event of the season. The for building the court house.

After the first story of the court house was completed there became a general demand to have the entire building constructed of stone, and the contract was changed to build the comments of the contract was changed to build the comments in the legitimate musical comments, in four acts, two upper stories of stone. This modification of the contract allowed Taylor $20,000 additional.

A year after the bills were paid and the court house accepted and turned over to the county, the Auditors commenced an investigation and after a long and critical cross-examination of Taylor it was proven by the contractor's own admissions that he had gotten the advantage of the county in the settiement on the extras.

Considerable testimony was introduced before the Auditors to show that Taylor in a mamber of respects had not lived up literally to Reserved seats on sair at Kiriin's drug store.

aylor's side has never been heard and before he can either be convicted or a judgment gotten against him In a civil suit, the ourt will grant him the same latitude it will any other citizen in presenting his side of the se. This he has not had the opportunity to do in the present investigation.

The EVERTER HUBALD has a larger etreela-Taylor is sick in bed. He is in old man and has a respectable family. Besides the chance he has for a trial, if he has to be tried he may go to the Supreme Court, ask for a change of venue, on the ground of pupile sentiment being inflamed in Schuylkill county against him, as well as the manner is which the indictments were gotten against them; that is, confessions wrung from him before the Auditors, and these confession used against him before the Grand Jury.

If he gets a change of venue, it means a arge expenditure of money to pursue him in hese criminal cases, with the chances of his lying and the county getting nothing,

Is there a practical solution of this ques ion? Taylor surely is not a criminal in the rdinary sense of the word. He has been uilty of sharp practices, but the law does ot always designate sharp practices as being rime. Public sentiment may be such as to orce a conviction of Taylor, but Schuy(kiii county public sentiment will have no weight with the court of last resort where Taylor car look to for relief if he is wronged here.

Let the Auditors, County Commissioner and their respective attorney's look at this natter in a business light. If a business man was putting up a building and the contractor got more money from the business man than belonged to him, and the business man liscovered the over payment and forced the onfractor to a confession supplemented by n offer of restitution, as alleged in this case, what would the business man do? We are nclined to think that nine-hundred-andinety-nine out of every thousand would accept from the contractor that which he unwfully gotten and not court endless

The truth of the matter is we have gotten a court house and it is a magnificent trusture. We have plenty of dangerous iminals to look after and our over crowded riminal calendar should not be taxed with uses that just involve a certain amount of orthogat. We have no end of scandal; let a for the good of the county and the good of the tax-payers, have a settlement of these cases if it can be gotten on a basis that will be an advantage to the taxpayers and n

DAMAGE BY THE STORM. Pier Wreeked at Long Branch-Haveest Other Piaces.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Jan. 7.—The flero snow and wind storm which prevailed along the entire New Jersey coast, wrought terrible damage to property and the bluff. A heavy sea is raging and the Shrewsbury Hotel at Sea Bright is being undermined.
