JOLLY SLEIGHING PARTIES
THE CARNIVAL SEASON IN FULL BLAST.
TWO JOLLY GROWDS LAST NIGHT
Ringtown and Lake-side Visited and Made Lively by Merry-makers Who Court Jack Frost's Embrace.
THE continuance of the invigorating weather and excellent sleighing condition of the roads has opened a joyous carnival season and pleasure parties are being formed on all sides. Sleighing parties are rampant and the livery stable keepers are in high gloe.
Last night Shenandoah sent out two large parties, one consisted of twenty five ladies and gentlemen, who arranged the affair as a surprise to Frank J. Brennan, in honor of the 20th anniversary of his birth. The start was made from Mr. Brennan's house on South Main street and four large sleighs were required to accommodate the party, which comprised Misses Sallie Delaney, Lizzie Grady, Elsie Mellet, Annie Monaghan, Mary McGinness, Annie Clouser, Mary Lally, Annie Sheehy, Hannah Morrison, Lizzie Carroll, Katie Whalen and Emma Eisenhower; and Messrs. Patrick Monaghan, P. J. Cleary, James Gallagher, James Monaghan, John Cleary, Thomas Coyne, William Delaney, F. J. Brennan, J. J. Kelly, M. Snyder, J. Hillan, John Brennan and Michael Bridgman.
The party drove over to the Catawissa Valley and made a stop at one of the Ringtown hotels. Dancing to the music of Toole's orchestra and a first class supper made the hours pass pleasantly until after midnight, when the party started for home.
There was another sleighing party from town, which was not quite as large as the one above named, but was equally enjoyable in all respects. The party was made up of Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. William Willman, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jacobs, Misses Lizzie Jones, Nellie Baugh, Annie Timanus, Sarah Golden, and Mr. T. A. Timanus.
This party drove to Lakeside, where supper was served and dancing was indulged in for several hours.

EXAMINING BOARDS.
Appointments Made for Examining Inspector and Foremen Applicants.
The court at Pottsville yesterday appointed the following board for the examination of applicants for appointment to Mine Inspectors: E. G. Heber, S. Thompson and John R. Hoffman; Miners, Thomas Eversen, Pottsville; John Dempsey, Minersville; Frank McCormick, Shenandoah.
The following board was appointed to examine applicants for mine foreman certificates: Sixth District, William Stein, ex-officio; William Carroll and John Thurby, miners, and W. H. Lewis, mine operator.
Seventh District, John Mizze and William McCaughy, miners; Andrew Robertson, mine operator.
Eighth District, Samuel Gay, ex-officio; James Walsh and H. S. Crooks, miners, and Thomas Doyle, operator.
In the Seventh District no appointment was made on the part of mine inspector as Mine Inspector William McMurtrie had but recently died and his successor had not yet been appointed.

DISPENSING KNOWLEDGE.
Work Being Done by the Lithuanian Educational Society.
The Lithuanian Educational Society has arranged a Sunday school which was opened last Sunday at Mellet's hall on Centre street. Several addresses were delivered before a large audience consisting of at least three hundred men. Dr. Schupps entertained the audience for a full hour with an address on "The Races of Mankind and the Antiquity of Man." Rev. L. Deniski gave a brief biographical sketch of Jesus Davidson, the originator of trades unions in England, and afterwards the reverend gentleman spoke at length on "America, its Geography, Political State, etc." Besides this there were other short addresses made. The audience was very much interested in the matters brought before it by the speakers.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES."
"She Couldn't Marry Three."
The above title seemed to arouse the curiosity of the New York public, so much so that on the opening night the house was packed to the doors. The success of the play was instantaneous, and during the entire New York engagement the theatre was crowded. The play is an unqualified success; the scenery beyond anything seen yet; the company a powerful and evenly balanced one, and Miss Lillian Kennedy as the heroine "Bess" presents a characterization which for histrionic ability has never been surpassed on the American stage.

OBES' OBSERVATIONS.
What He Sees and Hears During His Travels.
"Jim" Robbins and "Johnny" McGowan have long been known as the "Two Old Cronies" of the town and cronies they are, too. When McGowan is not engaged in waiting on customers he and "Jim" may be found at the rear end of the store playing checkers, or some other kind of a game. Robbins scours the town for games and then explains them to "brother John." The former was initiated into the mysteries of pedro the other day and now all the spare time of the couple is taken up in solving the game to a winning point. "Charley" Gibson, of elevated railroad fame, generally acts as censor.
Capt. Edward Davis, a resident of Tamaqua, visited friends in this town on Sunday last. Although Mr. Davis has been a resident of Schuylkill county for over forty years, this visit was the first for him to make to Shenandoah.
The late Thomas Moore, who died on Sunday, left a father 83 years of age, who is living with the widow and takes the stroke of bereavement with admirable fortitude.
The late Michael O'Hara was a man who was determined when once he set his mind upon anything. In speaking of his death yesterday a friend recalled an incident of about twenty eight years ago. Mr. O'Hara had been put on the repairs in Shenandoah City colliery. On the second day after he commenced the work a piece of top coal fell upon a saw he held in his hand and broke it. O'Hara left the mine and declared he would never again work in another—and he didn't. Two days' pay was all he ever drew for work in any coal mine. Ouz.

PERSONAL.
Squire J. J. Cardin went to Pottsville this morning.
Benjamin Richards spent yesterday at the county seat.
MacHenry Wilhelm, Esq., of Ashland, was in town yesterday.
Mrs. John Waide, of Mahanoy City, is visiting relatives in town.
Mrs. J. W. Hesser, of East Coal street, who has been seriously ill during the holidays, is recovering.
Messrs. John A. Kelly, of town, and M. L. Shreffler, of Ashland, have gone to West Virginia to investigate coal lands.
Hon. J. J. Coyte, of Mahanoy City, and Hon. D. D. Phillips, of Gordon, were circulating among our town people yesterday.
O. B. and D. O. Williams, of Wilkes-Barre, are in town. The former will change his residence to Mt. Carmel and the latter will again become a resident of this place.
Rufus J. Foster, a former member of the local corps of P. & R. C. & I. Co. engineers, and now one of the editors of the Colliery Engineer and a resident of Scranton, will on the 23d inst. deliver a lecture on Mine Surveying at Wilkes-Barre before the Y. M. C. A. This is one of a series of lectures on mining to be delivered under the auspices of that association, of that place. The lectures are illustrated.
A Power for Mr. Lamb.
To Mr. A. B. Lamb, Grand Grindler and Royal High Governor of the Town Council of the Borough of Shenandoah:
In urging my expulsion from the Borough Council at the meeting last Thursday evening you said, "For my part I find it impossible to do my whole duty to the Board, knowing my every act will be misrepresented. We warned the gentleman six months ago that if he persisted in deliberately lying to the people through the paper we would be compelled to take the stand we have. All we ask is that he will report the proceedings correctly and he has refused to do so."
Now, Mr. Lamb, if your above statement is true, if it is true that you and your colleague councilmen were obliged six months ago to warn me because I lied and was incorrect in reporting the proceedings of the Council, and I have since refused to report the proceedings correctly, will you please state why it was that Council allowed me to act as temporary official secretary at two of its meetings within the past six months, when the official secretary was unable to be present.

Bondy; vice chief, Amos Rousary; high priest, Monasses Fry; venerable hermit, Martin Nees; master of records, Edwin L. Phillips; clerk of exchequer, Edwin L. Phillips; keeper of exchequer, John J. Mack, Jr.; scribe, David Bachert; worthy chamberlain, Edwin E. Evans; esquire, Thos. G. Smith; esquire, Chas. F. Bretz; first guardman, W. W. Weaver; second guardman, Jacob D. Herring; trustees, Chas. F. Bretz, Martin Nees, E. E. Evans; representatives to the Grand Castle, Edwin E. Evans.
Lecture Postponed.
The lecture announced for this evening in the Presbyterian church has been indefinitely postponed, owing to the receipt of a telegram to-day stating that owing to the storm Rev. Anna Shaw would be unable to reach here. Rev. Shaw will appear later in the season and tickets purchased for to-night will remain good until that time.
R. H. Patton, 613 Walton Ave., N. Y. City, writes:—"I have used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for years and find it the most efficacious remedy for coughs, colds and laryngitis I have ever tried."

THE LICENSE AFFAIRS!
A RENEWAL OF INTEREST AMONG APPLICANTS.
MYSTERIOUS VISIT BY LAWYERS
But it is Said They Were Not Acting in Beh- of the Law and Order Society—Their Object.
ANOTHER sensational stir was created in town last night by a report that some out-of-town lawyers and other parties were here on important business connected with the granting of licenses this spring. Some people "got it on the straight" that the lawyers were making a tour of the town and paying particular attention to the saloons were under instructions of the court and were giving information concerning the location of buildings now containing saloons and those for which licenses are sought as new stands. There were other stories and theories, some of them being of a most exaggerated and ridiculous character.
Two of the mysterious visitors were J. O. Ulrich, Esq., of Tamaqua, and John F. Dolphin, Esq., of Mahanoy City, and they were not here in the interest of the license court, if the information furnished the HERALD is correct, and there is no reason to believe that it is not.
The information given the HERALD is to the effect that there are certain people in town who, although they are not connected with the law and order movement, are engaged in a movement to gradually reduce the number of licenses in Shenandoah. This movement, it is said, is not prompted by a strictly moral sense of duty, but emanates from a business sense of figuring. In other words, these people believe that there are too many saloons in town to make the receipts sufficiently large to give all engaged in the business a fair profit. With this idea in view, our informant says, Messrs. Ulrich and Dolphin have been engaged to make an inspection of the town with a view to ascertaining the character of the saloons and the character of the buildings in which they are located, together with the relation of each saloon to another so far as location is concerned, and if they can succeed in "knocking out" about fifty licenses they are to receive a liberal fee.

CLEAR AS MUD
Explanations That Don't Explain by a Very Long Sight.
Councilman A. B. Lamb spent two days in Pottsville in the interest of the borough. He was paid $367 for his expense. Here is the expense—$4 for both days, not mentioning his loss of time and neglect of business. This leaves Mr. Lamb out of pocket the sum of 363 cents.—Sunday News.
What would make up the $4 expense?
Following this a bill was presented to Council of $10 for a petition in the interest of the Electric Railway Company. Council should not have paid the bill as the petition was purely in the interest of the electric company.—Sunday News.
If Council should not have paid the bill why did it do so?

RUSSELL SAGE.
Special Performance.
Veno will conclude his visit here to-morrow (Wednesday) evening by giving a special performance at Robbins' opera house. He has engaged Miss Lydia Sullivan, from the Bijou theatre, Philadelphia; Miss Marie Russell, America's favorite, Miss Munnella in his Spanish ring act, and others. A grand performance is promised for the small admission of 10 and 5 cents each, to commence at 8 o'clock.
Electric Railway Bulletin.
Hereafter the electric railway cars will leave the corner of Cherry and Main streets at 5:30 a. m. daily and every 20 minutes thereafter until midnight, at which hour the last car will leave for Girardville. On Monday, November 7th, 1892, the fare for any length of ride between Shenandoah and Girardville will be reduced to five (5) cents.
Notice.
The Democratic Standing Committee will meet at the Schuylkill House on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, January 10th, 1893. All Democrats are requested to be present to consult with committee.

COURT NEWS.
Proceedings at the Schuylkill County Hall of Justice.
POTTSVILLE, Jan. 9.—There was a large attendance of litigants and others at the opening of the second week of January criminal court this morning. There were many Shenandoah people present and a very noticeable collection of dry goods bundles in the Sockolosky larceny case. Judges Green and Bechtel handed down opinions and went over the civil court list, in No. 1 court room. Motions and arguments were heard by Judge Bechtel in No. 2 court room.
The charter of King John Sobieski's Polish Roman Catholic Society, of Shenandoah, was granted.
The grand jury on Saturday found a true bill against Joseph Benderick, charged with the larceny of a twenty-dollar bill from Joseph Mitchell on the cars of the Schuylkill Traction Company, at Wm. Penn. In Lawrence vs. Lawrence, divorce, an attachment issued for alimony and counsel fees.
Depositions were filed in the following divorce cases: Keiser vs. Keiser; A. L. Shay, Esq., examiner; Reed vs. Reed, S. M. Entenline, Esq., examiner; Barr vs. Barr, M. M. Burke, Esq., examiner.
The case of the Sockolosky sisters, of West Coal street, Shenandoah, charged with the larceny of a lot of dress goods, bedding, &c., was closed before a noon. Attorneys Koss and Shay represent the defendants.
The court will, on Monday next, grant all the old licenses in a bulk, except those objected to. No other remonstrances than those reported in the HERALD have been filed against Shenandoah applicants.
The court announced the following appointments:
Examining Committee: John W. Roseberry, D. C. Henning, John F. Whalen, G. J. Wadlinger, Charles N. Braun, R. H. Kook and P. M. Dunn.
Library Committee: Guy E. Farquhar, Mason Wolfman and E. D. Smith.
Commissioners to take depositions: D. A. Jones, W. K. Woodbury, Joseph F. Patterson, Martin F. Moore, James Jessie K. Little, J. Y. Sollenberger, James A. Rinck and H. C. Wilson.
GIRARDVILLE.
Frederick Eberle, of Pottsville, was a visitor to town Sunday.
May Smith Robbins, who appeared at the Palace theatre, Thursday evening, in "Little Trixie," is the greatest little Irish comedienne that has ever appeared before a Girardville audience. She is one of the most graceful dancers we have ever seen. In her various characters stories of applause were given her. The entire company is excellent.—Girardville Gazette, January 7.
The next attraction at the Palace theatre is the new "Mugg's Landing." It is better and brighter than ever. They play Girardville, January 12.
Eberle & Blum, overall manufacturers, add orders amounting to one hundred and fifteen dozen pairs of overalls on Saturday.
Howard Swayer has been offered a position in the market department of the company store at Silver Brook.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES."
The O'Neill Case.
EDITOR HERALD—Allow me space in your paper to state that the grand-child of Mr. O'Neill did not slip upon the ice, nor was her injury caused by the ice in any manner, but by a defective pavement. The place where she was injured (north end of Union street) has never been graded, or curbed, and is a menace to life and limb of any person passing that way, especially at night. In this case the child tripped against a sill (which one of the tenants has in lieu of a pavement) and was rendered unconscious, and lay in a critical condition for over two weeks. Even now it is not out of danger, although a month has elapsed; and, besides, her eyes have turned terribly and fears are entertained that she may yet have to undergo a surgical operation. Under the circumstances I think there is sufficient ground for damages.
CITIZEN.
[The HERALD is pleased to make this statement of the O'Neill case and is thankful to "Citizen" for the information. The case was reported to the Borough Council last Thursday night after the HERALD reporter was ejected from the meeting and that is the reason the case was not more fully explained in the previous report. It is a desire to know such cases from public notice that prompts the Council to keep the HERALD reporter from its meetings.—Ed.]

At Thursday night's meeting of council in Shenandoah W. J. Watkins, of the Shenandoah HERALD, was invited to have on account of alleged misrepresentation of reports in his paper. He said he was a taxpayer but was ejected by a policeman. If his reports have been published honestly the councilman engineering his ejection will find that they have laid the borough open to a suit for damages sure to result in favor of Watkins. If the reporter intentionally garbled his stuff he deserved to be fired out. Mr. Watkins has certainly been reporting too long to make an idiot of himself by misrepresenting members meeting after meeting. There is a frozen rig in the snow bank somewhere.
