A SORT OF EXPERIENCE MEETING

The Farticipants Were the Guests night drove to a distant point and tried to of Messra. Monayhan and Beddall and Enjoyed Them-

Edward Devers, Martin Phalen, F. H. Hopkins, Sr., P. D. Holman and William Me-Guire, Chief Burgess Smith, Town Clerk Conkley, T. B. Beddall, Esq., Justice J. J. Monaghan, Ex-Supervisor D. H. Liewellyn, Constable Jere. Toomey, and W. J. Watkins, of the HERALD.

Col. Scheifly presided at the table, and his we sons, Jacob Bamberger and Lanigan Boyer hurried about making the guests as comfortable as possible. Only two or three knew why the supper was given, the rest were told to keep mum and eat turkey. While the feast was underway, however, it leaked out that the affair had been arranged by Messre Monaghan and Beddail, who had encluded to invite the de facto members of the Borough Council and a few of their friends to sit down to char over the events of he year and see if any vacancies existed for mother electric milway whereby some of the Councilmen might cours vindication. Counrilman Amour was unfortunately detained and his absence was regretted. His attendnice would have made a representation of sight of the fift on members of Council.

The supper was an excellent one-those who have ever partaken of the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Schelfly have nover had reason to complain; and this was especially so last night. The system were prime, the turkey was done to a turn and the chicken and other sulads were delicious. In the line of beverages nothing stronger than claret punch was served, and nothing better could be

After Mr. Scholfly directed the distribution of eigars "Dead Shot" Holman uruse and nve his experiences on the letter carrier force, interspersing his recital with graphic descriptions of the manner in which vicious dogs are shot along the routes. He recommends this method as in fallible. Mr. Holman was asked how many miles be walks in a day in delivering his portion of Uncle Sam's mail matter and he said "twenty." Burgess Smith asked for the edometer showing the record and Mr. Holman said he had none, whereupon Chairman Scheifly warned Mr. Holman that if he ersisted in misrepresentations he would be jected from the meeting. Mr. Holman said he was telling the truth, but the burden of pretended) belief was against him.

The HERALD reporter was asked to make a few remarks on what he knew about the Borough Council, but one of the guests jumped up and said that if the reporter did not keep his mouth shut he would call in the police. The reporter remained quiet.

'Squire Monaghan responded and he really believed that if he should receive enough votes he would be the next Prothonotary of Schuylkill county. This statement brought dagger glances from Mr. Bamberger and Mr. Monaghan changed the subject to dogs. He said that when he meets a victors dog he throws out his wooden leg and when the So Close Out Surplus Stock-a few pieces Floor Oil animal is engaged in chewing at the member he clubs it to death with his cane,

Mr. Beddall failed to respond to a call for remarks under the plea that he was "under nstruction." It is understood that Mr. Beddall has the Borough Solicitorship bee in his bonnet again.

Town Clerk Conkley was asked what he knew about borough orders and replied that he does not bother about them after he attaches his signature and the seal of the horough, but he thought Scheifly could get up a first class supper.

Chief Burgers Smith responded to the toast, High Constable Flynn in impounding them. Potsville. He keeps the finest line of neck-He confessed that he knew of some people in wear. He is now taking orders for bicycles whole hog, or none at all.

Mr. Llewellyn responded to "Stone Crushers" in a happy style and said that in his experience much of the trouble that arises over that class of machinery is due to a leak in the ability of the operators and not in the

Mr. Schriffy said be thought it would be a good idea to use the crusher as a part of the base for the soldiers' monument and have uscribed upon it. "In Memory of the Big 4." Mr. Hopkins was then called upon, but his Holderman's jewelry store. trolley got off and the meeting broke up, but
