

THEATRICAL NOTES.

Attractions. "Killarney and the Rhine," a romantic role of "Conrad." He sang and talked in Dutch dialect to perfection. He danced and played the character of friend and defender of women in sil dialects. Miss Joan Cravan took the serious part of "Rose Delancy," and abowed the dignified pathos of an injured woman with skill.-Evening Journal, Wilmington, Del. "Killarney and the Rhine" will be produced at Ferguson's theatre this evening.

"THEN NEW BOY TRAMP."

The house was packed full last night, and the audience was perfectly satisfied with the excellent performance of "The Boy Tramp." The play is preity, full of fun and human interest and is much improved since its production here last season, both in cast and seenle effects. The company are all capable people and acted their parts in a most manterly nummer. August Neuville is a most olaver comedian after the style of Roland Reed, and made as great a hit with the big audience. The scenery is a big feature and was received with loud applause .- The Times, Buffalo, N. Y. "The New Boy Tramp" will appear at Ferguson's theatre on Saturday evening, Jan. 21st.
