

The Herald.

PUBLISHED DAILY, SUNDAY EXCEPTED
WEEKLY, EVERY SATURDAY.

E. A. BOYER.....Proprietor
H. G. BOYER.....Editor and Publisher
W. J. WATKINS.....Local Editor
J. M. ROYER.....Business Manager

The EVENING HERALD has a larger circulation in Shenandoah than any other paper published here or in the State.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

DAILY, ONE YEAR.....$2.00
SIX MONTHS.....1.50
THREE MONTHS.....1.00

Advertising Rates.

Transient. 5 cents per line, first insertion; 3 cents per line for subsequent insertions. Rates for regular advertising can be had on application at the office or by mail.

Entered at the Postoffice at Shenandoah, Pa., for transmission through the mails as second-class matter.

VENOMOUS

The attacks upon the late General Benjamin F. Butler in southern newspapers were not unexpected, but the intense venom shown by some of them exceeds the bounds of common decency. It is doubtful if any American journal printed an obituary as high in malignancy and bitterness equalled the following, taken from the Nashville American:

Old Ben Butler is dead! Early yesterday morning the angel of death, acting under the evil's orders, took him from earth and landed him in hell. In all this southern country there are no tears, no sighs and no regrets. He lived only too long. We are glad he is at last removed from earth and even pity the evil the possession he has secured.

If there is a feature of peace in store for Ben Butler, after his entrance as an eternity, then there is no heaven and the Bible is a lie. If hell be only as black as the good book describes it then there are not the degrees of punishment in which some Christians so firmly believe. He has gone, and from the sentence which has already been passed upon him there is no appeal. He is already so deep down in the pit of everlasting damnation that he couldn't get the most powerful ear trumpet conceivable to scientists and hear the echoes of old Gabriel's trumpet, or fly a million miles and get a message to St. Peter who stands guard at heaven's gate.

In our statute books many holidays are sacred. It was an egregious oversight that one of the occasions of the death of Ben Butler was not proclaimed. The "Benal" is the bitterest of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

Such intemperate utterances simply disgust intelligent people and overshoot their mark. When it is remembered how tolerantly the Republican papers of the North dealt with the late Jefferson Davis at the time of his demise it is easy to comprehend on which side of Mason and Dixon's line the bitterness of the great conflict most freely survives. It is not necessary to defend the memory of the brave Union commander against criticisms which are really testimonials to the heartiness, the fearlessness and the fidelity with which he performed his duties during the war.

DEATHS FROM FREEZING

Many Have Perished in the Extreme Cold.

GREAT SUFFERING IN CANADA.

The Weather There Is Unprecedentedly Severe—Many Rivers Ice Paoked—A Big Snow Storm in the Southern States—Fears of a Water Famine at Several Points.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Intensely cold weather is general throughout the Middle, Northern, Northwestern States, Canada and Manitoba, and it has been attended by much loss of life. Seldom, if ever, have so many fatalities by freezing been recorded within twenty-four hours as are shown today. And there is no immediate prospect of a rise in the temperature. Reports received from over one hundred sections of the country tell most incredible tales of suffering amid snow and ice with the thermometer ranging from 5 to 50 degrees below zero.

At Naticook, Pa., seven men went fishing on a lake near that place on Tuesday. As ice had not formed they endeavored to trail canoes, carrying with them only light lunches. During the night the temperature suddenly fell to zero, and the lake was converted into an icy expanse. As the men did not return receding parties set out in search of them. To-day, as a result of their efforts, the reports come that all the fishermen perished in the frigidities of the night, nearly every one having been found frozen stiff in their canoes.

They had become ice-locked about half a mile from shore, and, benumbed with cold, were unable to escape and were slowly frozen to death.

Two men, who had started to walk to land before the ice was strong enough to bear their weight, broke through and were drowned.

Three tramps who sought shelter under a shed at Princeton, Md., last night, were found there this morning frozen stiff in their tattered garments. Their names have not been learned.

From Hanes Valley, Pa., an unproductive region, remote from Huntington, comes a terrible story of destitution in the family of Benjamin Lear.

Two months ago Lear, who is an indolent, improvident fellow, abandoned his family, consisting of a wife and two children, the elder of whom was but 19 months old. His wife, a young woman of weak intellect, was unable to provide for the children, nor did she bring their starving condition to the attention of the proper authorities.

Yesterday the older child died of starvation, and in its dreadful sufferings for food it bit deeply into the flesh on its hands and arms.

Yesterday the baby, 6 months old, also died, and when a neighbor who called examined the body it was learned that the baby, in its desperation for nourishment, had sucked the blood from its finger tips. The children's bodies were frozen stiff when discovered.

VERY COLD IN EUROPE.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—Despatches from the Continent state that the cold has not abated. The Rhine is frozen from Germany to Bingen. The Main and Moselle are partially frozen. The Neckar is frozen from source to mouth.

The supply of fresh vegetables in Berlin was cut off yesterday. Several deaths of wayfarers near Thorn is reported. Many deaths from exposure have occurred in all parts of France. Deputy Descaux was snowbound while traveling by rail near Amiens. The locomotive left the train to get assistance. The carriages were unheated and Deputy Descaux froze to death.

The steamships overdue at Swedish ports from London and Hull have arrived. At Rijou, the passengers were obliged to leave the steamers, walk over miles of ice to Langager, and proceed thence on sledges to Gotthenburg.

Still Icebound at City Island.

CITY ISLAND, Jan. 19.—The sound still presents the same appearance—one solid mass of ice as far as can be seen from this station. The schooners off Captain's Island and Sands Point have not been able to make any progress. Several tugs have left bound westward to make an attempt to tow some of the icebound vessels to this harbor.

Ohio River Frozen Solidly.

BELLAIRE, O., Jan. 19.—For the first time in 15 years the thermometer at this point made a descent to 18 below zero, and the Ohio river is frozen over so solidly that heavy teams are crossing on the ice. Should a heavy rain start the ice and snow into motion, great danger is feared for the steamboats in the harbor.

Threatened With a Water Famine.

JONESTOWN, N. Y., Jan. 19.—A water famine is threatened here. There is but little water in the two reservoirs, and the schools are closed. There is not enough water to supply boilers of heating apparatus. A water famine is also imminent at Ballston. Notice has been issued warning people not to waste water.

Missing Gunners Safe.

EGO HAMON, N. J., Jan. 19.—Horace Cavalier and Elias Conover, of Fort Republic, who were reported frozen while out in their yacht on a gunning trip have turned up all right. They were last in the ice with their yacht for two weeks at the mouth of Mott's Creek, in Crassy Bay.

Water Famine Feared in Vermont.

BARRE, Vt., Jan. 19.—The severe cold weather may cause a water famine in this section unless there is a thaw or rain soon. The river is now almost solid ice. Water is low in the reservoir of the Barre Water company, and polishing mills have been asked to be saving of water.

Trump Steamer Ashore.

CAPE MAY, N. J., Jan. 19.—A tramp steamer is aground on the outer end of Cape May Point Shoal. Life-saving crews are making efforts to board her through openings in the heavy ice. She is in a dangerous position.

Couldn't Make Pops at Philadelphia.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—The steamer Alfred Dunlop, from Gibraltar with fruit, just arrived here, was bound to Philadelphia, but owing to heavy ice at the Delaware, was obliged to bear up for this port.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

WE DIDN'T BELIEVE IN DOCTORS.

A Haverhill Pastor's Daughter Dies Without Medical Attendance.

Haverhill, Mass., Jan. 19.—The one-year-old daughter of the Rev. A. S. Orne died Tuesday morning of typhoid pneumonia, from which the child had been suffering for the past three weeks and during which time she received no medical treatment whatever. Mr. Orne says of the child:

"The girl was taken sick three weeks ago but no serious turn came until last Thursday when Dr. Morse diagnosed the case as typhoid pneumonia. He did not give me any prescription for I do not believe in physicians or their treatment."

"Furthermore, I am not of this world, and I try to follow the words of the scriptures, and as God did not heal my child I believe He has another object in taking her away."

Rev. Mr. Orne was formerly city missionary here, and is now the State agent of the State Parental Home Association.

Big Shortage in a Home Bank.

ROME, Jan. 19.—A deficiency of three million francs is stated to exist in the Rome branch of the Banco Napoli. The cashier of the Rome branch has been arrested, and a director has absconded. It is reported that the absconding director recently bought a ticket to the United States.

Captains of Princeton's Football Team.

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 19.—At a meeting of the Princeton Football Team, King, 93, was re-elected captain by acclamation, but he declined the position, and T. G. Tranchard, '95, was then elected.

Japanese to Prevent Sealing.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 19.—Japanese Consul Kite received word yesterday of his Government's intention to prohibit sealing by foreigners within the international limits of the Japanese coast.

Pooling Provision Rejected.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The Senate Interstate Commerce Committee has, by a vote of 6 to 5, finally rejected the railroad pooling provision in the Cullom bill, and will report the bill as thus amended.

Switchemen's Strike Shuts Down Business.

MEXICO, Ind., Jan. 19.—The railroad switchmen's strike here is getting worse. Every iron and steel plant in the city is now closed, with more than 1,000 men out of work.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

—John Lanning, son of the late multimillionaire Nicholas Lanning of San Francisco, is hopelessly insane and is confined in a French institution.

—The Detroit river is frozen solid from bank to bank.

—A mill at Sanford, Me., containing the weaving and dyeing departments of the Goodale Worsted company, was burned yesterday. Loss, $100,000.

—It is understood that Gov. Brown, of Maryland, will refuse to grant requisitions for Amos H. Hosmer and Edwin W. Rouse, the Iron Hall officials, wanted in Indianapolis.

—Five masked men entered the jewelry store of Fred Roberts, of Toronto, bound and gagged him and his clerk, John Ward, and got away with many thousand dollars' worth of goods.

—Gladstone has received from Justin McCarthy and his leading colleagues assurances of the undivided support of the Irish Nationalist members for the Home Rule bill.

—The steamship City of Atlanta of the Old Dominion Line burned in New York last night. Loss $100,000.

—Congressman Fellows has introduced in the House a resolution providing for an investigation of the doings of United States citizens in connection with the Panama Canal.

—The Kansas Populists have finally decided to submit the question of the legality of the Populist House organization to the Supreme court.

—Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company discredit published statements about a deal between the Hocking Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies.

—Five masked men entered the jewelry store of Fred Roberts, of Toronto, bound and gagged him and his clerk, John Ward, and got away with many thousand dollars' worth of goods.

—Gladstone has received from Justin McCarthy and his leading colleagues assurances of the undivided support of the Irish Nationalist members for the Home Rule bill.

—The steamship City of Atlanta of the Old Dominion Line burned in New York last night. Loss $100,000.

—Congressman Fellows has introduced in the House a resolution providing for an investigation of the doings of United States citizens in connection with the Panama Canal.

—The Kansas Populists have finally decided to submit the question of the legality of the Populist House organization to the Supreme court.

—Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company discredit published statements about a deal between the Hocking Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies.

—Five masked men entered the jewelry store of Fred Roberts, of Toronto, bound and gagged him and his clerk, John Ward, and got away with many thousand dollars' worth of goods.

—Gladstone has received from Justin McCarthy and his leading colleagues assurances of the undivided support of the Irish Nationalist members for the Home Rule bill.

—The steamship City of Atlanta of the Old Dominion Line burned in New York last night. Loss $100,000.

—Congressman Fellows has introduced in the House a resolution providing for an investigation of the doings of United States citizens in connection with the Panama Canal.

—The Kansas Populists have finally decided to submit the question of the legality of the Populist House organization to the Supreme court.

—Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company discredit published statements about a deal between the Hocking Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies.

—Five masked men entered the jewelry store of Fred Roberts, of Toronto, bound and gagged him and his clerk, John Ward, and got away with many thousand dollars' worth of goods.

—Gladstone has received from Justin McCarthy and his leading colleagues assurances of the undivided support of the Irish Nationalist members for the Home Rule bill.

—The steamship City of Atlanta of the Old Dominion Line burned in New York last night. Loss $100,000.

—Congressman Fellows has introduced in the House a resolution providing for an investigation of the doings of United States citizens in connection with the Panama Canal.

—The Kansas Populists have finally decided to submit the question of the legality of the Populist House organization to the Supreme court.

—Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company discredit published statements about a deal between the Hocking Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies.

—Five masked men entered the jewelry store of Fred Roberts, of Toronto, bound and gagged him and his clerk, John Ward, and got away with many thousand dollars' worth of goods.

—Gladstone has received from Justin McCarthy and his leading colleagues assurances of the undivided support of the Irish Nationalist members for the Home Rule bill.

—The steamship City of Atlanta of the Old Dominion Line burned in New York last night. Loss $100,000.

—Congressman Fellows has introduced in the House a resolution providing for an investigation of the doings of United States citizens in connection with the Panama Canal.

—The Kansas Populists have finally decided to submit the question of the legality of the Populist House organization to the Supreme court.

—Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company discredit published statements about a deal between the Hocking Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies.

—Five masked men entered the jewelry store of Fred Roberts, of Toronto, bound and gagged him and his clerk, John Ward, and got away with many thousand dollars' worth of goods.

—Gladstone has received from Justin McCarthy and his leading colleagues assurances of the undivided support of the Irish Nationalist members for the Home Rule bill.

—The steamship City of Atlanta of the Old Dominion Line burned in New York last night. Loss $100,000.

—Congressman Fellows has introduced in the House a resolution providing for an investigation of the doings of United States citizens in connection with the Panama Canal.

—The Kansas Populists have finally decided to submit the question of the legality of the Populist House organization to the Supreme court.

—Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company discredit published statements about a deal between the Hocking Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies.

—Five masked men entered the jewelry store of Fred Roberts, of Toronto, bound and gagged him and his clerk, John Ward, and got away with many thousand dollars' worth of goods.

—Gladstone has received from Justin McCarthy and his leading colleagues assurances of the undivided support of the Irish Nationalist members for the Home Rule bill.

—The steamship City of Atlanta of the Old Dominion Line burned in New York last night. Loss $100,000.

—Congressman Fellows has introduced in the House a resolution providing for an investigation of the doings of United States citizens in connection with the Panama Canal.

—The Kansas Populists have finally decided to submit the question of the legality of the Populist House organization to the Supreme court.

—Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company discredit published statements about a deal between the Hocking Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies.

—Five masked men entered the jewelry store of Fred Roberts, of Toronto, bound and gagged him and his clerk, John Ward, and got away with many thousand dollars' worth of goods.

—Gladstone has received from Justin McCarthy and his leading colleagues assurances of the undivided support of the Irish Nationalist members for the Home Rule bill.

—The steamship City of Atlanta of the Old Dominion Line burned in New York last night. Loss $100,000.

—Congressman Fellows has introduced in the House a resolution providing for an investigation of the doings of United States citizens in connection with the Panama Canal.

—The Kansas Populists have finally decided to submit the question of the legality of the Populist House organization to the Supreme court.

—Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company discredit published statements about a deal between the Hocking Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies.

—Five masked men entered the jewelry store of Fred Roberts, of Toronto, bound and gagged him and his clerk, John Ward, and got away with many thousand dollars' worth of goods.

—Gladstone has received from Justin McCarthy and his leading colleagues assurances of the undivided support of the Irish Nationalist members for the Home Rule bill.

—The steamship City of Atlanta of the Old Dominion Line burned in New York last night. Loss $100,000.

—Congressman Fellows has introduced in the House a resolution providing for an investigation of the doings of United States citizens in connection with the Panama Canal.

—The Kansas Populists have finally decided to submit the question of the legality of the Populist House organization to the Supreme court.

—Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company discredit published statements about a deal between the Hocking Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies.

—Five masked men entered the jewelry store of Fred Roberts, of Toronto, bound and gagged him and his clerk, John Ward, and got away with many thousand dollars' worth of goods.

—Gladstone has received from Justin McCarthy and his leading colleagues assurances of the undivided support of the Irish Nationalist members for the Home Rule bill.

—The steamship City of Atlanta of the Old Dominion Line burned in New York last night. Loss $100,000.

—Congressman Fellows has introduced in the House a resolution providing for an investigation of the doings of United States citizens in connection with the Panama Canal.

—The Kansas Populists have finally decided to submit the question of the legality of the Populist House organization to the Supreme court.

—Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company discredit published statements about a deal between the Hocking Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies.

—Five masked men entered the jewelry store of Fred Roberts, of Toronto, bound and gagged him and his clerk, John Ward, and got away with many thousand dollars' worth of goods.

—Gladstone has received from Justin McCarthy and his leading colleagues assurances of the undivided support of the Irish Nationalist members for the Home Rule bill.

—The steamship City of Atlanta of the Old Dominion Line burned in New York last night. Loss $100,000.

—Congressman Fellows has introduced in the House a resolution providing for an investigation of the doings of United States citizens in connection with the Panama Canal.

—The Kansas Populists have finally decided to submit the question of the legality of the Populist House organization to the Supreme court.

—Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company discredit published statements about a deal between the Hocking Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies.

—Five masked men entered the jewelry store of Fred Roberts, of Toronto, bound and gagged him and his clerk, John Ward, and got away with many thousand dollars' worth of goods.

—Gladstone has received from Justin McCarthy and his leading colleagues assurances of the undivided support of the Irish Nationalist members for the Home Rule bill.

—The steamship City of Atlanta of the Old Dominion Line burned in New York last night. Loss $100,000.

—Congressman Fellows has introduced in the House a resolution providing for an investigation of the doings of United States citizens in connection with the Panama Canal.

—The Kansas Populists have finally decided to submit the question of the legality of the Populist House organization to the Supreme court.

—Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company discredit published statements about a deal between the Hocking Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies.

—Five masked men entered the jewelry store of Fred Roberts, of Toronto, bound and gagged him and his clerk, John Ward, and got away with many thousand dollars' worth of goods.

—Gladstone has received from Justin McCarthy and his leading colleagues assurances of the undivided support of the Irish Nationalist members for the Home Rule bill.

—The steamship City of Atlanta of the Old Dominion Line burned in New York last night. Loss $100,000.

—Congressman Fellows has introduced in the House a resolution providing for an investigation of the doings of United States citizens in connection with the Panama Canal.

—The Kansas Populists have finally decided to submit the question of the legality of the Populist House organization to the Supreme court.

—Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company discredit published statements about a deal between the Hocking Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies.

—Five masked men entered the jewelry store of Fred Roberts, of Toronto, bound and gagged him and his clerk, John Ward, and got away with many thousand dollars' worth of goods.

—Gladstone has received from Justin McCarthy and his leading colleagues assurances of the undivided support of the Irish Nationalist members for the Home Rule bill.

—The steamship City of Atlanta of the Old Dominion Line burned in New York last night. Loss $100,000.

—Congressman Fellows has introduced in the House a resolution providing for an investigation of the doings of United States citizens in connection with the Panama Canal.

—The Kansas Populists have finally decided to submit the question of the legality of the Populist House organization to the Supreme court.

—Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company discredit published statements about a deal between the Hocking Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies.

—Five masked men entered the jewelry store of Fred Roberts, of Toronto, bound and gagged him and his clerk, John Ward, and got away with many thousand dollars' worth of goods.

—Gladstone has received from Justin McCarthy and his leading colleagues assurances of the undivided support of the Irish Nationalist members for the Home Rule bill.

—The steamship City of Atlanta of the Old Dominion Line burned in New York last night. Loss $100,000.

—Congressman Fellows has introduced in the House a resolution providing for an investigation of the doings of United States citizens in connection with the Panama Canal.

—The Kansas Populists have finally decided to submit the question of the legality of the Populist House organization to the Supreme court.

—Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company discredit published statements about a deal between the Hocking Valley and Pennsylvania railroad companies.

Pat's Password.

Lower tells a good anecdote of an Irishman giving the password of the battle of Fontenoy, at the time Saxe was marshal.

"The password is Saxe; now don't forget it," said the colonel to Pat.

"Fais and I will not. Wasn't my father a miller?"

"Who goes there?" cried the sentinel, after he arrived at the post.

Pat looked as confident as possible, and in a sort of whispered howl, replied: "Bags, per honor."—Gripsack.

The Modern Method.

Brown—And so that young woman is going to bring an action for breach of promise against you? Did you ever write any compromising letters to her?

Green—Never wrote a letter of any kind.

Brown—Then you're all right. She can't prove anything.

Green—Can't she? Whenever I called she got her brother to take snap shots of us with his kodak.—Boston Globe.

Lack of Exports.

First Boy—Grown folks is such fools. Second Boy—How?

First Boy—'Jus' hear 'em making all that fuss 'cause the drinking-water smells bad since the rain. They don't seem to know 'nough to hold their noses w'en they drink.—Good News.

Stood It as Long as He Could.

The Orator—This is a big hall to fill with one voice. How could you do it?

The Citizen—The first five minutes of it I could hear first rate. Then I lost consciousness.—Chicago News Record.

The Whole Thing is a Nuthell.

"Everybody calls you 'colonel.' Isn't that getting to be a good deal of a chestnut?"

"I earned the title, sir, by faithful service in the army. If it's a chestnut, sir, it's one with a sound colonel."—Chicago Tribune.

Their Way.

Mr. Brazz A. Docco (of Chicago)—Yes, sir, when we people attempt to do anything we roll up our sleeves and pitch in.

Mr. Fulton (of New York)—Yes, I have noticed it; I took dinner in your town once.—Pack.

No Rivals.

He who himself doth love full well
We envy all, for he
Will never fold his bosom swell
With cruel jealousy.—Pack.

AT BEDTIME
I TAKE A PLEASANT
HERB
DRINK

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER. My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as any medicine.

LANE'S MEDICINE
It dispels all colds and cures all coughs. If you cannot get it, send your address for a free sample. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels such that it is necessary.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY.
Have you Catarrh? Try this Remedy. It will relieve and cure you. Price 50 cents. This Remedy for the successful treatment is furnished free. Shiloh's Remedies are sold by us on a guarantee to give satisfaction.

SHILOH'S VITALIZER.
Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "Shiloh's Vitalizer is the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used. It cured my Dyspepsia, Liver or Kidney trouble, it cures. Price 75 cents."

</