BUSINESS STOPPED IN ATLANTA The Snew Storm Causes Many Residents to Take a Hellday.

ATLANTA, Um., Jan. 19.-Not in 80 years or more has Atlanta had such days as these. The city woke yesterday to find two inches of snow on the ground, and snow still falling rapidly. By 10 o'clock it was so heavy that all the electric car lines were compelled to suspend operations. Shortly afterwards the other lines stopped, and a holiday spirit seized the entire city.

Business was practically suspended Everybody indulged in snowballing, and everybody who could improvise a sleigh of any kind took a hand is that sport so

NIAGARA'S ICE GORGE It Makes a Sudden Move and Considerable

Dumage Is Done Lawiston, N. Y., Jan. 19.—The great e jam on the lower Niagara River made snother move last night. On this side the ice moved down 100 feet and again packed. Considerable damage was done in a few minutes. William Waggoner's stairway from the hotel to the dock was carried away. Not one of the boathouses is left.

Collard's storehouse on the Niagara
Navigation company's dock is crushed.
Other damage is reported down the river on the Queenstown side.

The storehouse on the wharf which has airendy withstood one siege was carried away by the ice and wrecked in the Wil-lows 100 feet away.

SUFFERING IN CANADA.

The Continuous Cold Weather Causing Great Distress - Many Prozen to Death. QUEREC, Jan. 19 -Never within the memory of man has Canada suffered se continuously from intense cold weather as during the last month. There has only been one break in the intense cold Each day. In order to be healthy this is for the last four weeks and that was for two days.

For 26 days with the exception just made, the thermometer has been down below zero and for the most of the time it has registered from five to twenty de

The suffering among the poor in all parts of the country is great. Numbers of people have been frozen to death some, including a man at Levis, in their beds. Many of the streams are frozen solid to the bottom of their beds.

Water Searce at St. Louis.

Sr. Louis, Jan. 19 .- If the present cold reather continues very much longer St. Louis will be threatened with a water famine equal to that which caused so much suffering and inconvenience in 1884, when the supply of water in the eservoirs was for some hours completely Snowballing in Charleston.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 19.—Snow began failing here at 10 o'clock a. m. and continued steadily three hours. The ground is covered to a depth of an inch and a half. The streets are full of snow-ballers. Nothing like it has been known in Charleston for forty years.

HIS HEAD ALMOST TORN OFF. Horrible Scene at the Execution of Mc-

Ghasgow, Jan. 19.-A horrible scene ccurred at the execution of William Mc Ewan for the murder of a woman at West Pollokshiels. McEwan, after committing the crime, had attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat. It was thoughthe would dis from the effect of the wound, but the doctors succeeded in saving him for the gallows although his neck was left in a very weak condition.

When he was brought out for execu-tion the mark of the self-inflicted wound could plainly be seen.

He walked without apparent fear to the gallows and the rope was adjusted. When the bolt was drawn an awful spectacle was witnessed, which caused even the experienced prison officials to turn pale. The man's head was nearly torn off, and blood gushed out over his body and the gallows. Death was instantaneous.

Much indignation is expressed against the authorities for not having taken precautions against such an occurence.

Charged With Murder. Dowlesrows, Pa., Jan. 19.—Lewis M. Bryan, aged 33 years, is under arrest, charged with the murder of Farmer Jacob Detwiler, whose dead body was found near his home on Dec 9. Bryan does not bear a good reputation. He has been suspected of the murder, but until yesterday the authorities had not suffiient evidence to warrant his arrest.
