

THE EVENING HERALD.

VOL. VII.—NO. 330.

SHENANDOAH, PA., FRIDAY, JANUARY 20, 1893.

ONE CENT.

A Big Drive

IS NOW ON AT
P. J.

MONAGHAN'S

28 South Main st.

Clearing sale of Winter goods!

Gents' underwear that formerly sold for $1 will now go at 80c.
Special sale of Blankets.
Only a few more of those desirable Cats left over which will be sold regardless of cost.
Carpet and oil cloths at the lowest prices consistent with first-class goods.
Dress goods, notions, etc.

FRIGUSON'S THEATRE.
F. J. FRIGUSON, MANAGER.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 21

Engagement of the distinguished actress,
Madame Neuvill,

Augustin Naville,

THE BOY TAMP.

With its wealth of
Special Scenery, Stage Sets,
Mechanical Effects, Parties, &c.

Prices, 25, 35 and 50 Cents.

DOUGHERTY'S
Saloon and Restaurant

The leading place in town.
Has lately been entirely renovated.
Everything new and fresh.
Wines and Liquor!
Cigars, &c., foreign domestic.
Free lunch and each evening.
Big schiras of fresh Beer, Porter, Ale.

OPPOSITE THE THEATRE,
J. J. DOUGHERTY, Prop.

T. J. O'HARN'S
Barber Shop.

OPPOSITE THE THEATRE,
J. J. DOUGHERTY, Prop.

SPECIAL BARGAINS

FLOOR CL CLOTH

and LINOLEUM.

So Close Out Sues Stock—a few pieces Floor Oil Cloth, two yds wide, at 50 and 60c. Regular prices, 85c and $1.00.
Linoleum—2 yard wide, 75c. Regular price, $1.00.

OR SALE.

Three Cars No. mothy Hay.
Two Cars & Middlings.
One Caney White Middlings.
Our Pure Chop—our own make.
One Car Fancy Clipped White Oats.

Florida Orages,
Large and Sweet—25c a dozen.

Condensed Milk,
Quality—two cans for 25 cents.

ATKEITER'S

Our Directory.

THE POST OFFICE Shenandoah.

Office hours from 7:30 a. m. to 7:30 p. m. Money Order and Registry Department open from 8:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m.

Following is a schedule of the arrival and departure of mail trains. Mail matter for dispatch must be in the office thirty minutes before the time given below:

Arrival.	Destination.	Departure.
P. M. A. M.		P. M. P. M.
7:40 4:34	Phila., Westers and Southern States	7:20 12:52
9:04 9:04		11:30 3:08
1:40 8:46	New York and Eastern States and points on L. V. R. R.	9:06 8:06
8:06		1:55
9:06	Ashland	7:30 7:00
1:25 9:06	Girardville	1:35 7:00
1:35 9:06	Haven Run, Centerville, Mt. Carmel and Shamokin.	1:40 7:00
2:25 9:06		1:40 7:00
1:40	Pottsville	7:20 2:50
8:15 9:06		11:30 5:20
1:40		7:20 2:50
2:25 9:06	Mahany City	11:30 6:50
8:15		11:30 6:50
2:25	Mahany Plane, Lost Creek and Shaft.	11:30 6:50
8:15 9:06	Fricksville	7:20 2:50

Fire Alarm Boxes.

The following list shows the location of the alarm boxes of the Shenandoah Fire Department:

LOCATION.
16—Coal and Bowers streets.
18—Bowers and Centre streets.
24—Bridge and Centre streets.
30—Main and Centre streets.
34—Main and Poplar streets.
36—Main and Coal streets.
42—Gilbert and Centre streets.
43—Gilbert and Cherry streets.
52—Chestnut and Coal streets.

Wm. Ramer

Wm. Ramer, begs to announce to his friends and patrons and the public generally that he has purchased the barber shop lately occupied by H. J. Yost.

No. 12 West Centre Street, SHENANDOAH, PA.

25 CTS. PER YARD FOR OIL CLOTH.

C. D. FRICKE'S Carpet Store, 10 South Jardin St.

Platt's Popular Saloon,

(Formerly Joe Wyatt's) 9 and 21 West Oak Street, SHENANDOAH, PA.

M. S. KISTLER, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

Office—120 North Jardin street, Shenandoah.

FIRED AGAIN, B'GOSH!

WHAT IT IS TO BE AND NOT TO BE.

THE 'HERALD' AGAIN DEBARRED.

Hard Time to Get a Chairman to Preside, but Finally a Milk and Cream Man Stood the Test—Burgess Smith Shows Excellent Judgment.

HERE have been many people "on the fence" as to the justice or injustice of the position of the HERALD in its relations with the Borough Council, certain emissaries of the illegal majority of that illegal body having done the best they could to bolster up their case.

The HERALD now says to the people of Shenandoah that, as it is legally advised, and that advice is not in any way tainted with personal prejudice, it is right.

Any one cognizant of the aspirations of Lamb and Gable must know that what "they set their minds on, they stick to." Unfortunately all the taxpayers of the town do not know this, nor do they know how Mr. Lamb succeeded in getting such a "walk-over" into the Borough Council for a term of three years last year.

The HERALD has been aggressive in its criticism of the actions of Councilmen. That is a plain admission.

Mr. Burke finally notified Council that it had no right to exclude the HERALD reporter from its meetings and stated that if the illegal rule was enforced, the borough would be liable for damages.

Mr. Burke turned and told the chief that he assumed a personal responsibility. The chief answered that he thought the borough would be held.

Chief Davis walked up to the reporter as he (the reporter) was taking notes and placed his hand on his right shoulder.

Mr. Davis, the Chief of Police, soon found that the reporter was not in the habit of walking very far and he gave him a shove, which commensated an act of which no man of honest calibre would be guilty of.

Mr. Smith refused to take a hand and the chief gave the reporter a jerk that brought him to his feet.

Mr. Smith said that he was not present to find fault with, or criticize the action of the Councilmen in regard to the HERALD, but was present as the attorney for the EVENING HERALD and as such an attorney he intended to perform his duty to his client, and he did not think that the action of Council in excluding the HERALD reporter was warranted.

One would think that Messrs. Lamb and Gable, the instigators and promoters of the offensive resolution, being head, soul and heart of the law committee, would agree to such a proposition.

Mr. Lamb took the floor and said he believed every Councilman knew the question well. He said that the HERALD had lied about them months after months and that "we have no public newspaper through which we can get the full facts before the public."

Incidentally we might remark here that if Mr. Lamb wished he could have answered as he inserted in a certain Pottsville publication.

"As far as legal advice is concerned, we have also taken advice," said Mr. Lamb. This the reporter noted to conform with his statement when the question was previously under consideration that he "didn't know what the law was."

Mr. Lamb is taking desperate chances.

This point was wiped out by subsequent consultation, but Mr. Lamb should have had advice at the last meeting.

Mr. Gable then took the floor and said (in confirmation of what the HERALD has heretofore said—see too!) "I have nothing to say, only that my sentiments are the same as Mr. Lamb's. They have not only in the past, but up to the present time, been criticizing our actions."

"Yes, Mr. Gable—and Mr. Lamb, we have criticized your actions, and we still criticize, because we do not think that you have acted impartially. Note—Refer to the oath of the organization of Council."

"Why refer the matter to a committee?" asked Mr. Lamb.

Mr. Lamb was sincere. He wouldn't do anything wrong for the World's Fair, or the Contest.

"Why refer the matter to the law committee, or a part of the committee?" said HE, Mr. Lamb. "If Mr. Burke is sincere in all says, and I have no doubt he is, then he does not understand the subject as we here do."

In other words, Mr. Burke, you are not a liar, but you are not "in it."

Mr. Burke finally notified Council that it had no right to exclude the HERALD reporter from its meetings and stated that if the illegal rule was enforced, the borough would be liable for damages.

Temporary Chairman Betteridge (and the gentleman took occasion to lay emphasis upon temporary) ruled otherwise.

He asked the reporter to withdraw, and seeing that the target didn't move (notwithstanding the warnings of the HERALD's solicitor) he ordered the Chief of Police to remove the reporter.

Mr. Burke turned and told the chief that he assumed a personal responsibility. The chief answered that he thought the borough would be held.

Chief Davis walked up to the reporter as he (the reporter) was taking notes and placed his hand on his right shoulder.

The reporter headed not.

THE COUNCIL MEETING!

BUT LITTLE BUSINESS TRANSACTED LAST NIGHT.

THE MINUTES CAUSE A DEADLOCK

Lamb Flopped and Changed the Situation—A Movement to Have Bonds for the Water Works Issued.

HERE was not much done by the Borough Council last night after the ejection of the HERALD reporter. It was expected that some very important business relating to the proposed water works would be transacted, but as Borough Solicitor Schalk failed to reach the meeting the programme was not carried out.

After Secretary Coakley read the minutes of the preceding meeting objection was raised to that part embodying the motion granting "Squire J. J. Monaghan and T. R. Beddall, Esq., ten dollars each for drawing up petitions for and against the extension of the electric railway several months ago."

Some of the members wanted the motion rescinded, as they did not consider the charges legal. Mr. Holman moved that the minutes be adopted as read and a vote resulted in a tie—5 for and 5 against the motion.

The rest of the meeting was taken up by a discussion of the advisability of proceeding with the public water works project. Contractor Quinn urged the borough to proceed to issue bonds, but several members said they wanted to consult with the Borough Solicitor before taking action.

A number of ladies and gentlemen of town formed a sleighing party last night and drove to Ashland, where they had a very pleasant time. An excellent supper was served at the Ashland House and was followed by dancing, which was kept up until a late hour.

In case of hard cold nothing will relieve the breathing so quickly as to rub America and Oil Liniment on the chest.

The auditors of townships and boroughs should bear in mind that the law requires that the tickets to be used in their districts at the approaching spring election must bear a facsimile of their signatures and this will require a cut of the signatures. The HERALD is prepared to furnish such cuts for $2.50 and will furnish all election printing at equally reasonable rates. Orders should be left early as the date for the distribution of election tickets is close at hand.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, THE "KIND THAT CURES."

Phillip Coffee, Post Office Building.

Electric Railway Bulletin.

Died.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, THE "KIND THAT CURES."

Missionary Meeting.

Buy Keystone Flour. Be sure that the name LESLIE & BARR, Ashland, Pa., is printed on every sack.

A SERIOUS FALL.

Joseph Took the Shortest, but Most Dangerous Route.

Joseph Kemezis, a resident of Mainsville, met with a serious accident at the bridge near the Pennsylvania depot late Wednesday night. He started to walk home and when near the depot he selected the shortest of two paths that lead to the lime kiln. This path led him under the bridge and he stumbled and fell over one of the abutments.

Kemezis was taken to the depot and subsequently Policemen Davis and Temper took him on a small sled to the Borough Council chamber. A physician was summoned and he found that two of Kemezis' ribs were fractured and his thigh badly bruised. The injured man was removed to the Miners' Hospital.

PERSONAL.

H. E. Deugler visited Mahany City last night. John R. Jones, of North Jardin street, is on the sick list.

Miss Mattie Crooks, of Tremont, is the guest of town friends.

Dr. J. C. Biddle, of the Miners' Hospital, spent yesterday afternoon here.

Miss Annie Bowen, of St. Clair, and her two nieces, Misses Hattie and Kate, are the guests of Mrs. Roberts, of East Coal street.

There was a very pleasing affair at the residence of Mr. Thomas S. Roberts, on East Coal street, last evening, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Annie Roberts to John Huskeyfield.

A Great Artist.

Hausenfelder Side Co., the energetic managers, have spared neither expense or labor in presenting their latest and greatest success, "She Couldn't Marry Three."

If prize medals indicate success, then F. Ad. Richter & Co., the manufacturers of the celebrated imported "Anchor Pain Expeller" are far in the lead over others.

The "News-Dealer" Wins.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, THE "KIND THAT CURES."

Black Bass for Schellfy.

Our little boy wonders where people get all the pleasant sayings about Dr. Cox's Cough Syrup, and says the next cough he gets he means to try it.

A valuable property on North White street. A good block front, two houses and stable back. Particulars apply at HERALD office.

It Suits the People.