OUR POTTSVILLE LETTER!

CORRESPONDENCE THAT WILL EXCITE INTEREST

TAYLOR-BEEBE CASE DISCUSSED

The Losses the County Sustained by Removal of the Court House Muddle Fully and Impartially Considered.

Special HERALD Correspondence.

POTTSVILLE, Jan. 21.

URING the time when Samuel Garrett and A. J. Shorval were two of the three County Commissioners of this county, James W. M. Newlin, Esq., of Philadelphia, and Samuel A. Garrett, of Pottsville, both practicing attorneys, were engaged by the county to collect about $2,000 back taxes from the Commonwealth. The money was promptly collected and promptly covered into the treasury, and Mr. Garrett was promptly received his 25 per cent, amounting to about $1,400. Mr. Newlin never authorized Mr. Garrett to set as his agent and claimed that the county of Schuylkill owed him a similar amount, payment of which being refused, Mr. Newlin brought suit to recover it. With the $1,400 heaped in which was more than his share and leaving Mr. Newlin to take care of his own interests and collect his own stakes, Garrett went West to grow up with the country and he has never returned, nor has he been elected to Congress or Governor of his adopted state, but rumor has it he is practicing law in California and making money. Mr. Newlin's case came up for trial before Judge Bechtel this week. The present County Commissioners, with their proverbial shortsightedness, with the single exception of Elias Reed, went in for a fight, with Guy E. Farquhar and William Wilhelm, Esq., as special counsel, Ex-Solicitor Minge and the new solicitor, Cumming, sitting in his seat at the counsel table and like "Burr Rabbit he say nuffin'."

THE COUNTY LOSSES.

On Tuesday afternoon the jury retired, after being well charged by the judge, and very soon agreed, making their verdict and bringing it into court on Monday. It gave Mr. Newlin $1,471.72 and costs. Now the unwisdom of the Commissioners' Board, who wouldn't agree with Mr. Reed last week to settle with Newlin for $200, have another feather of stupidity to stitch in their dance cap. And so it goes—the taxpayer pays the piper every time.

The beginning of the new year has marked a period of official blindness so far. Perhaps the most stuporous one is (or will be, when consummated) the settlement of the case against Architect Beebe and Contractor Taylor, who robbed the county in building the new court house. But for a kick made by Councilor Whitehouse last Saturday in court when the matter was under consideration this little game set up as it looks, (but we hope not) to compound a felony, and to exemplify the old adage, "a fat hog's rump is always greased," would have gone through smoothly and swimmingly. But it was a vigorous kick—that was that of the subjecting lawyer—and Brother F. W. Bechtel, Mr. Taylor's most active counsel, had to put the $19,000 in bank and await a more liberal and meritorious adjustment, which Mr. Schalek, who was originally employed by certain taxpayers with $150, along with Messrs. Henning and Whitehouse, will have to accept about $800 less than he reported to the court, under cover of the Auditor's names, that he was entitled to. We have heard of salary grabs before but this little game to get $2,300 and let his colleague hustle for a few dollars in fees, was a bold one of Mr. Schalek's and brought forth the lively and vigorous kick above referred to.

RAUCOUS FOR GOOSE AND GANDER.

It appears that negotiations for a settlement have been going on for some time. F. W. Bechtel for Taylor and A. W. Schalek for several others, principally for Mr. Schalek, have been the prime negotiators. Mr. Bechtel was perfectly right in securing an acquittance of his client by the best possible means—namely, it was his duty to his client and when that settlement was the means of enriching the county a few thousand dollars it became a very commendable duty and a pleasing one to perform on the part of Mr. Bechtel. But what is "raucous for the goose" should be "raucous for the gander." If the gander is any kind of a decent pander at all, and when it was proposed to deduct about $5,000 from the $19,000 paid to be devoted to lawyers, typewriters, witnesses, etc., and nearly one-half of the $5,000, or $2,300, was proposed to go to one person, some other person thought it was time to enter a very emphatic protest. So Mr. Whitehouse kicked. He said among other things that he was opposed to the settlement, that he understood that his name was included in the list of attorneys to be paid, but until his original employer, the taxpayers, had discharged him he proposed to oppose this settlement, denouncing it as unfair, contrary to law and as calculated to set a bad precedent. When he remarked that the poor insignificant larceinist or thief charged with a felony (to compound, which as I have said before is a crime), couldn't buy himself, or herself off like Taylor was doing, but that the court had always insisted upon a plea of guilty in such cases, the speaker set a good many wise men thinking who were both on and off the bench, in the audience and around the ragged edges of the temple of justice. The speech had the desired effect as ever since the matter of settlement of the Taylor case has been held under advisement. But one thing is certain, the bill of fees and expenses will be cut down, decreased, "razed," clipped or what ever you may call it, until a distribution much more equitable has been accomplished.

A VERY BAD PRECEDENT.

The stupendously outrageous part of this whole scheme is that the Commissioners, who have only been negligent and not robbers, are not to go free along with Taylor and Beebe, to whose fingers the gold sticks. No one charges either of the three Commissioners with getting one dollar of the large amount paid out for the court house unless we except $100 paid to one of them as a present. Criminally negligent and atrociously incompetent they were but the real robbers were Taylor and Beebe, who have no affiliation with any one here, either by consanguinity or through business. Mr. Schalek and his auditorial staff proposes to let them go free and to make scapegoats out of the three men who are our fellow citizens, who have been reared among us and who have many interests in common with many of our best people. I say it is a piece of business which the court should sit down on with all the force of its judicial ponderosity and not set a precedent that they will stalk forward in the forward in the future, like Banzou's ghost, often that it is expected. Taylor and Beebe should have been put on trial and convicted. They are not entitled to any more leniency from the court, because they can pay back one-third of their plunder than the poor man who steals a loaf of bread to feed his starving children.

POINTS.

The neat little enterprise of our popular socialist, the proprietors of Madison's conservatory who have arranged with the proprietor of Washley's drug store in Shenandoah, where orders for flowers can be left, is to be commended.

The interest taken in the HERALD's World's Fair contest, south of the mountain, bids fair to send two of the fairest of your girls to the windy city. This is not all blow, either, it is a fair and fortunate fact as the votes will demonstrate.

Candidates for county row officers are loom ing up already on the Democratic side. So far Henry Scheurman, present Recorder, has announced himself as a candidate for reelection. He said in the Merchants' Hotel the other evening that he would like nothing better than to have that office for life. George Folmer, of your borough, will make the greatest fight of his life for Treasurer. S. C. Kirk proposes to succeed himself for Prothonotary and Joseph A. Nichter, the only double dealer in liquor in this town, serves notice that he wants Mr. Kirk's place. Nichter says he is sure to win and Jack Toole says he will spend more money to get these than Kirk took in during his term—just about ending. Candidates for Commissioner have not yet been heard from. Clerk Toole will make a vigorous attempt to remain where he is. The fight for Register will be between Mr. Kistler, of West Penn, and Ed. Hummel, of Pinesgrove, for their party nominations. This year, however, the Republicans propose to have some of the office, and the Democrats may just as well know it now.

The rush to "lift" licenses continues great. Many of the first to pay up and take out their new certificates got in early so that little violations of the law last year may not thwart them by confronting them just when they are safely over the first half mile in the race.

Dr. Williams, of Gilberton, telegraphed to a prominent lawyer in town on Wednesday that Alex. Jacobs, of Gilberton, was prostrated with typhoid pneumonia and wanted to put in writing his last testament. The lawyer hastened to Mr. Jacobs' bedside and found him very low indeed. Many friends here have sent Mr. Jacobs their kind wishes for his speedy recovery.

[In reference to the mention of the Newlin offer to settle for $800, as made above by our correspondent, it is but just to say that the County Commissioners have denied that any such offer was made in their presence. They say that the only offer of settlement made to them by Newlin was made on Saturday last, at the Commissioners' office, when Charles E. Breckons, one of the Newlin attorneys, made an offer to accept $1,500 in full settlement of his client's claim. The overtures of the attorney were looked upon by Commissioners Bowers and DeTurk as a "feeler" to know how they (the Commissioners) considered the case, and therefore they passed it off without giving it any serious consideration, believing the offer was not made seriously.—Ed.]

THE MONUMENT FUND!

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE LAST NIGHT.

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR THE PROJECT

The Committee Ready to Receive Subscriptions—A Soliciting Committee of Fifteen Appointed.

MEETING of the soldiers' monument committee was held last evening in the Council chamber and proved to be a very important one. Mr. M. H. Master, who was authorized to prepare a design for the monument, was present with a design upon which he had given much care and it met with general satisfaction, with the exception of one particular. Mr. Master's design calls for a higher on top of the monument and some members of the committee favor some other figure. This difference will be adjusted satisfactorily to all parties before the next meeting.

There was a good attendance at the meeting and all the representatives agreed that prospects for a successful termination of the project were excellent.

One of the most important subjects discussed was a method for raising funds and it was decided to put a soliciting committee at work. In pursuance of this Chairman David Morgan was authorized to appoint, with the assistance of Secretary Deugler, a committee of fifteen to solicit subscriptions. This committee will be made up of three citizens of each of the five wards of town.

When the financial part of the project was under discussion several members strongly urged that as much publicity as possible be given to the desire of the committee to have all persons who have pledged subscriptions to the fund pay the amounts to the secretary as soon as possible. A list of these pledges, as published in the HERALD from time to time since the project was first suggested, has been furnished the secretary.

It is hoped that by the time the committee meets again all who have thus pledged themselves or most of them, will have stepped up to the secretary's desk and made their pledges good. All payments may be made or sent to Mr. H. E. Deugler, secretary, Shenandoah, Pa.

Obituary.

It is with regret that we announce the death of Miss Sarah J. Hughes, daughter of Daniel and Caroline Hughes, former residents of this town. Miss Hughes was in her sixteenth year and a most amiable lady. The cause of death, which occurred at the family residence in Philadelphia on Thursday, was thrombosis of the heart. The remains arrived in town this afternoon and were taken to the residence of Mr. R. O. Church, on South White street, and will be kept there until the funeral takes place, tomorrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

Mr. Yost's Success.

B. J. Yost, the recently appointed organizer for the State of Pennsylvania of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, returned to town last evening from Union county, where he has been very successful in his work. Mr. Yost says he has a number of charter applications for new camps ready and he expects to keep the State Camp busy for some time in keeping up with his work.

Electric Railway Bulletin.

Hereafter the electric railway cars will leave the corner of Cherry and Main streets at 5:30 a. m. daily and every 20 minutes thereafter until midnight, at which hour the last car will leave for Girardville. On Monday, November 7th, 1892, the fare for any length of ride between Shenandoah and Girardville will be reduced to five (5) cents.

Needs Attendance.

A water pipe on Gilbert street, between Oak and Centre, has burst and the ice that has accumulated in that locality by reason of the break makes the streets dangerous for pedestrians and horses. At Centre and Gilbert streets the roadways were in a terrible condition to-day. This matter should receive the immediate attention of the proper authorities.

Died.

PURCELL.—On the 20th inst., at Shenandoah, Pa., Lucy, daughter of Martin and Lucy Purcell, aged 2 years and 5 months. Funeral will take place on Sunday, 22nd inst., at 2:30 p. m. Interment in the Annapolis cemetery. 1-20-2t.

HUGHES.—On the 19th inst., at Philadelphia, Pa., Sarah Jane, daughter of Daniel and Caroline Hughes, aged 16 years, 2 months and 19 days. Funeral will take place at 2 p. m. on Sunday, 22nd inst., from the residence of B. C. Church, 115 South White street, Shenandoah, Pa. Interment in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. Friends and relatives are respectfully invited to attend. 1-20-2t.

Services Appreciated.

Mr. Maria Gibson has been made the recipient of a handsome gold badge the gift of the Women's Relief Corps, auxiliary to Warklin Water Post, No. 145, G. A. R., of town. The corps made the presentation in recognition of the valuable services Mrs. Gibson has rendered the past two terms as its Past President.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

An interesting session in the Trinity Reformed Church to-day.

The executive committee of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Schuylkill Classis met in quarterly session in the First Reformed church to-day, the President, Mrs. Rev. Henry Mosser, of Reading, presiding. All the officers and sub-committees made their quarterly reports.

The session this morning was devoted mainly to routine business of the society. The afternoon meeting was very interesting. This meeting was principally of a literary character. Rev. O. Boyle gave the society a hearty welcome and his address was responded to by one of the lady members.

The society is growing fast and creating quite an interest through the classis. It has pledged itself to raise during the coming year the sum of five hundred dollars for home missionary work. This shows the true spirit of these christian ladies.

The society adjourned at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when the members left for their respective homes. The following form the executive committee: Mrs. Rev. Henry Mosser, Reading; Mrs. Kaufman and Mrs. Rev. H. A. Keiser, Mahanoy City; the Messrs. Walter, Adams, Lohan, Kiefer, Miller and Zerby.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Bookings of Plays to be Produced at Ferguson's Theatre.

The house was packed full last night, and the audience was perfectly satisfied with the excellent performance of "The Boy Tramp." The play is pretty, full of fun and humor and is much improved since its production here last season, both in cast and scenic effects. The company are all capable people and acted their parts in a most masterly manner. August Neville is a most clever comedian after the style of Roland Reed, and made as great a hit with the big audience. The scenery is a big feature and was received with loud applause.—The Times, Buffalo, N. Y. "The New Boy Tramp" will appear at Ferguson's theatre this evening.

"THE LIMITED MAIL."

Among the attractions booked at Ferguson's theatre in the near future is Elmer W. Vance's great realistic comedy drama, "The Limited Mail," which has created such a furore in the dramatic world. It is said to be the most realistic and wonderful scenic and mechanical production ever staged, and the crowds everywhere are numerous. At Ferguson's theatre on Monday, January 30th.

Alone on the Prairie.

The day was in that transitory state when twilight lingers in the lap of day and darkness struggles for the ascendancy. The sun hung in a great red ball of lurid flames betwixt heaven and earth; there was a feeling of profound quiet which seemed to settle on all things animate and inanimate. The birds, the insects, the very trees and sprouting plants were for the moment hushed as if in expectancy of some unforeseen, some inexplicable something which seemed to pervade the very atmosphere. A bull frog gurgled softly as he fell back into the limpid water. Suddenly over the brow of a distant hill there appeared a solitary man, seated astride a great bay horse; he cast one long sweeping glance around him and then went back over the brow of the hill again. And that same night over seven hundred people were turned away unable to gain admittance to the Opera House where "She Condemns Mary Three" was being played to the most delighted audience of the season.

The Eden Musee.

The management of the Eden Musee at Robinson's opera house has met with such flattering success it has extended the improvements of the house and to-day added three new and beautiful sets of scenery to the stage paraphernalia. These improvements will serve to increase the museum's popularity and make the venture a profitable one. To-night there will be a special feature in the programme, a pie-eating match and the winner will receive a valuable prize.

Sermons to Young Men.

Rev. Robert O'Boyle, of the Trinity Reformed church, will preach a sermon tomorrow (Sunday) evening for young men. This is the first of a series of sermons Mr. O'Boyle will deliver. The subject for tomorrow evening is an interesting one. The young men of town should avail themselves of this opportunity and be benefited by the service.
