REV. O'BOYLE'S CHURCH WAS CROWDED LAST NIGHT.

MORALITY OF THE TOWN TREATED.

The Clergyman Says the Moral Standard of the Rising Generation is Too Low—Higher Aim Required.

WOULD twice the number of sermons have been provided last evening at the Trinity Reformed church, on West Lloyd street, last night, all would have been filled. The church was crowded and there was a notable attendance of members of other congregations. The large attendance was undoubtedly due to the announcement made last week by Rev. Robert O'Boyle, pastor of the church, that he would begin a series of sermons to young men.

Rev. O'Boyle has made personal investigations and observations and a study of the characteristics of young men of the town the last few months and the series of sermons he has announced is the result of this work.

In his sermon last night Rev. O'Boyle spoke of the young men from a general moral point of view. He said that the standard of morality among them in this town is too low; that their aim in life is not high, but rather the opposite, hence a lack on their part to do good and efficient work in building character.

The sermon was certainly a most interesting and instructive one, and Rev. O'Boyle will undoubtedly find his church crowded every Sunday evening during the continuance of the series.

The sermon of last night will be followed next Sunday by one on "Municipal Reform."

STILL SLEIGHING.

A Few Points for the Many Pleasure Seekers.

The liverymen and other owners of horses and sleighs continue to do an immense business. The condition of the roads remains such as to afford splendid sleighing and parties are still springing up in all sections and fitting from one place to another.

It is estimated that on Saturday and yesterday no less than a hundred couples and parties drove from this town to different sections of the surrounding country. Yesterday every available horse and sleigh in the town went into use and they were almost at a premium.

Numerous accidents are reported, but fortunately none of them have been of a very serious character. Most are the mishaps arising from the breaking of sleighs. There was an exciting incident on North Main street last night. A runaway horse, dragging behind him a cutter with a young man under it, dashed from West Oak street and turned down Main, but was caught shortly after it turned the corner. The young man escaped with a few slight bruises. He had lost control of the horse.

One of our townsmen had a sleigh badly damaged at Corners' crossing, the runners became fastened in the rails of the Lehigh Valley railroad. A number of crippled sleighs were returned to their owners yesterday.

Couples and parties intending to take trips down the valley are warned against the crowds of roughs that assemble in the various patches. Several people have reported that they have suffered various indignities at the hands of these roughs. Thus far the only remedy in the hands of the pleasure seekers has been the liberal use of whips. If the township authorities do not take some action to protect the visitors the hotels and other stopping places will be in danger of losing considerable patronage.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES."

A Disputed Question.

Scientists and electricians cannot agree upon the number of electric volts which are necessary to cause a cessation of life in the human body; some claim that an excessive shock is more likely to cause incineration rather than instantaneous death, but if they would turn their attention to prolonging and increasing the pleasures of life, the public would hail the result with more satisfaction. For instance, the electricity generated in a wave of laughter is after all the most pleasant shock, and to see a large assemblage moved by a current of uncontrollable mirth while witnessing the play of "She Couldn't Marry Three," places beyond dispute the fact that large volts of laughter are better than volts of electricity any day.

An Economist.

Mr. R. E. Severn, the East Centre street grocer, has accepted the agency for the renowned coal saver, Kool Spar. The article is recommended as a genuine coal saver, producing perfect combustion, does away with cinders, soot, cinders and coal gas, and makes quick, bright and hot fires with little smoke.

The name of N. H. Downe's still lives, although he has been dead many years. His Elixir for the cure of coughs and colds has already outlived him a quarter of a century and is still growing in favor with the public.

FAIR WARNING!

A Final Notice to the Runners of Gambling Places.

There is a gambling hell located in one of the most prominent blocks on Main street. It is playing sad havoc with the young men of many of our leading families. It runs day and night, and Sundays as well.

The frequenters of "the game" are not limited to the novices, but include a number of professionals.

To increase the evil and its disastrous effects liquor and other intoxicants are supplied the patrons of the place by "runners."

Notice is hereby given that unless this hell is shut up without delay the county court and other officials will be made cognizant of the facts.

No threats to make informants or prosecutors suffer will avail in this case. Others than the women who have already been threatened have a knowledge of the facts and will not hesitate to use them if the guilty parties do not heed this notice.

Last week the Borough Council adopted a motion ordering the Chief Burgess to close up all the gambling places in the town. It is stated upon what seems to be excellent authority that one of the borough officials is a daily frequenter of the place referred to above.

The mere adoption of a motion of instruction is not a proper fulfillment of duty by the Councilmen. They should follow up such action with a little trouble to see if the instructions are carried out and if they are being ignored an investigation should be held to learn the reason why.

Stop the gambling!

HE WAS FORTUNATE!

A HEAVY LOSS SPEEDILY MADE GOOD.

WHO MISSED THE VALUABLE FIND.

A Visitor to Town Drops a Wallet Filled With Valuable Documents on a Conspicuous Pavement.

AND again the people are furnished subjects for discussion and surprise by reports of wonderful good luck experienced by others Saturday night there was an occurrence of good fortune in town that was surprising in the extreme. A gentleman who came here Saturday afternoon, and who has given some excellent reasons for having his name withheld from the public, found the acquaintance of a young lady and took a walk about town with her in the evening.

At midnight the aforesaid gentleman was treated to a bath of cold precipitation. As he was about to retire he discovered that a wallet in which he carried money and valuable papers was missing. Nervously retracing his steps he had taken during the evening and the route brought him along Jardin street. Nearly three hours had passed since the loser walked along the street last and the chances of finding his wallet were much against him. But fortune was on his side and as he walked along the street, carefully eyeing right and left, and giving attention to every nook and corner, his sight fell upon a familiar looking package near the gutter in front of the Phoenix Hose Company's house. The man's joy was unbounded. The package was his wallet, containing several hundred dollars worth of certified checks and many papers of value that could have been negotiated by a third party.

The matter was kept very quiet but a HUNTER reporter got an inkling of it and when he called upon the unfortunate man for a confirmation of the report he ascertained the facts were correct as gleaned accidentally. If the wallet had been lost on Sunday evening it might not have been recovered so easily, for on Sundays the street, which is known as "lover lane," is crowded with pedestrians and the wallet would hardly have escaped detection.

Have you had a sleigh ride yet?
Keep your payments clear of snow.
Yesterday the livery men had a harvest.
Revel meetings continue in the M. E. church.

Everybody appeared to be out sleighing yesterday.

This is political week in town. Turn out your best men for office.

It looked like snow this morning. That big storm may reach us yet.

The voting contest will be lively this week. Clubs are being formed in a number of places. Nice, clean newspapers, for household use or for wrappers, for sale at the HERALD office. "The funeral of Daniel Hughes" daughter took place yesterday. It was largely attended.

It is dangerous to coast on the East Centre and East Lloyd street hills. It should be stopped.

Funeral is getting scarce. The merry sleighs for several days past have "gotten away" with large quantities.

"The Limited Mail."

The most interesting dramatic novelty of the season will be presented at Ferguson's theatre on January 30th, in the production of Elmer E. Vance's famous realistic railroad comedy drama, "The Limited Mail," which is pronounced by competent critics of New York, Chicago and Philadelphia the greatest triumph in stage realism of modern times. Our local critics will be out in full force, and undoubtedly corroborate the verdict.

GET READY FOR WORK.

Suggestions of Importance to the Citizens' Party.

If the members of the Citizens' party come together and agree we can expect vigorous work in the coming spring campaign. Agreeing means to get together, adjust differences and nominate good men. With such a start the party would have a chance to recover some of its lost ground.

Every member of the Citizens' party who is acting in good faith and hopes to bring its success in the coming election must also see that all must pull together and that the candidates must be chosen on their merits and with no reference to nationality. The candidates must enter the field as American citizens, and nothing else, and there must be no "ifs" or "buts" in offering support to the ticket.

And there is another thing. The party should not be threatened or hampered by any jealousies, prejudices, or false notions lining upon a discussion of the water question. That question was sufficiently "nagged and nagged" in the last spring and special elections. This year it is in the courts and the courts should be allowed to settle the matter.

Let by-gones be by-gones and all discussions be wiped out. Discussing in the Citizens' party are only profitable in the ranks of the other party. This is plain to any sensible man.

Will those who claim to wish the Citizens' party success ponder and act? If they will, now is the time to do it.

"THE ADVISORY COUNCIL."

The J. O. U. A. M. Extending Its Influence Throughout the County.

Representatives from the various Councils of the J. O. U. A. M. throughout the county met at Pottsville on Saturday and effected an organization to be known as "The Advisory Council of Schuylkill County." The main object of the organization is to extend the work of the order in this section of the state, and to devise means for the carrying out of its principles in a practical manner.

The meeting was organized with W. J. Jacobs, of Shenandoah, in the chair, and W. J. Neuman, of Harrisburg, secretary. The following permanent officers were then elected: President, C. H. Carl, Mahanoy City; Vice President, S. J. Delbert, Schuylkill Haven; Secretary, Thomas Sanger, Shenandoah; Treasurer, Jacob Jay, Palo Alto. The Executive Board consists of the president, vice president and secretary; the printing committee is composed of one member from each Council represented. Committees on credentials, finance and rules were also appointed.

Maj. Jennings Council, of town, was represented at the meeting by Thomas Sanger, W. H. Detry, David James and W. J. Jacobs.

The next meeting will be held at St. Clair on February 18th, when it is expected favorable reports will be received from all sections of the county.

Meeting Tickets.

The auditors of townships and boroughs should bear in mind that the law requires that the tickets to be used in their districts at the approaching spring election must bear a facsimile of their signatures and this will require a cut of the signatures. The HERALD is prepared to furnish such cuts for $2.50 and will furnish all election printing at equally reasonable rates. Orders should be left early as the date for the distribution of election tickets is close at hand.
