SMITH COULDN'T WIN!

THE DUTCH FAILED TO TAKE ROLLAND.

MUCH DISSATISFACTION EXISTS.

Threats of the Germans Were Unheeded and Now They Declare War—Burns Wins All the Conferences.

HERE is blood on the moon, looking through the glasses of the local Democrats. It was spattered upon the face of the "cheese" during the "scraps" last night in the Fourth and Fifth wards over the nomination of tickets for the election next month.

The German Democrats gave notice several days ago that if the Irish wing did not give them a representation on the Council or School Board at the primaries there would be trouble.

The Irish, apparently, did not become scared by the threat, for last night they knocked the Germans clean off their feet and gave them but two representations—an inspectorship in the Third and Fifth wards.

The method of holding the primaries last night was entirely different to the methods of previous years. The tickets of persons seeking nomination were distributed and the voters deposited them at the poll window, the system being about the same as that which was in force at the regular elections before the Baker ballot law went into effect.

Considerable excitement prevailed at all the polls for the hour and a half and the battles were especially warm in the Second and Fifth wards. In the former the strictest rules were applied and several were challenged for their tax receipts.

In the Fifth ward the Irish and Germans had a bitter fight. The former worked like beavers to elect the chairman who would appoint the conferees for Burns, who sought the nomination of Chief Burgess.

The Germans worked for Schlitzer and Larry Cullen summoned a small force for Smith. The Burns men went far ahead.

Falling in the chairmanship fight in the Fifth the Germans put up candidates for Council and School Board, but they, too, were knocked down and then the German spirit went up to fever heat.

The fights in the First ward centered on the chairmanship and Council. Both were spirited and the Burns people were victorious. The result of the ballot for chairmanship was Edward Keogh, 118; M. F. Fahy, 101.

Keogh appointed Richard Ormsby, Edward McGinness and John Beardon as conferees for Burns, the candidate for Chief Burgess.

The votes received on the nomination for Council were James Kane, 105; Martin Phalen, 67; T. O'Brien, 63. Mr. Kane was declared the nominee. The gentlemanman publicly stated before the polls closed he wanted it distinctly understood that he did not believe in excluding reporters from meetings of the Borough Council and that if elected he would not sanction such methods.

There were no other contests and the following nominations were made by acclamation: Justices of the Peace, J. J. Monaghan and J. J. O'Hearn. Constable, Jerry Toomey. School Director, Patrick Conry. Judge of Election, Edward O'Donnell. Inspector, Martin Lally.

The Second ward Democrats contented themselves with disposing of the chairmanship and again the friends of present Chief Burgess Smith were knocked out by the Burns people. No ward ticket was nominated but that branch of business was left in the hands of a special committee, which will name a ticket after the Citizens' primary is held.

In the Third ward there were three candidates for the chairmanship, John Coyne for Burns; B. G. Hess for Smith and S. G. Acker for Schlitzer. Here again Smith and the Germans received a knock out. Coyne received 71 votes, while Hess and Acker received 31 each.

After the chairmanship was settled there was a heavy falling off of votes until they finally dwindled down to one for each of the two last offices voted upon.

For Justice of the Peace Max Reese received 27 votes and R. G. Hess 10. Both men are nominated, as there are two vacancies.

John A. Reilly was nominated for Council by a vote of 9 and without opposition. Dr. J. S. Kistler was nominated for School Director. Only 9 votes being cast in this case also.

George Noll was nominated for Constable by a vote of two and for Judge and Inspector of Election, respectively, B. G. Hess and Peter Beck were nominated by one vote each.

In the Fourth ward the Burns people won again. There was a hot fight for Council and again the Germans went down. Patrick Kerns, of Turkey Run, made a hot fight for the nomination, but Patrick Gaffigan was too much for him and secured the nomination. The dissatisfaction over this result is so great it is reported that the discontented Germans will have good allies in Kerns' friends at Turkey Run.

Deputy Coroner Thomas Manley was nominated for School Director by acclamation. The Polish people of the ward succeeded in getting a good representation on the ticket. Walter Rynkiewicz was nominated for Justice of the Peace and John Christ for Constable.

The seat of war was in the Fifth ward. This is the German district of the town. For the chairmanship Edward Murphy, for Burns, received 132 votes; George Floppert, for Schlitzer, 54; and Larry Cullen, for Smith, 25.

On the ballot for Council Michael Dougherty won by a vote of 98. James R. McHale received 72 and Joseph J. Knipple 46. The latter was the German candidate.

The Germans again put a candidate. They named John Bryant for School Director, but he only received 50 votes. James Devitt was nominated by 124. John Hughes received 29.

The following nominations were then made by acclamation: Justice, J. J. Cardin. Constable, Thomas Beland. Judge of Election, John Lenahan. Inspector, John V. Dillenschneider.

After this meeting adjourned the Germans gathered in numbers and loudly denounced the victors at the primary. Several surrounded a HERALD and Chronicle reporter and said, "Put it in the paper to-morrow. The Dutch are not in it. After next Friday we'll show them."

The feeling is very bitter and no effort is made to disguise it. In answer to a suggestion that the Germans have frequently made threats, but have always toed the scratch, on election day, a prominent German said, "Not in this case. What we say now we mean."

THE TEACHERS' CONTEST

NEARLY FIFTEEN HUNDRED VOTES POLLED.

Miss Connelly Still Leads, but Miss Burns Has Hounded Over the 500 Mark and is Not Far Behind—Miss Faust Third.

Mary A. Connelly..... 630 Bridges A. Burns..... 504 Carrie Faust..... 391 Mattie Hess..... 353 Mahala Fairchild..... 349 Lillie B. Phillips..... 343 Agnes Stein..... 180 Carrie M. Smith..... 157 Mary A. LaBery..... 140 Frank W. Williams..... 129 Mame E. Wasley..... 121 Anna M. Dangler..... 105 Maggie Caranough..... 77 Ella Clauser..... 75 Irene Shaine..... 70 Clara Cline..... 59 Lizzie M. O'Connell..... 52 James H. Lewis..... 49 Hannah Reese..... 38

The HERALD's teachers' contest has taken a wonderful hold upon the people and the interest in it increases every day. We marvelled on Monday when nearly a thousand votes were turned in, but the surprise that came upon us then was thrown into the shade when we found the votes polled yesterday aggregated 1,320.

Miss Burns made a brilliant run yesterday and received 242 votes. Miss Agnes Stein received 153, Miss Fairchild 153, Miss Smith 120, Frank Williams 108, Miss Faust 105 and Miss Wasley 103.

Miss Connelly, the leader, had a rest and polled only six votes. Her lead over Miss Burns yesterday was 317; to-day it is but 81. Miss Fairchild jumped from eighth to fifth place and Miss Stein has wonderfully improved her position.

The following letter received from Pottsville yesterday will not fail to interest the contestants and their friends:

CONTENT EDITOR:—All the papers sent yesterday evening sold before eight o'clock. Sold 100 to Wildermuth this evening, sure the interest in the contest is increasing. Please announce in your local columns that P. J. Mills, Pottsville's popular hatter and furrier, will present to the lady teacher receiving the second highest number of votes a handsome set of furs, if anybody asks why he gives a set of furs to a lady going to Chicago in July or August answer the question by saying, "Is the lady not going to the windy city?"

A prominent gentleman of town writing to the contest editor says:

"Your contest has aroused more general enthusiasm throughout the entire Shenandoah valley than any journalistic innovation I have ever witnessed and that the interest and enthusiasm will continue to augment, is the sincere wish of

"AN ENTHUSIAST."

CHUPASKA TO FURNISH $1,000 BAIL.

HIS VICTIM IS STILL IN DANGER.

A Polish Miner Badly Crushed. The Injuries May Prove Fatal.

A Chapter of Serious Accidents.

HE stubbing a fra y which took place on West Centre street, Monday night, was the subject of a hearing again before Squire T. T. Williams last night. Although the evidence adduced at the first hearing was quite sufficient to hold the accused, Peter Chupaska, the Justice and others deemed it advisable to hold him for another hearing, and in the meantime an opportunity would be afforded to form a better idea as to the nature of the wound suffered by the defendant with a view to fixing the proper amount of bail.

Dr. Stein appeared at the hearing and said that the victim, Aften Basalage, was suffering considerably from the wound in the back. He said the injury was causing much pain and that it was still dangerous, but he did not fear any immediate fatal result.

After some consultation it was decided to fix the bail at $1,000 and this the accused furnished.

As stated in yesterday's HERALD the quarrel hinged on the affections of a woman. Although the men accompanied each other to the Greek Catholic church to make arrangements for the marriage of one of them, the other harbored a spirit of jealousy and after they got drinking whiskey in the house of a friend the jealousy took flame and the quarrel and stabbing followed.

Political Notes. No boss rule this year. Keep the non-voter out of the primaries. The Citizens' party and Reform goes together.

The primaries will be largely attended Friday night. "Getting together." That is what the Citizens' party is doing.

There will be no room to grumble if you fail to attend the primaries. It has been many years since a better feeling existed in the Citizens' party. Will it hold?

The fourth ward Citizens will nominate a strong ticket if present indications mean anything.

"Uncle" John Cessna, representative from Bedford, has introduced in the State Legislature a resolution proposing amendments to the State Constitution. The measure abolishes spring elections and provides for biennial instead of annual fall elections. It is designed to lessen the cost of elections. It also changes the length of the term of many state, county, borough and township officers, the most important being that of Auditor-General, which is increased from three to four years.

About the Size of It. The pigheadedness of some of the Shenandoah Council is only exceeded by their nerve, which is strong enough to move a mountain. Simply because Editor Watkins saw fit to criticize the unlawful actions of that body he has been declared from attending its meetings. Can it be possible that some of the members have adopted this means of shielding themselves from being exposed to the public in their "shady transactions?" To an uninterested person it looks very much that way.—Shenandoah Dispatch.

Sanguine of Election. Max Reese, the Democratic candidate for Justice of the Peace in the Third ward, feels sanguine of his election next month. The matrimonial season and that for using Dr. Cote's Wild Cherry and Seneca for Coughs and Colds come about the same time.

Thrown From a Sleigh. Edward C. Davies, of North Jardin street, met with a serious accident yesterday. As he was standing in a sleigh and loading ashes at the rear of his residence the horse started. Mr. Davies was thrown off his feet and over the back of the sleigh. He fell heavily to the ground and his left shoulder was dislocated. Mr. Davies will be disabled for several days.

LENGTHY, BUT INTERESTING.

A Communication on Borough Affairs by a Citizen.

EDITOR HERALD:—It seems strange that men of ordinary knowledge should possess so little that, being the most, as to deprive your reporter from making notes at its sessions. What does it really mean? Are they afraid to let their constituents know what actually transpires at their meetings? Must citizens who have a right to know what takes place be required to buttress counselmen on the street to learn what action was had? And that, too, with a knowledge that only such information will be given as suits the purpose of the individual councilman investigated.

As an instance, how many people in town know how much has been expended on the sewer works, for what purpose, by whom paid, and to whom paid? Do all of the councilmen themselves know? Is that knowledge confined to the water committee and its friends? It would be an utter impossibility for all citizens to attend the meetings of Council, and the evening after the meetings of Council the HERALD is eagerly sought to learn the action of Council, or possibly to learn what new device they are up to, or else—oh, horrors!—we are compelled to invest a nickel in the Sunday News and thus be feasted with the wonderful intelligence that Sarah P. Q. of Dark Corner has a wash in Q. P. M., and other like defensible information to prepare our minds for the proper observance of the Sabbath and the worship of G. D. Or worse, still far worse, by Sissy Witt's Pettaville cyclones, which informs us only what the pure, immaculate Archie desires shall be ventilated to us, the common herd.

What person of all in town for a moment believes that the Days' brothers, honest as we believe they are, would quietly sit down and have nothing to say about the action of Council, only that their old pig has been "well greased on the stump?"

What have the Council done for the public good during the past year? They have expended $20,000, or thereabouts, of the borough's money; they have repaired three or four squares fairly well; they have left us a fair-sized ditch from Coal to Cherry streets; they have granted orders to themselves for labor and other purposes, which, by the way, the lawyers say are illegal—I suggest that it would be eminently proper for the borough's auditors to inquire into their legality and if found wrong sue the individuals therewith—they have the poor, despised sewer crabs left alone in all its glory; they have an exceedingly pretty fire alarm, which does not alarm worth a cent, except when it pleases; they have a number of suits for damages on their hands; and lastly, but by no means least, they have three able-bodied attorneys to provide for.

I am a Republican and do not believe in lying down with sin to better become a angel. Not so however with Mr. Lamb. He, with a comfortable Republican majority at his back, recklessly said the map of the wily Democrats under the tutelage and machination of Pompadour Jim No. 2. Was the bargain made made the scheme that was finally carried out?

I have heard it charged and never denied that "de B" was sworn to a certain line of action.

I ought to qualify the above by saying the report is that Mr. Stout was not sworn.

Were they afraid to trust themselves? Is Mr. Stout the only honest man among them?

If it be true that Mr. Stout was not sworn the natural inference is that they all are what each thought of the other.

I see Mr. James is a candidate for reelection as a Citizen of the Third ward. So is Reilly on the Democratic ticket of the same ward.

Is the bargain made to withdraw Reilly in case of James' nomination; and in case of James' defeat is he and Archie to turn in for Reilly? In the latter case, probably either, brother-in-law Jim could continue to write to see how much discounts are to be allowed on purchases, &c.

Oh, we have a glorious Council! The contractor, Mr. Quinn, (Archie did not give Billy this) gives notice that he will have a bill of extra, because iron pipe has advanced $3 per ton and is likely to go higher, and that he expects to shut the pipes along the line instead of delivering by wagon.

Yes, yes; I have marvelled at the severity of the weather and the plentitude of snow, but I was totally ignorant as I am in many other things; that the joint committee and Mr. Quimble the total arrangement and control of that matter. More again.
