Rich and Fay's Dramatic Company

A fair-sized audience witnessed Rich and Fay's Dramatic Company in "Hick'ry Farm' and "Winona, the pride of the Prairie," at Centennial Hall last evening. The company is a strong one and is deserving of encourage ment. There are no drones in it and we fail to see why the company did not engage the Academy of Music and play to popular prices. Many a company has appeared on the boards of the Academy that could not half compete with this company, Their repertoire consists of over a dozen popular town this afternoon, but did not remain long, and moral plays, which the most fastidiou might witness. The company consists of Chas. E. Homer, Geo. W. Murray, Harry Rieb, Kyrle Kennedy, W. D. Crolins, Harry T. Donaghy, Alice Rich and May Wallace To-might will be their last appearance here On Monday evening they will appear at St Clair for one night, after which they will go to Frackville and other towns north of the mountain .- Pottsville Chronicle, Jan. 19th. The above company plays a two-night en gagement at Ferguson's theatre commencing this evening.

BIG EXPRESS LEASE

The United States Express Company ; Gets

a Ten Years Contract. A ton years' lease has been secured by the United States Express Company to do bush ness on the entire Reading and Lehigh Valley Railroad system. During the past three years the United States Company has transacted business over the Reading Railroad by a renewed yearly contract, but now a ten years' lense has been extended, including the Lehigh Valley system which has hitherts been occupied by the Adams Express Compay. The deal, it is stated, not only takes away a large portion of the business of the Adams Express Company, but shuts it out f a number of large towns which can only se reached by the Lehigh Valley road. These was include Allentown, Bethlehem, Easton exanton, Rochester and others of importance

It is also stated that a contract has been atered into by which the United States Com any and the American Express Compan, vill exchange business, such an arrangemen aving existed prior to January 1 between th American and the Adams companies. Within the next ten days the United States Express expects to occupy offices in the Reading. Ter. minal depot at Twelfth and Market streets giving the company largely increased facil
