In order to must the demands of travel that will certainly be made upos upon the Pentsylvania Railroad be Pittsburg and Chicago, the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway is to have a second track. The work will be commenced at once and will, it is conjectured, be completed by the first of March. This is a step that lone sings should have been taken, as the business of the road fully warranted it.

Ir used to be that a majority of the millionaire members of the United State Senate were Republicans, but according to recent reliable matistic the parties are about equally balanced in that particular. The Democrats have fallen into line and are sending their big pursed men to represent them. The pity is that big purses and big statesman are so rarely joined.

THE experience of the pest month has demonstrated beyond all peradventwre that it will not do for John Harleycorn to try conclusions with Jack Front. If the latter is in good trim, as he has been during the whole of 1893 thus far, he will buock John out every time and not half try.
