NEW YORK CITY ELECTIONS. The House Special Committee to Investiguie Makes Report.

WARRENTON, Jan. 27 -- The House special committee, of which Ashbel P. Fitch is chairman, has concluded its report upon the supervision and miminis tration of the Federal election laws in New York city.

The report states that testimony was promptly given by the U.S. Marshal and his assistant, but the Chief Supervisor of Elections refused any obedience to their ARTITUDES.

The committee expresses the opinion "that all of the Federal Election laws have entirely failed to produce any good results in the direction of purity of dee tions, and have been productive of such serious and damp-roos results that they ought at once to be repealed."
