Coupons must be in the hands of the editor within ten (10) days after the date it bears.

ELECTRIC ECHOES
Ashland Expects to be Connected With Girardville Soon.

Traction Company must pass before the line between Ashland and Girardville will be opened to traffic are arriving, and it is expected that all will be on hand within the next several days. They will be put down as speedily as possible, under the direction of the leading's foreman of construction.
The rails have been laid across the bridge at Big Mine Run, and it is now ready for the cars.
Three new cars for this division are on the way, and are expected to arrive at any time.
Six trail cars for the use of workmen arrived on Thursday and will be used on the Gilberton and Shenandoah branches.
President Bailey said last Thursday that every possible effort will be made to have the line opened between Ashland and the power house within the next ten days.
The Local Dale branch is being hurried with all speed, and is almost ready for traffic.

Another Veteran Gone.
John M. Price, of No. 4, a veteran of the late war and a member of Watkin Watons Post, No. 146, Grand Army of the Republic, died at his late residence last night, after a prolonged illness. Mr. Price was well known throughout this county and for many years prior to his illness was an employe of the Philadelphia and Lehigh Valley Coal Company. Mr. Price was highly respected and there are many friends to condole with the afflicted family. A special meeting of Post 146 will be held this evening at the Schuylkill House, to make arrangements for the funeral, which will take place on Tuesday next.

The name of N. H. Downs' still lives, although he has been dead many years. His fillar for the cure of coughs and colds has already outlived him a quarter of a century and is still growing in favor with the public.
New York Herald, July 13.
The small boy who, when asked his age, replied that, judged by the fan he had had, he was 100 years old, pretty accurately described the feeling of the large audience at the Academy last night. Lillian Kennedy made a decided hit, and the amusement that was crowded into three hours to unravel "She Couldn't Marry Three" was enough for two nights; and all the rules essayed by Miss Kennedy and the strong support, was equally charming and successful. The company is far above the average, and is sure of big business.

"That is a remarkably quiet child of yours." "Yes, indeed," said the fond mother, "the dear little angel's cough is much better."
We used Dr. Cox's Wild Cherry and Seneka.
