AN ELECTRIC DECISION

An important decision was rendered by the Supreme Court on Monday last in regard to electric cars. Last April in Pitfsburg a driver named Winter drew up his team in front of a husiness house to unload a sufe. His horses were on a track on which electric cars ran on a descending grade. A car cause down the grade, the gripman was unable to stop, his car in time and the team was injured. Winter such the railway company and recovered a ver dict. The Supreme Court reversed the judgment.

Judge McCollum says: "In the presence of these conditions his action in obstructing the road was negligent and reckless. It was not only an un Justifiable Interference with public travel, and an inexcurable exposure of his own and the company's property to injury and parhaps to destruction, but it imperilled the lives and limbs of the company's employes and passettigers."

The Justice thereupon lays down the following rates for people whomay there against his lace. Then, being apparently dead, kerosen cupied by such raiwsy fines. Panna; Tex., Feb. 2.-Henry Smith; 11 negro who assaulted and caused the deat or 4-year old Myrtle Vanse, has explain his awful crime by death as the stake When the news came that he had been aptured, and that he had been identified by B. B. Sturgis, James T. Bicks, and many others of the Paris searching party the city was wild with joy.

The arrival of the guard having in custody the rape fiend, was awaited by thousands. The country roads wer slive with people in with wagons and on horseback, and at noon, when the Texas-& Pacific train from the North arrived, it is estimated that the crowd surrounding the depot numbered nearly 20,000 people

When the train arrived a rush wa-made for the coach in which the negro was confined. The deputy sheriffs and the guard of Paris citizens who accoupanied the neuro from Texarkana, drew their revolvers and attempted to prevent he mob from taking their prisoner. The guard was quickly overpowered, however, and a rope was thrown about Smith's neck. He was drugged from the train and hurried to the scene of his
