RAILROAD RUMOR.

A Report That President McLood is Afthe the Old Colony.

A special from Boston, Mass, states that the sir is full of rumors regarding the Ok Colony, the New York, New Haven and Hartford, and the Boston and Maine roads The actual situation is that the Reading Roston and Maine-New-York and New England combination is in vigorous con petition with the New York, New Haver and Hartford Railroad Company for the presession of the entire Old Colony system The former line is competing with the Nev York, New Haven and Hartford for through seeight, and it has the Consolidated rose blocked as long as it can prevent it from securing a permanent and independent entry into Boston, which the Old Colony world

The Boston and Maims is now in the field us a bidder for the entire Old Colony system as against the Consolidated. The Old Colon; has given its ultimatum. It will sell nothing less than its whole system. A controlling interest may be bought at $250 a share, and that is the reason why the Old Colony stool has gone up so in the last month. If the Heading combination secures the Old Color; it will effectually block the New Haven road in any further attempt to obtain an inlet inv

It is stated on good authority that in the last few weeks the entire amount of New Work, New Haven and Hartford stock held by Harvard College has been quietly dis pered of. The college trustees, it is said, do not favor the large expenditures and presen policy of the management.
