

FORTY-FOUR PAUPERS BURNED ALIVE

Awful Holocaust in a County Asylum Near Dover, N. H., Last Night.

ONLY FOUR OF THE INMATES GOT OUT UNHURT.

The fire discovered in a cell by the watchman—He and the keeper break the locks and try to arouse the sleeping occupants, who were frightened that they had lost their lives—The wooden building burned like tinder—List of the Dead.

Dover, N. H., Feb. 10.—The County Insane Asylum, four miles from here, was burned last night and 44 lives were lost.

When watchman William Chevey made his 10 o'clock trip into the insane asylum he found the fire coming out of the cell occupied by A. Infamitan, a woman, and gave the alarm.

William Driscoll, the keeper, with his family, lived in the building and he at once broke the locks of the 54 cells and tried to get the inmates out.

Then he got his wife and two children, and they were dressed.

Of the 48 inmates only four escaped.

They were William Twombly, Ross Anderson, William Davey and Frank S. Gushon.

The latter walked two miles in the blinding snow storm with only his shirt on, to William Horne's house, where he was taken care of.

Those who were burned are:

- Robert Dion, Salmon Falls, N. H.
- Mary Fountain, Great Falls.
- Frank Nutter, Rochester.
- William Chesley, Durham.
- Mrs. Roberts, Great Falls, and her 8-year-old child.
- Lester Jones, Farmington.

- Sarah McCluskey, Great Falls.
- Fanny Stanley, Great Falls.
- Ann McDermott, Dover.
- Addie Otis, Great Falls.

Six others whose names cannot be remembered by the keeper and his books were burned in the yard, but were unharmed.

The building was of wood, 125 by 85 feet, two stories high, with a big yard on each side. It was built 20 years ago, and had 60 cells. It cost $15,000.

The main building, in which were over 100 of the county poor, caught fire, but was saved by the heroic efforts of the inmates, who carried pails of water and extinguished the flames, although many were burned in so doing.

The Dover fire department was summoned, but owing to the darkness, the building snowstorm, and the icy roads, it took 20 minutes for the department to get there, too late to be of service.

The remaining ruins show the charred bottom still lying on their beds.

How the building caught fire is a mystery.

New Jersey Ice Yacht Race.

RED BANK, N. J., Feb. 10.—The North Shore Yacht Club held three races yesterday afternoon for challenge pennants for first, second, and third class yachts. The wind blew a steady north-west gale, and good time was made.

Many members absented themselves to avoid voting.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

No Probability Now of Silver Legislation in the Present Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—It was silver day in the House and the friends of silver were victorious in the fight. They were victorious by a majority of nine.

They sustained the demand for the previous question on the resolution setting apart yesterday and to-day for the consideration of the bill repealing the Sherman act.

But not the previous question been ordered, a cloture amendment would have been sprung upon the House and the struggle would then have been continued.

But when it was ordered the advocates of the repeal bill gracefully passed under the yoke and allowed the resolution to be recommitment without making any strong objection.

This action, in the opinion of members, sounds the death knell of any silver legislation in the present Congress.

The remainder of the day was devoted to the consideration of the Legislative Appropriation bill, which was finally passed.

The whole of the session of the Senate, after the morning hour, was devoted to a discussion of the Railroad Automatic Car Coupler bill.

KILLED IN A SALOON.

A New Hampshire Man Shot by His Companion.

Dover, N. H., Feb. 10.—Another cold blooded ruin shot murder occurred last night at 200 South Main, four miles from here and W. Adolphus Levi is under arrest charged with killing Hiram Philpot.

Frank Cole of this city, one of two men held as witnesses, says: "Frank Libbey, Hiram Philpot and myself went to Southworth yesterday morning. Philpot wanted to buy the Sherman house, owned by W. A. Levi."

"At 6 o'clock all three of us went to the Sherman house. I ordered supper for the party and while the girl was cooking it, Philpot began talking to her. Levi told him to stop, whereupon Philpot went up to the bar, when Levi, reaching back, took up a 32-caliber revolver and fired once. Philpot never spoke. He lived just eight minutes."

Levi, when arrested, admitted having shot Philpot. It is understood that there has been bad feeling between them for over a year past.

THE QUEENSLAND DISASTER.

Flood subsided—Danger from the Stench—Looting Going On.

Brisbane, Feb. 10.—The flood has receded from most city districts, which are now covered with mud and slime. The stench is horrible, and unless the city is cleaned within a few days, will undoubtedly cause an epidemic.

The gunboat Paluma was left in shoal water by the sudden receding of the flood and now rests high and dry in the Bonanville Garden on the bank of the river.

Special constables have been sworn in to prevent looting.

Great military parades in the poorer parts of the city, and the number of cases of theft and robbery have doubled within the last two days.

The total damage by the flood is estimated to approximate $15,000,000.
