secretary Foster Receives Another Despatch from Our Minister at Monotolin-The Latter Had Received No Instructions from the State Department Except to Protect Life and Property-Envoys of the Queen En Route to Washington to Protest.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10,-Nuvy people who are usually very quick to get at the true significance of diplomatic events, nave no trouble in interpreting Minister tevens' motive in establishing a United states protecturate over Hawait

They are fully convinced that he had the best of reasons for believing that uness prompt measures were taken the English Minister, upon the arrival of the British cruiser Garnet, which left the South Pacific coast the latter part of Jannary for Honolulu, would have the British flag flying over the island. It was to circumvent such a movement on the part of the British Minister, rather than a necessity for additional moral support to the provisional government, naval officials believe, that promoted the naval officials believe, that promoted the decisive action of Minister Stevens. These are the ulterior reasons. The official reasons—tiffnt is, those for publication—will be, as explained in Minister Stevens' proclamation, for the protection of life and property. Mr. Stevens will no doubt explain privately, and his explanations will be hald before the House and Senate Foreign Commit-ters in due time, but there his report tees in due time, but there his report must rest.

It would not do to state publicly on the floor of the House or Senate that the American flag had been holesed over the Island because our Minister had received ecret information that unless he was secret information that unless he was quick about it the English flag would be floating instead. It is in consequence of this practice of holding back the ulterior motives which promotes diplomatic deals that haval officials are now afraid that the new aspect of affairs at Honolulu will operate to defeat the annexation scheme.

Less Hopeful of Annexation.

As far as the pulse of the administra-tion can be felt at the present writing the new developments at Honolulu will not change the views of the administra-tion on the question of annexation. It is still believed that the President will continue to negotiste with the Commis-sioners on that line, and will send a message to Congress favoring annexation. Less confidence, however, appears to be felt in administration circles that Congress will favor annexation. The commissioners also appear to be less hopeful of prompt action in this line. In view of the new tidings from Hono-luin, it is probable that the deferred or-ders for the Adams and the Ranger to proceed to Fonolulu will soon be issued. Late hast night, Secretary of State Foster received the following daspatch from Minister Steven

SECRETARY OF STATE:

Provisional government of Hawali gaining power and respect. Everything is quiet. Annexation sentiment is in-creasing. Dead monarchy and opposition creasing. Dean monarchy and opposition to sunexation is supported chiefly by lottery and opium ring. To-day at 9 a. m., in accostance with the request of provisional government of Hawaii, I have pianed government of Hawaii under the United States protection during nagotia-tions not interfering with the execution of motion of the protection of the states of the states of motion of the states of the states

In fact, the movement for the change of overnment was unexpected, and had not cen anticipated by instructions from Washington. Mr. Stevens had, therefore, been compelied to act independently and upon his best judgment as the energencies had arisen. The only instruction given by the department was the telegram of the 28th ultimo, already published, a proving Mr. Steven's recognition of the provisional government, an act on its peri which had been followed by all the scher representa-tives in Honolulu. He had been further instructed to pro-Secretary Foster said that American clizens were the owners of at least three-fourths of the entire real and personal property of the islands, and they were more interested than all other residents in the preservation of peace and good government

"I do solemnly swear in the presence of Almighty God that I will support the Provisional Government of Hawajian Islands, pronulgated and proclaimed on the 17th day of January, 1806; not here-by renouncing, but expressly reserving, all allegiance to any foreign country now owing by me."

owing by me." All the judges and a number of other officials were suppowered to administer this oath and it was taken by hundreds the first day it was available. Another acceptobilits the importation of fire arms or explosives of any character ex-cept by the flowerment.

Other than the flag raising on the first instant, Housdulu seems to have been without sensational occurrence since the Provisional Government was established. Some attempt was made to secure a sus-pension of martial law, but the council only complied to the extent of lengthen-ing the dark hours during which it was not permissible to be abroad without a

Mr. Neuman was not inclined to be communicative. He said that, owing to his mission, he must reserve his remarks
