THIRD EDITION

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Bookings of Plays to be Produced at Ferguson's Theatre.

Amazey, the clown in "Kajanka," is a wonder. The spectacle is check full of mechanical tricks, and they are all new, none ever having been seen before in this country, not an old trick in the show. "Kajanka" will play a return engagement at Ferguson's theatre on Monday and Tuesday evenings, February 12th and 13th.

"HANDS ACROSS THE SEA."
"Hands Across the Sea" is well staged at the Haymarket, but it proves to belong to the English melodrama order. The hero is accused of murder, and a French man-of-war and an English steamship dispute his possession on the open sea. After the action has been cut up and divided among several continents, matters are brought to a happy conclusion in Australia. "Hands Across the Sea" pleases the public.—Chicago Tribune, At Ferguson's theatre on Wednesday evening, February 13th.

"FORGIVEN."
"Forgiven" is a beautifully-told dramatic story of the heart, full of humanity, pathos and fun, and Mr. Bryton's John Diamond is among the finest characterizations of the day.—New York News, At Ferguson's theatre on Friday evening, February 12th.

Superior goods at 25 per cent. lower than elsewhere at Holderman's jewelry store.

A Line or Two.
Kirmess. Politics are red hot in Tamagus. It was rumored in town that C. D. Kaler had died suddenly in Florida. The news has not been corroborated. The new county movement is not worrying our people. They are content whichever way it goes. The Judgeship question is now debatable. Hen fruits still roasts high—in price. Next Tuesday is doughnut day. Cattle are in fast ascending lard as an article in cooking. It is much cleaner and healthier.

THE THEATRE.

Notes on the Present and Coming Attractions.

The Niobe Burlesque Company appeared at Ferguson's theatre last evening before a good sized audience. The company was heralded as a sort of "Frenchy" organization, but the entertainment proved a first class vaudeville affair which any one may attend without fear of offense. There are several very clever specialists in the company and they all received favorable recognition from the audience. Sparks and Hatt gave a very pleasing and interesting musical interlude and their zesty drill was heartily applauded. Charles T. Aldrick gave a unique entertainment. His impersonations of public men, lightning changes and rapid painting were warmly applauded. The Niobe convulsed the audience with laughter while doing their knock-about act. As the company has an open date on hand it has decided to appear at Ferguson's again to-night. On Monday and Tuesday evening, next, the wonderful spectacular production, "Kajanka," will be presented at the theatre. This is a return engagement. On Tuesday evening the management will present each lady holding a paid reserved seat ticket with a souvenir in the shape of a handsome valentine.

Opening of

Ladies' and Children's Muslin Underwear.

February 11 February 13

GRAND OPENING of Ladies' and Children's Muslin Underwear Saturday, February 11, and Monday, February 13.

One of the largest and most carefully selected we have ever had.

There is no economy in any lady using her time, strength and money in making underwear, when it can be bought for less than the cost of making in many cases. If you are not convinced of this make a thorough examination of any garment here—look at the muslin, quality of work and finish. Then see if you cannot find nine good reasons for buying ready-made to one good reason for making it yourself. Think of no cutting out, no fitting, no machine work, which often means backache, that terrible enemy to all women. Think of all these, then think of the bright side.

Buy them Ready-made.

The old-fashioned idea that muslin underwear must be made at home to be right is now a thing of the past. All progressive people know this to be a mistake. Keep pace with the age. Be one of the first to grasp a good idea. Take our advice—BUY.

To every purchaser of Muslin Underwear will be given a book, entitled "A Life on the Ocean Wave" and "Bible Stepping Stones." Not a book for every piece, but one book for Underwear—from one piece up to an indefinite number. These poems will be found fully worth the price of a piece of Underwear; but for that day only will be given away. Come and get one, as they will be a pleasing souvenir of our Opening.
