What Miss Agnes Herndon is Like. She's very pretty, in fact, one of the handsomest actresses on the stage to-day. Young T. Well, just about right. A long ways under 20. Her hair? Not blonde, nor brunette, neither is it red, but one of those delightful Titian tints that poets write about and lovers rave about. Voice? Well, you can't describe that correctly. It is as clear and musical as a silver bell, with every accentuation perfect and of rare strength and purity. Her figure? Perfect! That embodies everything. It is matchless. And such a smile, so full of winsome sweetness and cynicism, and the next instant changing to sunny coquetry, that the poor devil of a man who once falls beneath the seductive glances of her eyes is hopelessly irrevocably lost unless he possesses more than the average strength of common men. How's her dress? All made in Paris, by Felix A. Worth; cost heaps of money, and the equals of any costumes ever worn on the stage by any actress. And such taste as has been shown in their selection surpasses all belief. The ladies go into ecstasy over them and envy the fair owner of the possession of such costly gowns, while the men shrug their shoulders and grab their pocket-books tightly, and silently think how his finances would be shattered if he had to provide his spouse with such a costly outfit. I know you are going to play "La Belle Marie." You'll go the second time if you get a chance, for it will be many a day before you get such an actress here again. How's Miss Herndon doing on the road? Playing to big audiences everywhere. We don't know what her business is, and she draws the best and cultured audiences of the season. Wait until she comes here and see if I'm not right. So spoke the suave and energetic business manager for Miss Agnes Herndon, in a recent conversation concerning the appearance of this great actress at Ferguson's theatre on March the 21st.

THE THEATRE.

References to Ferguson Theatre Coming Attractions.

"Kajanka" presents a novelty in a female quartette, four bright and beautiful young English girls, have just been brought from London by the Miller Brothers and will be an entirely new feature with the great production in their engagement in this city. "Kajanka" will appear at Ferguson's theatre for two nights commencing this evening.

"HANDS ACROSS THE SEA." "Hands Across the Sea" is an effective melodrama, fashioned to conventional lines, and embodying most of the well known expedients and features of a class of plays that have their periods of popularity and their years of disuse, but with which the public is never entirely done. It is having large and enthusiastic patronage at the Haymarket, where it is well acted and handsomely produced. New York Telegram. At Ferguson's theatre on Wednesday evening, February 10th.

"FORGIVEN."

The play presents an interesting story, which is cleverly told and dramatically effective. It was received with uncommon enthusiasm, and is likely to become deservedly popular. No lover of fine acting can afford to miss witnessing Mr. Bryton's performance.—Bradley Eagle. At Ferguson's theatre, Friday evening, February 17th.

PERSONAL.

Miss Gussie Fricke, of Port Carbon, is visiting relatives in town.

G. A. Campbell, of New York, Verifier for the Sliger Manufacturing Co., is in town.

Henry Millet, the hunting manager of Swift Meat Market of Lonaqua, was in town yesterday.

Dr. Cullen, who was reported ill last week, is about again attending to his large and increasing practice.

Miss Clara and Emily Powers, of Pottsville, were the guests of Miss Nellie Finney for several days past.

"Pop" Schaffly, who recently met with a serious accident, was out yesterday. He is still feeling very sore from his fall.

C. E. Titman, of Williamsport, is in town. He will shortly return to Shenandoah to live having purchased the Shaffroy property on West Cherry street.

Letter Carrier Kohler has a new assistant. It arrived yesterday. Mrs. Kohler and the boy are doing well. "Only one this time," says "Joe," with the regulation smile.

Charles Graeber, who expects to be Postmaster of Ashland, and Joseph Smith, also of Ashland, and who is seeking the Democratic nomination for County Commissioner, were in town yesterday in tow of School Director Muldoon.

Mrs. Jones, of Carson City, Nevada, will leave for that place on Wednesday, accompanied by her father, Mr. Weyburn, who has been a resident of Turkey Run for a number of years. Mr. Weyburn has disposed of his property here and intends remaining in the west.

USE DANA'S SASSAPARILLA, IT'S "THE KIND THAT CURES."

Setting on the Citizens. The following letter, signed by a responsible gentleman, was handed to the HERALD for publication to-day:

I HEREBY HERALD:—Please state in your paper that there is $25 at the Ferguson Hotel as a deposit for one hundred dollars as a bet on the Citizens' ticket of your borough. That is to say, I will bet $25 on each candidate on the Citizens' ticket that they will elect more on their ticket than the Democrats will on theirs. Mr. McKee Doyle, please put up or shut up. The gentleman has requested that his name be withheld from publication.

"I always felt a cold was it comes"—one says; which means that he overworks the system in getting rid of a cold rather than get it by using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Resolutions of Regret.

The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted at a regular meeting of Watkin Waters Post No. 146, G. A. R., held on Friday evening, February 10, 1893.

WHEREAS, It has pleased an all-wise Providence to remove from our midst after a lingering illness, our late comrade, John M. Price, and

WHEREAS, This visitation has bereft us of one of our most efficient workers and devoted comrade, whose loss we sorely feel. Therefore be it Resolved, That we bow in humble submission to the gracious will of He who is the Supreme Commander of all armies. Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved family our sincere sympathy and condolence in their sad bereavement. Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning for the space of thirty days and that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the T. W. notes and a certified copy be sent to the Family of the deceased, and that they be published in the EVENING HERALD.

C. T. GIBSON, LAWRENCE MANGUM, JOHN D. LEWIS.

Injured in the West.

Information has just been received here of a serious accident to James Glover, who left this country some time ago and located at Butte City, Montana. The accident occurred near Butte last week. Mr. Glover was walking on a railroad and did not observe a train until it was close behind him. In the excitement he jumped from the track and fell thirty feet down a steep embankment. Both his legs were broken by the fall. The victim is a brother of Robert A. Glover, of South Jardin street.

It Cures Colds, Coughs, Hoarse Throat, Croup, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stages, and a sure relief in advanced stages. Use at once. ### CONDITIONS:

The two teachers who receive the greatest number of total votes up to the closing hour above stated will be declared the winners. All coupons must be cut out of the EVENING HERALD and sent, securely sealed in envelopes, addressed to "Contest Editor, Evening Herald, Shenandoah, Pa." Any person residing in any place may vote as often as he or she may desire for one or more current school terms; provided, that any teacher who may have been incapacitated by sickness or accident for teaching for a period of not more than three months prior to the end of the term, may also compete. Each vote for each teacher must be represented by a separate coupon. A coupon bearing the name of more than one teacher or specifying more than one vote for a teacher will be thrown out as void. A carefully sealed will be kept of the names of all contestants, and all coupons will be filed and kept safe until the final adjudication. Three prominent and responsible men of Shenandoah will be selected to act as judges, make the final count, and announce the names of the two winners. Should three or more teachers be tied on the highest number of votes, the judges will be allowed to decide. The names of the winners will be announced on or before Saturday, July 15, 1893. Should the winners be absent from Shenandoah at the time they will be informed of their good fortune by telegraph, so that they may start on the trip as soon thereafter as possible. All blanks in the coupon must be filled out, especially the blank requiring the name of the person voting. The number of votes received at this office up to 4 p. m. each day will be published in the next issue of the HERALD with the names of the teachers voted for.

Opening of

Ladies' and Children's

Muslin Underwear.

February 11 February 13

GRAND OPENING of Ladies' and Children's Muslin Underwear Saturday, February 11, and Monday, February 13. One of the largest and most carefully selected we have ever had.

There is no economy in any lady using her time, strength and money in making underwear, when it can be bought for less than the cost of making in many cases. If you are not convinced of this make a thorough examination of any garment here—look at the muslin, quality of work and finish. Then see if you cannot find nine good reasons for buying ready-made to one good reason for making it yourself. Think of no cutting out, no fitting, no machine work, which often means headache, that terrible enemy to all women. Think of all these, then think of the bright side.

Buy them Ready-made.

The old-fashioned idea that muslin underwear must be made at home to be right is now a thing of the past. All progressive people know this to be a mistake. Keep pace with the age. Be one of the first to grasp a good idea. Take our advice—BUY.

To every purchaser of Muslin Underwear will be given a book, entitled "A Life on the Ocean Wave" and "Bible Stepping Stones." Not a book for every piece, but one book for Underwear—from one piece up to an indefinite number. These poems will be found fully worth the price of a piece of Underwear; but for that day only will be given away. Come and get one, as they will be a pleasing souvenir of our Opening.
