THE EDITORS' MAIL.

The following verses intended for St. Valentine's day were held too long by the author, but as they are quite spicy we have concluded to give them publicity:

Finney, here's your valentine,
And when you take Council chair,
Just dust it off and squat right down,
Then let 'er go Ganager!

Archie Lamb you're "La Grand Francis,"
And arrogance is your fame,
But justice, like your valentine,
Must get there all the same.

"Jim" Scheffly looks a dandy,
In his saloon so fine,
Where did he get that hat?
Ask St. Valentine.

Shenandoah, my valentine!
Do not with fashion flirt,
Or you'll be trampled with ermine
In the bird-sage skirt.

It's gold, joint committee, you do really want,
Now get right out of the mine,
And now you are asking the court
To make it your valentine.

The poor street committee
Has good cause to cry,
For instead of dainty plum
There's mud in his pie.

A certain well-known citizen
On his valentine may gleam,
For a water purveyor the price
Of his one little vein.

A "Grand Old Man" you care for true,
Watson "Johnnie"!
Hurray for you and Weidman, too!
The citizens say "Whoopee!"

Political Points.

For Chief Burgess—John Watson.
The new Baker law will apply to the February election, and all persons can now vote in secret, as there is nothing to indicate to the inquisitive election officer as how any person voted. The number of the ballot is covered up, hence, the old system of referring to certain numbers is abolished.

For Receiver of Taxes—Samuel Weidman.
Each day adds brighter hopes for the success of the Citizens' borough ticket.

The man who is so degrading as to bring religion into a borough campaign is a fit subject for a monarchical government. (et tunc hence, Messrs. Doyle!

Judges of election cannot make their returns this year on the day following election, as this happens to be Washington's Birthday, a legal holiday, when all court house offices will be closed. Returns need therefore not be made until Thursday, the 23d, and the proper officials should bear this in mind.

For High Constable—Robert Siddall.
Elect men to Council who will administer the duties of that office to the best interest of the borough, irrespective of party ties or personal favor.

Fifty lads should not be drawn in municipal elections, especially in the selection of Councilmen, where party questions are never considered.

With good Councilmen will result good borough government.

Beck and his friends will vote on the Democratic ticket this year with a vengeance—vote to knock it higher than a kite.

For Borough Auditor—Thomas Sanger.
And Acker's friends will vote on the Democratic ticket this year, too—vote to knock it to pieces with a German Democratic club.

Vote the Citizens' borough ticket, from top to bottom.

In Samuel Weidman the citizens will have an efficient Tax Receiver, who will administer the duties of that office without fear or favor.

The large number of Democratic votes that will be polled for Sanger, Citizens' candidate for Auditor, will make his opponent wish he had never entered the race.

Not having sought the office, Watson will be elected Chief Burgess by a handsome majority. The people will see to that.

The Citizens' party will present a solid front this time without internal dissensions.

Every good citizen, whether Democrat or Republican, who honestly desires municipal reform, will vote the Citizens' borough ticket at the approaching election. No better officials could be selected for their respective positions.

"Hands Across the Sea"

A fair audience greeted the above named play at Ferguson's theatre last evening. The entire company is composed of capable and painstaking artists, who acted as though they were really the persons represented. At the conclusion of the third and fourth acts the company was called before the curtain by the audience. It is not often that two really first class shows appear the same week in town as the size of Shenandoah, but to-morrow night one of the best companies on the road in one of the best plays ever written will occupy the boards at Ferguson's theatre, namely, Frederic Bryton, in "Forgiven."

The writer has had the pleasure of seeing Mr. Bryton in this play and can vouch for it. Those who attend will never regret it, as it is extremely improbable that Mr. Bryton will get here again.

Coming Events.

Feb. 22.—Martha Washington Birthday party, in Robbins' opera house, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. church.

Bill to Amend New York Factory Law.

ALBANY, Feb. 16.—Senator Russell has introduced a bill amending the law regulating the employment of women and children by providing that twenty minutes shall be given for supper when such employees are required to work more than an hour over time; that all goods made in tenements or dwelling houses shall be branded "Tenement made"; that the number of factory inspectors shall be increased from 16 to 24; and that employers shall keep an account of material furnished employees.
