Bellicose preparations were carried or briskly by both sides all day yesterday. but the Governor, by affering to compr mise the difficulties which are grephy the two houses apart, tapered the crisi off into a very lause-armed truce.

The proposition for a compromise wa offered to the B publican house at 2 p mi, by the Governor's private secretary Bon & loss who stated that the Govern proposed is an a last resort to avert blood

If the Republican House declined to as cept, it, then the Governor would be forced to drive the Republicane out of th House at the point of the bayonst, an he added, " their blood been your heads-This threat has been made so often that the Republicans received it with year They received the proposition, however, and it at once became the subject of enroest consideration. After debuting t for times hours the Republicant final amended it to shit their own blens an returned it to the Governor, the commit tee charged with that duty helicy in strated to inform the Gavernor that the blood of hubbert men shidt by remote of his refusal to accept the amendments would be on his head.

The committee had been out but a few moments when if returned and am nounced that it had performed its duty, that the Governor desired time to comsider the amended proposition and would give the committee his answer to-day He proposed that in the monitime a armed truce should be established an neither side should make any hostil move before noon; that the Republican anould be allower to come and go as they pleased. This struck the Republicans favorably and they agreed to it withingly. The whole City of Topeka, on its case, appears to be under martial law. The capitol on all sides is surrounded with soldiers and citizens. At every apwith somers and emidding a pickets like is maintained. No one is allowed invide without a pers signed by the Governor and countersigned by the Adjutant-Gen-
