THE THEATRE

References to Ferguson Theatre Coming Attractions.
Frederick Bryton in "Forgiven" last night was greeted by a middle-sized audience which fact was too bad, as every seat deserved to be taken. He is a very fine actor and was supported by a powerful company in a clever melodrama, which it is to be trusted will again be presented in this city, when it is almost certain a great audience will be in the open house. Shamokin Dispatch. At Ferguson's theatre this evening.

"LITTLE NUGGET"

Canton, O., Jan. 5, 1892.
"Little Nugget" Comedy Co., with Herbert Cawthron as principal comedian, played my house this season and gave entire satisfaction. Cawthron is very funny and plays as everybody.

M. C. BARBER, Manager.

"Little Nugget" will appear at the theatre on Wednesday, February 22d.

"SHADOW DETECTIVE"

Manager-actor Kelly appeared at his front street theatre and the crowd gave him a loud reception and showed his appreciation of his ability as a character artist. In "Shadow Detective" he appears in four roles and the play is of just the class that catches a front street audience. The house was packed. Baltimore News. At Ferguson's theatre on Thursday evening, February 22d.

"Always let a cold go as it comes"—on says that means that he overworks the system in getting rid of a cold faster than usual. It is going to be the best cough syrup.

A Party.

A party was held last evening at the residence of Mrs. Mary Mader, 128 East Centre street, in honor of that lady's 41st anniversary. The evening was spent very pleasantly and the following guests participated in the pastimes, which consisted of games and musical and literary exercises: Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Boughey, Mr. and Mrs. John Bunn, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hinks, Mrs. James Hutton, Mrs. Thomas R. James, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Growest, Mrs. William Remley, Mrs. Samuel Harbach, Mrs. William Delcamp, Mr. Carmel, Mrs. William Bainbridge, Mrs. John Bider, Mr. and Mrs. William Epton, Mr. and Mrs. George Holver, Mrs. William Ecker, Mrs. Gassie Hildebrandt, Mrs. Edward Spear, Mrs. John Brennan, Misses Mary and Beesie Entwistle, of Mahanoy City; Miss Hannah Boughey, and Messrs. John Weeks, Sanford Evans, D. O. Pritchard, Elmer Haupt, Harry Entwistle, Mahanoy City; Edward Boughey and Charles Boughey.

Coughing Leads to Consumption.

Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

Fire Alarm Bells.

The following list shows the location of the alarm boxes of the Shenandoah Fire Department:

LOCATION.

- 15—Coal and Hovers streets.
- 16—Hovers and Centre streets.
- 17—Bridge and Centre streets.
- 18—Main and Centre streets.
- 19—Main and Hovers streets.
- 20—Main and Coal streets.
- 21—Colbert and Centre streets.
- 22—Colbert and Cherry streets.
- 23—Chestnut and Coal streets.

To send an alarm upon the box, pull down the hook once and let go. When an alarm is sent in the fire bell will sound the number of the box and repeat the alarm four times.

HOW TO LOCATE ALARMS.

If the alarm is sounded from box 15 the fire bell will strike one, then pause and strike five which will indicate that the fire is in the vicinity of No. 15 box. Every alarm is repeated four times.

HE CAME TO FIGHT.

Fugitive Mitchell, who Arrived Yesterday, Will Cover Corbett's Money.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Mitchell, the English pugilist, who arrived yesterday on the Majestic, has been having a pretty hard time of it so far.

At first he was prevented from landing by the Custom House authorities on the ground that he was an ex-convict and came under the law prohibiting such people from living in this country. He was released late in the afternoon on a writ of habeas corpus.

Finally when he and his crowd applied for rooms at the Hotel Brunswick and were refused, his arrior was somewhat quizzed. He is now occupying the most of the fourth floor in the Madison House.

Mitchell says he is not hitting this time and that he is going to fight Corbett first. He informed a reporter this morning that he would get his money changed to-day and as soon as possible cover Corbett's $10,000.

WESTERN SENATORIAL SITUATIONS.

No Choice in Any of the States—Near the End in North Dakota.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 17.—Sixty ballots have been cast without any change for United States Senator.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Feb. 17.—Two more ballots have been taken for United States Senator with no choice. The only feature was the entrance of a new candidate, R. H. Homer of Laramie.

HELENA, Mont., Feb. 17.—Every member of the Legislature was present and voting at the joint session for the first time since the opening day. Mantle's vote was the largest since he has been a candidate but he faced six of a majority over all. The vote stood: Mantle, 30; Clark, 25; Dixon, 12; Couch, 2; Carter, 1; Hunt, 1.

BISMARCK, N. D., Feb. 17.—Three ballots were taken yesterday by the Legislature, making 43 so far, but there was no election. H. F. Miller, however, made a considerable gain.

Cholera and Typhoid Fever in Turkey.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Spiridon Zavitzi, United States representative on the International Sanitary commission at Constantinople, in a despatch to the State Department, says that the cholera news from Yemen is bad, and that the Turkish authorities seek to suppress it. A decrease in the number of cases in the Black Sea region is reported. Typhoid fever prevails to an unusual extent in Constantinople. The city is represented as being very dirty.

New England Street Railway Trust.

BOSTON, Feb. 17.—The horse railways of Boston, New Haven, Providence, Springfield and other cities in New England have been consolidated in one company under the name of the New England Street Railway company. The certificate of incorporation which has been filed in New Jersey provides for a capital of $5,000,000, which may be increased to $5,000,000.

The President Didn't Shoot a Duck.

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 17.—President Harrison spent yesterday at the Bangles ducking store. Not a duck approached the blind in which he and Gen. Sewell were, although a flock was seen feeding on the opposite side of Gunpowder river. The President believes the ducks will come to Bangles, perhaps to-day. He will remain at the store until Saturday afternoon.

Illinois Lynches Felled by an Officer.

MARION, Ill., Feb. 17.—The town of Cartersville, near here, was a scene of excitement Tuesday night, caused by an attempt to lynch Ira Carmichael, a prisoner held by officers for rape. The officer, with his prisoner, stepped out of a back door as some of the crowd entered the front door, slipped away in the darkness, and walked nine miles to this city.

Insane Asylum Fire Jury to Report.

ROCKFORD, N. H., Feb. 17.—The jury that has been investigating the insane asylum fire which occurred last week near Dover, have reached conclusion which are to be published to-night. It is understood that several parties are to be severely criticized.

Courier d'Arène Mines to Shut Down.

BONN, Idaho, Feb. 17.—Advises from the Courier d'Arène silver mining district in Shoshone county are that owing to a low price of silver the mines will, in a few weeks, be compelled to shut down. This action will throw about 2,500 men out of employment.

Repairs the Farmers' Alliance Charter.

RADFORD, N. C., Feb. 17.—The Populists in the Legislature were astounded yesterday when the Democratic members proposed a man and passed a bill in the House to amend the charter of the State Farmers' Alliance, granted four years ago.

Repairs Donquet Castle.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—A party dinner was given to Senator Carlisle last night by his late associates of both parties in the Senate at the Arlington hotel.

- Gold-Headed Silk Umbrellas.
The Home Friendly Society, of Baltimore, Md., will present the two lucky competitors in the contest with handsome Gold-headed Silk Umbrellas.

CONDITIONS:

The two teachers who receive the greatest number of total votes up to the closing hour above stated will be declared the winners.
All coupons must be cut out of the EVENING HERALD and sent, securely sealed in envelope addressed to "Evening Herald, Shenandoah, Pa."
Any person residing in any place may vote as often as he or she may desire for one or more teachers engaged in teaching in a public school north of the Broad Mountain at the close of the current school term; provided, that any teacher who may have been incapacitated by sickness or accident for teaching for a period of not more than three months prior to the end of the term, may also compete.
Each vote for each teacher must be represented by a separate coupon.
A coupon bearing the name of more than one teacher or specifying more than one vote for a teacher will be thrown out as void.
A careful record will be kept of the names of all contestants, and all coupons will be filed and kept safe until the final adjudication. Three prominent and responsible men of Shenandoah will be selected to act as judges, make the final count, and announce the names of the two winners. Should three or more teachers be tied on the highest number of votes, the judges will be allowed to decide.
The names of the winners will be announced on or before Saturday, July 15, 1893. Should the winners be absent from Shenandoah at the time they will be informed of their good fortune by telegraph so that they may start on the trip as soon thereafter as possible.
All blanks in the coupon must be filled out, and usually the blank requiring the name of the person voting. The number of votes received at this office up to 4 p. m. each day will be published in the next issue of the HERALD with the names of the teachers voted for.

AN IMMENSE ASSORTMENT!
Ladies' and Children's Underwear!

A Few Days Ago!

Our Coat Room was dark and wintry looking—with fur-lined and fur-trimmed coats. Behold the change of a few days! Outside, gloomy winter; inside, spring warmth, light, beauty. Coat room no longer—but underwear room, arrayed in pure white with here and there a touch of color, just enough to give proper light and shadow. Be prepared to find everything changed.

- MUSLIN UNDERWEAR—Pure and spotless, now has the post of honor. We have a complete line of every garment in muslin that a lady requires.
- CHEMISE—All styles, from a neat trimming to the most elaborate work.
- DRAWERS—Bleached and unbleached, ranging in price from 25c up to those handsomely trimmed. Corset covers neatly made and good wearing—all styles and prices, to suit all tastes and purses, from 25c up.
- SKIRTS—Full length and full width, from a neat skirt at 50c to one ruffled, pleated and embroidered. You will find them here to suit all tastes—little trimmed, greatly trimmed, and very much trimmed.
- NIGHTGOWNS—We wonder when we see the quality of muslin and trimming, the really good work put on them, the time it requires to complete such a garment, how they can be sold for such little money. They range in price from 50c up to several dollars.
- WHITE GOODS—We must not forget White Goods. Flouncings, Hamburgs, 45 in. wide, from 25c a yard up. Embroideries, white and colored, all patterns, widths and prices. One of the latest fancies in embroideries is the colored edge. Fashion says they are to be the correct trimming for any style of dress becoming to the wearer.

We would like to impress upon every lady the wisdom of buying ready-made underwear. Don't waste time, energy and temper, but save it for more useful and congenial work. Prove your appreciation of our efforts to please by making your selection while lines are unbroken. We invite all ladies to call and make a thorough inspection.
