THIRD EDITION

THE THEATRE

References to Ferguson Theatre Coming Attractions.

Yonkers, N. Y., Jan. 9, 1892.

Herbert Cawthron is considered by all the theatre-goers of Yonkers, as well as myself, to be one of the cleverest Irish comedians on the stage. "Little Nugget" has always played to large houses here.

EUGENE ROOK, Manager.
"Little Nugget" will appear at the theatre on Wednesday, February 23d.

"SHADOW DETECTIVE."

Daniel A. Kelly appeared last night at Harris in "The Shadow Detective," supported by a good cast of characters. Daniel A. Kelly as a comedian and character actor is a pleasing success. His personification of an Irish policeman, as an Italian, and as a Yankee farmer, were all well received. — Cincinnati Enquirer. At Ferguson's theatre on Thursday evening, February 23d.

Good, Clean, Wholesome Fun

If Agnes Herndon in "La Belle Marie" is one-half as strong an attraction as the advance notices and flattering press excerpts from the large cities lead one to expect, then the audience that will greet this charming actress at Ferguson's theatre on Thursday evening, March 2d, will have an evening of unlimited enjoyment. "La Belle Marie" was written for Miss Herndon, expressly to fit the fair artist's line of work, and the New York and Boston critics, in particular, credit the author with having done a good piece of work. "It is a wholesome piece, clean and bright and leaves only pleasant memories of a very enjoyable evening well spent. If you see the first part you will enjoy it so much that you will stay to see the second, and then you will have to see the third, and fourth, and fifth acts, and as this is brought to such an unexpected and happy ending you leave the theatre feeling a hundred times better than when you entered it. It possesses the merit of being worth seeing more than once there is nothing unpleasantly suggested in work or situation, and the dialogue is sharp, witty, and to the point. It is a play that will make Miss Herndon famous and money for long time to come." So says the critic of the Cincinnati Enquirer, concerning this charming play. This is really one of the good things of our amusement season that you can't afford to miss.

Must Set Out.

As my store room is rented and I must vacate, it is necessary that I shall sell out my entire stock of dry goods, ladies' and children's underwear and laundry, boots, shoes and rubbers, etc. There will be an auction every night and private sales during the day until March 1st. A Good Record.

When Max Reese, one of the candidates for Justice of the Peace in the Third ward, was a Justice in the Second ward, under appointment by Governor Hoyt, he earned the reputation of returning less cases to court than any other Justice in the county. He returned less than ten per cent. of the cases taken before him and thus avoided the heavy cost, incidental to long litigation in petty cases. The voters of the Third ward should bear this in mind.

An Important Opinion.

A resident of town, while in Philadelphia recently, met Mr. Charles Bowman, formerly a prominent business man of this town, but now a resident of the Quaker City. In speaking of matters concerning this town, Mr. Bowman said he was pleased to hear Mr. John P. Finney was a candidate for the Borough Council, as he believed the people would have in him a man of unshaken integrity, enterprise and energy and within a year after his election they would derive benefits that would fully reward them for supporting him. Mr. Bowman added, "John Finney should have been given the nomination without a contest. He deserved it. There is not a man in Shenandoah who has done more to advance the interests of the town the past five years than he has and if I were still a resident of the place I would not only vote for him, but would back of my cash and do everything in my power to induce others to do likewise." Mr. Bowman was one of the most respected citizens of this town and his sentiments must have weight. He is quoted publicly by his authority.

"Forgiven."

Frederic Bryton, who stands foremost in his profession as an exponent of fine drama, scored a brilliant success at Ferguson's theatre last night in his play "Forgiven." Mr. Bryton is seen to excellent advantage in the role of Jack Diamond, a man who has a particular fondness for gambling, and whose supposed propensities for cards causes him to be estranged from his wife who is deceived by Jack's false friend, Edward G. Mason. The piece is built on original lines and its situations and complications are cleverly contrived and well carried out. It has been pronounced by eminent critics to be one of the cleverest plays ever put on the boards. The cast is not a large one, but almost every artist in it has at some time headed a separate organization. The play is one that appeals to the heart and brings out strongly the best elements of human nature. It is just the style of play that should be appreciated by every true American. Owing to the storm last night the house was nothing like what it should have been. At the earnest solicitation of a number of prominent citizens, Mr. Bryton was induced to play a return engagement on March 15th. We predict for him one of the largest audiences that ever witnessed a play in Shenandoah.

Do Not be Deceived.

Persons with weak lungs—those who are constantly catching cold—should wear an Alcock's Porous Plaster over the chest and another between the shoulder blades during cold weather. Remember they always strengthen and never weaken the part to which they are applied. Do not be deceived by imagining any other plaster like them—they are not—may look it, but looks deceive. Insist always on having Alcock's, the only reliable plaster ever produced.

If you want a careful and painstaking Justice of the Peace in the Third ward, vote for Max Reese.

A Vote for Mr. Flynn.

EDITOR HERALD:—You will echo the sentiments of a majority of the voters in this borough if you will urge the re-election of Mr. Anthony Flynn to the office of High Constable. There is no one in this town, irrespective of party, who has not a good word for this gentleman, and who will not admit that he has filled the position very satisfactorily the past year. I, for one, hope that when casting their ballots on election-day the citizens will not overlook Mr. Flynn's title to re-election and will see that he is re-elected. He is deserving of it in more than one sense.

Colorless, Emaciated, Helpless

A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D. M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Onego Co., N. Y.

"Fourteen years ago I had an attack of the gravel, and have since been troubled with my Liver and Kidneys gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got upon a doctor that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, and my color began to return. After I had taken three bottles, I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla."
