"SHADOW DETECTIVE" "The Shadow Detective" is one of the most sensational melodramas that has visited Louisville for some time. The black signal tower scene in act 3d never fails to bring down the house. The detective throws the switch in time to prevent a collision, and the patrons of the Bijou are happy.—Louisville, Ky., Journal, At Ferguson's theatre, on Thursday evening, February 23d.

There are many common ailments which there is only one great cure for (all forms of Sprains, Cuts, Bruises and all bodily pain. Its name is Red Flag Oil. Costs 25 cents. Sold at P. D. Kirtley's drug store.

A Touching Stage Episode.

A very touching incident happened in Boston last September, during the engagement of the great actress, Miss Agnes Herndon, in that city. At the close of the matinee performance a rather poorly-clad woman applied at the stage door and timidly asked permission to see Miss Herndon. The door-keeper, always on the alert for intruders and inquisitive callers, refused her request, but on her persisting to be granted an audience with the actress finally consented to allow her to enter. On being conducted to and brought face to face to Miss Herndon the pale-faced little woman burst into a flood of tears, exclaiming between her sobs: "God bless you, lady, and take the heart-felt prayers of a mother for the lesson you have shown me to-day. I had a daughter once, and the aged mother nearly broke down with sobs, 'who had she seen 'La Belle Marie,' as you have shown her to-day, would beat home now, instead of being a wanderer—God only knows where. I did not want to go home until I had thanked you from the bottom of my heart for the good words and the moral you play teaches." And the old lady, kissing Miss Herndon, silently withdrew and went to her probably lonely and childless home. The story of "La Belle Marie" will go direct to any mother's heart.

Each time I have applied Alcock's Porous Plasters, and in every instance I have been quickly relieved by applying one across my chest and one on my back. My friends, through my advice, have tried the experiment and also found it most successful. I feel that I can recommend them most highly to any one who may see fit to try them.

Underwear!

A Few Days Ago!

Our Coat Room was dark and wintry looking—with fur-lined and fur-trimmed coats. Behold the change of a few days! Outside, gloomy winter; inside, spring warmth, light, beauty. Coat room no longer—but underwear room, arrayed in pure white with here and there a touch of color, just enough to give proper light and shadow. Be prepared to find everything changed.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR—Pure and spotless, now has the post of honor. We have a complete line of every garment in muslin that a lady requires.

CHEMISE—All styles, from a neat trimming to the most elaborate work.

DRAWERS—Bleached and unbleached, ranging in price from 25c up to those handsomely trimmed. Corset covers neatly made and good wearing—all styles and prices, to suit all tastes and purses, from 25c up.

SKIRTS—Full length and full width, from a neat skirt at 25c to one ruffled, pleated and embroidered. You will find them here to suit all tastes—little trimmed, greatly trimmed, and very much trimmed.

NIGHTGOWNS—We wonder when we see the quality of muslin and trimming, the really good work put on them, the time it requires to complete such a garment, how they can be sold for such little money. They range in price from 50c up to several dollars.

WHITE GOODS—We must not forget White Goods, Flouncings, Hamburgs, 45 in. wide, from 25c a yard up. Embroideries, white and colored, all patterns, widths and prices.
