THE READING.

The Philadelphia & Reading Rall road Company has again (passed Into the hands of Receivers, but this fact should not give the people any unsusiness. Ever since the reorganization of the company and the subsequent inauguration of the consolidated system it has been fought bitterly on many sides and every possible advantage has been taken of it. So bitter has been the warfare against it in and out of the courts and among the capitalists that had not the affairs been in the hunds of such men as Mr. McLood and his able assistants the company would have met a more disastrous turn than that which it now is abliged to cope with.

FOR GOVERNOR.

The Republican party of Pennsylvania has plenty of good material from which to select the next candldate for Governor, but among the most distinguished, a man with the best and cleanest of records, of great popularity, a staunch friend of the party and all its interests is Hon. Charles W, Stone, of Warren county, present member of Congress, ex-Lieutenant Governor of the state, ex-Secretary of the State and ex-member of the Legislature.

Colonel Stone is a man of genial disposition and undoubted ability and integrity and would fill the Gubernatorial chair with credit to this great Commonwealth. He has been tried in many positions of great public trust and his administration in all of them have been such that his most bitter anemies, if he had any, have not found a chance to point the finger of censure against hm.

With Colonel Stone, the Stalwart, at his number he is forced to wander at the head of the ticket next year back and forth upon the street until the Republican party could sweep the some lucky turn brings him exactly to his destination. The first player who disposes of the five postals, which are his state and make one of the most glorious administrations of its existence.
