THE THEATRE.

References to Ferguson Theatre Coming Attractions.

"Little Nugget" Comedy Co., with Herbert Cawthorn as principal comedian, played my house this season and gave entire satisfaction. Cawthorn is very funny and pleasant every body.
M. C. BARBER, Manager.
"Little Nugget" will appear at the theatre this evening.

"SHADOW DETECTIVE"
The "Shadow Detective" was produced yesterday at Harris' theatre with Daniel Kelly in the title role. Mr. Kelly assumes three characters during the play, which abounds in sensational features, one of which being a railway collision at a block tower. Mr. Harry Albaugh made an excellent Italian villain, his character work being very clever. —Garrison Post. At Ferguson's theatre to-morrow evening.

There are many copies of the "Chicago Tribune" but there is only one great cure for all forms of sprains, cuts, bruises, etc., all ready at hand. It is the only one that is sold at 10¢ a bottle. Sold at W. R. H. & Co.'s Drug Store.

Literary Notes.

The "Chicago Tribune" the subject of the front-page illustration to appear in the next number of Hesper's Weekly, published February 21st, is a familiar figure to Chicagoans but his peculiar uniform will be regarded with peculiar interest by those who have never visited the World's Fair city. An illustration in the same number of Mr. French's statue of "The Republic" which is to adorn the centre of the lagoon at the exposition, will also attract attention. Apropos of Washington's Birthday, the number will contain an article, with illustrations, on the English name of Washington's ancestors The Dog Show in New York will be appropriately illustrated and described. There will be an interesting article on the Synes Operating Surgical Theatre, and one on the community of Harmonites at Economy, Pennsylvania. The eighteenth article in the series on the "Capitals of the World" will be a graphic description of Copenhagen by Andre Michel. The fiction will include "The Adventures of the Silver Blaze," a new instalment of A. Conan Doyle's famous "Sherlock Holmes" series, with illustrations.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES."

A Chance.

In another column of this paper will be found an announcement of an excellent business chance at Frackville, Pa., by W. S. Sauner, of that place. Mr. Sauner refers to Henry Hechler, Rev. John Grabler and William Kimmel, of town. 2-22 11

Every coupon properly filled out counts as one vote for one teacher. Every person, young or old, can vote, and vote as often as they please. Coupon must be in the hands of the editor within ten (10) days after the date it bears.

CONDITIONS:

The two teachers who receive the greatest number of total votes up to the closing hour above stated will be declared the winners.

All coupons must be cut out of the EVENING HERALD and sent, securely sealed in envelope, addressed to "Contest Editor, Evening Herald, Shenandoah, Pa."

Any person residing in any place may vote as often as he or she may desire for one or more teachers engaged in teaching in a public school north of the Broad Mountain at the close of the current school term; provided, that any teacher who may have been incapacitated by sickness or accident for teaching for a period of not more than three months prior to the end of the term, may also compete.

Each vote for each teacher must be represented by a separate coupon.

A coupon bearing the name of more than one teacher or specifying more than one vote for a teacher will be thrown out as void.

A careful record will be kept of the names of all contestants, and all coupons will be filed and kept safe until the final adjudication. Three prominent and responsible men of Shenandoah will be selected to act as judges, make the final count, and announce the names of the two winners. Should three or more teachers be tied on the highest number of votes, the judges will be allowed to decide.

The names of the winners will be announced on or before Saturday, July 15, 1893. Should the winners be absent from Shenandoah at the time they will be informed of their good fortune by telegraph, so that they may start on the trip as soon thereafter as possible.

All blanks in the coupon must be filled out, especially the blank requiring the name of the person voting. The number of votes received at this office up to 4 p. m. each day will be published in the next issue of the Herald with the names of the teachers voted for.

AN IMMENSE ASSORTMENT!

Ladies' and Children's Underwear!

A Few Days Ago!

Our Coat Room was dark and wintry looking—with fur-lined and fur-trimmed coats. Behold the change of a few days! Outside, gloomy winter; inside, spring warmth, light, beauty. Coat room no longer—but underwear room, arrayed in pure white with here and there a touch of color, just enough to give proper light and shadow. Be prepared to find everything changed.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR—Pure and spotless, now has the post of honor. We have a complete line of every garment in muslin that a lady requires.

CHEMISE—All styles, from a neat trimming to the most elaborate work.

DRAWERS—Bleached and unbleached, ranging in prices from 25c up to those handsomely trimmed. Corset covers neatly made and good wearing—all styles and prices, to suit all tastes and purses, from 25c up.

SKIRTS—Full length and full width, from a neat skirt at 50c to one ruffled, pleated and embroidered. You will find them here to suit all tastes—little trimmed, greatly trimmed, and very much trimmed.

NIGHTGOWNS—We wonder when we see the quality of muslin and trimming, the really good work put on them, the time it requires to complete such a garment, how they can be sold for such little money. They range in price from 50c up to several dollars.

WHITE GOODS—We must not forget White Goods. Flouncings, Hamburgs, 45 in. wide, from 25c a yard up. Embroideries, white and colored, all patterns, widths and prices. One of the latest fancies in embroideries is the colored edge. Fashion says they are to be the correct trimming for any style of dress becoming to the wearer.

We would like to impress upon every lady the wisdom of buying ready-made underwear. Don't waste time, energy and temper, but save it for more useful and congenial work. Prove your appreciation of our efforts to please by making your selection while lines are unbroken. We invite all ladies to call and make a thorough inspection.
