PENSION LEGISLATION.

The most virulent and unprecedented attack yet made on the pendon system, remarks the Media Leader, was attempted last week in Congress when the General Appropriation Bill came on, by the leaders of the Disno. cratic amjority. Many prominent Democrats stood out against it, but the old Southern leaders were in the saddle, booted and spurred, for attack against the pensions to Union soldlers and the transfer of the Pension Department from the Interior to the War Bureau, A long debate, in which nearly every prominent Republican and Democrat took part and lasting several days, followed the proposal of the Committee to reduce the pensions There has been no debate like it, in the intensity of feeling aroused, for many years. The adverse action and animus of the Democratic majority to the pensioners of the Union army was fairly disclosed. It is anything but cordial and betokens a very serious invasion of the pension. list, should the present Democratic majority get full swing at the reduction.

A curious development of the case was that brought out in the speechthe ablest man on the Republican side-of Congressman Boutelle, of Maine. He showed by records from the Pension Office that many ex-Confederates are now drawing pensions, under the Mexican war list, and a number of widows-as the widow for instance of Adjutant General of Lee's army-of officers, who did their jest to destroy the government from 1831 to 1885, are enjoying the so-called favors of the Pension Department, 57rs.
