THIRD EDITION

IT WAS A SCARE.

The Fire Department Called to Glover's Hill Saturday Night.

Long blasts from the whistle of the Koh-nor colliery breaker followed by the sounding of the fire bell started the people Saturday night and they hurried in the direction of the colliery in drives of hundreds. While hurrying to the place many men and women were much excited as they feared the breaker was on fire and the men in the mines were doomed.

Fortunately the fire was not at the colliery, but in a dwelling near the north end of one of the Glover's Hill rows. The fire gained considerable headway, but the firemen speedily put it under control and finally extinguished the flames before they got far from the starting point.

Fire Marshal Eddy made an investigation after the fire was put out and concluded that it was started by the explosion of a lighted lamp which had been left in the stairway leading to the basement of the house. The damage done was limited to about fifty dollars.

It Suits the People

Is what happened on Monday they were of the first of the winter season. The fire is the most pleasant feeling. The fire is the most pleasant feeling. The fire is the most pleasant feeling.

THE THEATRE

References to Ferguson's Theatre

Little Lottie Henson is one of the sweetest of stage children. She is always perfectly at ease, acts well, and sings and dances in addition. She is quite an accomplished little lady. Lottie is one of Lottie Collins' smallest and youngest imitators. Her attempt at the song and dance made famous by the London concert hall singer is decidedly funny. This little child is the pleasantest feature of "The Barbarian"—Evening Theatre. "The Barbarian" will appear at Ferguson's theatre on Wednesday evening, March 14.

Miss Agnes Herndon will appear at Ferguson's theatre in "La Belle Marie, or A Woman's Revenge," a five-act comedy drama on Thursday evening, March 15.

Marie Hubert Frohman will play a return engagement presenting for the second time in this city "The Witch" by Philip Hamilton and Marie Madison. "The Witch" is a peculiar play descriptive of the operation of the blue laws in the old days when witches were supposed to exist. It is a work of fiction, but is based on historical facts and the dress and manners peculiar to the days of witchcraft in Massachusetts. To the student of history the play must prove instructive, and even of absorbing interest, while the average theatregoer who seeks recreation at the play house will doubtless find it an interesting novelty. At Ferguson's theatre on Monday evening, March 16.

Your children cry liable to Coughs, Cold, Sore Throat, Croup and Whooping Cough which often result seriously. Prompt treatment gives many happy little sufferers. Try Park-Ton Cough and Consumption Cure. It's pleasant, safe and sure. 25 cts. Sold at E. D. Kirk's drug store.

STEADILY ADVANCING.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. Doing Effective Work in Schuylkill County.

The Advisory Council of Schuylkill county, composed of representatives from the various Councils of the Jr. O. U. A. M., held a meeting in town Saturday evening in Melle's hall. The object of the formation of the Advisory Council, as stated by a prominent member of the order, is for the purpose of securing united action in the work of the organization, and to bring the members into a closer fellowship.

The meeting Saturday evening was a very important one, and much work was transacted. Steps were taken for the purpose of placing a county organizer in the field. It was stated that there were a number of towns in the county where Councils could be located without trouble.

The next meeting of the Advisory Council will be held at Girardville on March 18th at 7 o'clock.

A Dramatic Event.

Unless all signs fail the theatre will be thronged to witness the performance of Miss Agnes Herndon and her players. We enjoy the following from a recent exchange: "Miss Herndon's dramatic talents did not do her full justice. We expected something above the ordinary, but the dramatic treat set before us made us thirst for more, more, more. Miss Herndon's transition from the confiding, loving girl to the scheming, devilish, cunning and laughing woman, was so cleverly and artistically done that the great actress lost her identity completely. Agnes Herndon's performance was lost sight of, and only La Belle Marie was seen by the audience. The reception was complete, and can be scored as a grand achievement on the part of the fair artist. Miss Herndon is always dramatic, and at times rises to the height of greatness, told only by those whose names are more familiar to our amusement-loving public, namely, Charlotte Cushman and the late lamented McCullough. In the fourth act, where Miss Herndon says to Karl, on his request to be careful, 'Oh, yes I'll be careful, so careful,' her attitude is grand, her voice full of fire, appearing to the audience a triumphant woman majestic and mighty in the force she lends to this powerful climax. Nothing on the stage exceeds this." Don't fail to see Miss Herndon at Ferguson's theatre next Thursday evening.

It is strictly an American comedy; home made and without foreign flavor. We refer to "La Belle Marie," the greatest success on earth to date.

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.

Heart Failure Carries Off Another Respected Citizen.

Robert Parker, 69 years of age, and a respected citizen, died at his home on West Cherry street, yesterday afternoon, of heart failure. He lay on a lounge talking with his son when he suddenly expired. An hour before he had complained of cramps, and as he grew steadily worse a physician was summoned, but Mr. Parker breathed his last before he could receive medical attendance.

Only last week Mr. Parker told his wife he was getting very feeble and would not be with her long. He is survived by four sons, Matt and Lance, of town; John, living in Shamokin, and Samuel, of Philadelphia; besides a daughter, Mrs. Richardson, of Mahanoy City. His wife is a confined invalid, having been confined to her room for several years.

The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Interment in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

Pleasure Spotted.

Dr. and Mrs. Stein started out yesterday to enjoy a sleigh ride through the Catawissa valley, but after driving several miles the pleasure was suddenly terminated by an immense snow drift that would have broken the heart of a gigantic steam plow. The doctor was inclined to make an attempt to overcome the obstacle, but Mrs. Stein finally persuaded him that to turn around and drive back home would not be as tiresome as lifting fence rails.

Those who in the goodness of their hearts desire to bound their neighbors, should recommend the use of Dr. Cox's Wild Cherry and Seneca.

A Cooking Mistake.

A large number of sports of this place, Girardville, Ashland and Mahanoy City assembled at a secluded place near the outskirts of this town Saturday night and won a lot of money on a cooking party. The party were owned by well known parties of town and Girardville, and the latter were defeated by a score of three to two. The bottles were for $25 each. Considerable money changed hands on the result.

Reading Officials

Much speculation is being indulged in as to who will be appointed by the Receivers of the Reading road to the position of Superintendent for the Mahanoy division. The appointment will likely be made on Wednesday. It is said a number of other changes in superintendents will be made. The opinions of local officials seem to be that B. F. Bertellette is looked for the Mahanoy division.
