OUR POTTSVILLE LETTER!

MORE VIEWS ON THE VACANT JUDGESHIP.

HON. J. B. REILLY'S DECLINATION

Our Correspondent's Prediction of What Will Occur in Connection With the Appointment. Pending Bills.

POTTSVILLE, Feb. 28th.
It is given out that Hon. J. B. Reilly has declined the appointment of Judge; in fact Mr. Reilly gave it out himself on Saturday night to a few friends. He wrestled with it for a week and said although he was not offered the Bench positively, he was led to believe that he could have it if he wanted it. Mr. Reilly concluded not to take it but to stick to the position to which he had been elected by a handsome majority and thereby please his constituents. Mr. Reilly is thoughtful and levelheaded. He is taking no chances of defeat next fall and he now adds another leaf to his popularity.

And now, to wit, February 28th, 1893, Mason Weidman, Esq., is groomed and brought to the front to compete with the Republican, R. H. Koch, Esq. Weidman is a Democrat with independent tendencies when a man is nominated for Judge like Mr. Reilly was twice who (Weidman) can't stomach. Mr. Reilly never had Weidman's support for Judge and Mr. Reilly, way down in his No. 7 boots, thinks the appointment belongs to a Republican lawyer of ability. Therefore he, with a majority of his fellow citizens would hail Mr. Koch's appointment with favor, because as a political move it would be a brilliant one. Thousands of citizens are of the same opinion. But a small coterie of corporation Democratic attorneys are pushing Weidman. Yesterday they circulated a petition in his behalf, Corporation Counsel Sam Kaecher carried around the paper. He didn't get many names, about a dozen, it is said. This is the crowd who oppose Koch so bitterly, and every time he shows his head they try to hit. They are envious of Koch because he is able and honest, and they have circulated that he would be controlled by such men as Whitehouse, Honning, et al. They compose the galaxy of light weight who never could stomach the many successes at the Bar achieved by Whitehouse and Honning and they want to throw every obstacle in their way, even going so far as to pack the Bench with men of their own class.

NOW THIS IS WHAT WILL HAPPEN.
Against Mr. Weidman we have nothing to say. He may be appointed to be Judge and he will be entitled to my respect and yours. But just so sure as he is, he will be defeated. Weidman is a 200lb. avoidupois gentleman. If he weighed a ton it wouldn't matter if he possesses the ability to be a Judge, and there are those at the Bar who think he does. He is championed by Sam Kaecher, Guy Farquhar, and two or three others, while Koch has over forty lawyers back of him, twenty-three of them Democrats, and a growing sentiment that our Bench is entitled to one Republican Judge. This sentiment has taken hold of Democrats everywhere as well as Republicans, and if Weidman is appointed Koch will be elected next November. Besides, if Weidman is appointed, Wadlinger will beat him in the convention and his career as Judge will wind up on the first Monday of next January.

In addition to this the Orphans' Court bill will be killed and the new County of Hazle created. Our county will be gerrymandered into a Republican Congressional district and we shall soon have a new deal all around. "Once more for the cigars," as it were. And Sam DeTurk's eloquent appeal against the new county he is making in Harrisburg to-day will be fruitless. Think of Sam DeTurk as Schuykill county's orator against the new county. Oh, shades of F. W. Hughes and Lin Bartholomew!

Look out for breakers.

Gambling Complaint.
EDITOR HERALD:—I read in one of the papers last night that the Chief of Police and three subordinates in Pottsville raided a gambling hall in that town and arrested two men for gambling for money and the men arrested have been held for trial at court. If such arrests can be made in Pottsville why is it the police of this town cannot attack the hell holes that are causing so many families in this town so much distress. I am quite sure that the borough officials know of several gambling places in our midst and they know they have been frequently complained of. Why don't they do their duty, as the Pottsville officials have?

A SUFFERER.
That old established cough remedy, Downs Elixir, still more than holds its own in the public estimation, despite sharp and active competition. It is a "home remedy," and in this locality needs no word of praise from us, so well and favorably known is it. It is the standard remedy for coughs, colds and all throat troubles, with great numbers of our people, and their continued use and unsolicited recommendation of it speaks volumes in its favor.—Burlington, Vt., Free Press, January 25, 1892.

The struggle between Misses Stein and Wasley for the retention of second place in the HERALD'S teachers' contest has become so warm that it is attracting general attention. For several days past it has been adjacent track between those two ladies and as a consequence each have polled a great number of votes.
A number of the teachers down the line polled many votes yesterday. Miss Smith made a nice poll and went above 1,000 making the thirteenth contestant above that mark.
The management is trying to make arrangements to announce its extra inducements by Saturday night. Watch for it. All will be interested.

PERSONAL.

W. A. Marx, Esq., was a visitor to town to-day.
Thomas Jenkins, of Turkey Run, is seriously ill.
Squire Monaghan will start for Washington to-morrow.
George Palmer, Sr., returned home from Philadelphia last evening.
C. H. Reiter, landlord of Hotel Penn, Reading, was in town last evening.

Mrs. Thomas Rich, of Ashland, visited her sister, Mrs. J. F. Finney, in town yesterday. Edith Wilson, of the Mt. Carmel Hotel, made pleasant call at the HERALD's sanctum yesterday.

Mine Inspector Stein spent to-day at Mahanoy City and Park Place looking after the progress of mine workings.
Rev. S. A. Yeakel has been appointed by the Bowman wing of the Evangelical conference as pastor for that church in town.
John S. Marshall, Thomas Sanger, Tim Coakley, F. V. Heisenberger and James Francis, of town, have been drawn as jurors for the week commencing April 3d.

A Complaint.
A reputable gentleman of town complains against two young men who have been selling pictures and frames in town the past few days. He alleges that their mode of procedure is of the fakir order. According to his statement one of the men calls at a house with a picture and if he cannot make a sale he asks permission to leave it until he can leave another next door, get his dinner, or do something else. It is only a pretext for getting the picture into the house. Soon after young man No. 2 calls at the house and asks payment for the picture. It is here where the fakirism comes in according to our informant. If the mistress of the house is alone the second caller resorts to bulldozing to secure payment and in at least one case he has been very insulting.

New Laws.
Unless the Governor vetoes, the following new laws will be placed upon the statute books:
The standard weight of onions to be 50 lbs. to the bushel.
Eight hours a legal day's work for all persons employed about the coal mines.
Chief Burgess to be elected for three years.
Where the relative merits of Dr. Coze's Wild Cherry and Seneca are known, as compared with other cough remedies, less bottles of the former are sold to one of the latter.

A Rare Chance.
The license, good will and fixtures of the Paul Summa saloon, on South Main street, is offered for sale. Possession given immediately. For further particulars apply to

ACCIDENT IN A SCHOOL!

TUMBLING WHILE SLIDING ON A BALUSTRADE.

A WARNING TO OTHER CHILDREN

The Work of the License Court. A Number of New Applicants Made Happy—Long List of Refusals.

SINCE the nine-year-old daughter of Mrs. Link, of North Jardin street, met with a serious accident in the school building at the corner of West and Centre streets yesterday afternoon. A few minutes before the school were dismissed the child secured permission to leave her class room and when descending the stairs she threw herself upon the balustrade to slide down.

The child kept a hold until about half way down, when she toppled over and fell to the floor a distance of about six feet. She fell heavily upon her side and was unable to regain her feet. Janitor Boddell picked up the girl and carried her home.
Dr. Kleiser and Rieth have since been in attendance. It is feared the hip has received a serious injury. The child has suffered so much pain that it has not been possible to take off her clothing and remained today on the sofa on which she was placed yesterday.
The sympathy of the community goes out to Mrs. Link. During the last two years she has been very unfortunate. In that time she has been made a widow and buried a young son who died after a very brief illness.
It is hoped that the unfortunate experience of the little girl in this case will serve to deter other school children from sliding down balustrades in the school buildings. A teacher stated to-day that everything possible has been done to break the dangerous practice.
Another dangerous sport which the teachers find much difficulty in prohibiting is the descending of stairways two steps at a time.

AN ANNIVERSARY.
The Ladies of Lady Harrison Lodge Celebrants' hall was just comfortably filled last evening, by members and friends of Lady Harrison Lodge, No. 16, A. P. L., which celebrated the fifth anniversary of its organization. A well prepared programme of songs, recitations and instrumental music was pleasingly rendered by lodge members and other home talent. The opening ode was followed by selections on the organ, violin and organ by Misses Goodhead, James and Boddell.
James and Robert Patterson and chorus amused the audience several times during the evening with songs and recitations and were frequently encored.
Miss Bainbridge, a promising young elocutionist, told her auditors how she gave her husband a degree, and was followed by a very creditable recitation by Miss Davis, Ben. Hasky, Harry Richards, John Posler, Mrs. James, Messrs. Hall and Minnick and others in songs and readings were listened to with great attention and were several times recalled.
The entertainment was concluded, as all good entertainments should be, with a light lunch of coffee, sandwiches, cakes and fruits that put the inner man in good spirits and sent all home in the best of humor.

OVER EIGHTY BALLOTS.
Difficulty Experienced in Electing a Mine Inspector.
The mine inspectorship made vacant by the death of William A. McMurrin remains unfilled. After taking forty unsuccessful ballots on Monday the Mine Examining Board met again at Pottsville and took forty-three more without result.
A member of the board was seen this morning and he said the balloting would be resumed to-day, but he had not the slightest idea whether or not an inspector would be elected. He said there are eighteen applicants and during the voting the ballots changed from one to another and none have yet received the number of votes required for an election.
The examining board consists of five members and four votes are required for an election. It is feared by some that the board will be subjected to a deadlock that will cause the matter to drag along for some time and several hundred ballots may be required, as was the case when the late Mr. McMurrin was elected.

Pointers.
March came in like a lamb.
The gambling halls must go.
Parents, keep your daughters off the streets at night.
Close the speak-easies.
Law-makers should observe the laws.
Some don't. Clean the pavements.
It is against the law to allow minors to play pool. It is a dead letter in town.
The gambling dens in town are doing more injury to the young men than all the rum shops in the county put together.
Don't buy of fakirs. It always results in being victimized.
What has become of the crusade against peddlers?

The license granted for town places affect the following locations: Michael Curly will open a saloon in his property on Lloyd street just east of the Lehigh railroad. D. K. Shoener will open in the place he now occupies on North Main street and which he now conducts as an oyster saloon. Michael Mullahy's license is granted for a place on East Centre street opposite Squire Monaghan's office. The license granted E. J. Starria is also for a place on East Centre street. William P. Delaney will open a saloon on West Centre street, next to the telegraph office. The place is now occupied by Foley, the grocer.

The license granted James Tobin is for the place at the corner of Jardin and Coal streets formerly conducted by William Bobbin. It is the property owned by Mrs. Delaney.
Mrs. Burns' license is for the place in which she kept a saloon for several years. It is on the east side of Main street, just north of Lloyd. Martin C. Purcell will use his license for the property on East Lloyd street in which he formerly kept a store.

Must Sell Out.
As my store room is rented and I must vacate, it is necessary that I shall sell out my entire stock of dry goods, ladies' and children's underwear and hosiery, boots, shoes and rubbers, etc. There will be an auction every night and private sales during the day until March 1st. Sell's Bargain store, 25 South Main street, next door to the clothing store, Shenandoah. 2-14-1f

A Paralytic Stroke.
John R. Hughes, an aged resident of Smith West street, received a paralytic stroke at three o'clock this morning. His friends said this afternoon they did not think the stroke was a dangerous one. The left side of the body is affected. Mr. Hughes is under the care of Dr. Straup.
